Tom BENSON
OWNER/PRESIDENT

Tom Benson's pronouncement that he would one day bring a championship to New Orleans came to fruition on February 7, 2010 when his New Orleans Saints defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV.

The Saints' successful march to the National Football League's Championship level culminated with the presentation of the Vince Lombardi Trophy on a Sunday evening under warm skies in South Florida. The coveted award ceremony embodied the testament and realization of the principles that Mr. Benson has instilled in the Saints' organization throughout his 25 years of team ownership.

The essential qualities and directives of Benson's tenure as owner of the Saints have been unadorned - direct all of his efforts and resources towards bringing the fans what have been consistently new levels of success on the football field, all the while supporting his hometown and the entire region by investing in the community. Mr. Benson has understood since purchasing the club in 1985 that the Saints are part of the fabric of the Gulf South: a cornerstone of the region economically and he has made them a leader in charitable causes.

In 2009, the Saints entered their 25th season under Benson's ownership, a period defined by historic advancements in successes, whether it be measured by victories, playoff appearances, Superdome attendance figures, national television coverage, positive economic impacts both locally and regionally, as well as serving as one of the most philanthropic and charitable citizens in the city's rich and colorful history.

During his ownership and leadership of the Saints, Benson has helped drive the evolution of the team's legion of fans support that reached a crescendo when the supporters turned out in record numbers to welcome the Saints home from the Super Bowl for a parade that organizers stated exceeded 800,000 spectators.

While his work within the organization and the Saints' turnaround is well documented, his efforts have also paid dividends for the city and the surrounding area. During his tenure as owner, the city has already hosted four Super Bowls, and was awarded Super Bowl XLVII (to be played in 2013) following a vote by NFL Owners after Benson directed a successful campaign during annual league meetings. Mr. Benson has been the driving force behind each campaign to secure the contest, and made this latest accomplishment his top priority in an effort to present the recovery of New Orleans on an international level. And each Super Bowl has been an economic windfall that totals over $400 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week.

Mr. Benson has made the objectives of success, support and investment in the region not only his personal direction daily, but the core values of the entire organization. Success has followed, both on the field and off. When Mr. Benson purchased the team, the Saints entered the most compelling and memorable period in franchise history. Prior to his arrival, the club's fans had never enjoyed a winning record, celebrated a division title or experienced the thrill of playoff victories.

But Mr. Benson's impact was immediate. Two years after assuming the reins of the organization, the Saints hosted their first playoff contest. After multiple winning seasons, playoff berths and division titles since, in 2006 the club advanced to the NFC Championship Game, lifting the spirits of the entire region.

His dedication to New Orleans has been among Mr. Benson's most rewarding endeavors. Since 2005, he has positioned the Saints as a leader in the recovery of the region in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, the worst natural disaster in our nation's history. The club was among the first major businesses to return to New Orleans, and in 2006 had a thrilling season that became an inspiration for a region on the mend. The efforts of the organization have continued to lift the community, with the team serving as an economic engine and a pacesetter in philanthropic contributions.

Under Mr. Benson's guidance, the Saints have been a focal point for healing and restoration - annually putting $15 million in charitable contributions, goods and services back into the Gulf South and Greater New Orleans. He pledged the club's commitment to the region was firm and lasting, with his focus on building a stronger and more unified city. It's a direction that continues to evolve and expand.

Mr. Benson's most ambitious project to date was announced in the spring of 2009 when he stepped forward with the purchase of the formerly vacant and blighted Dominion Tower in New Orleans' Central Business District. As part of the agreement, Benson and his family also purchased the unoccupied New Orleans Centre. The two important commercial spaces, which were vacant since Hurricane Katrina struck the Gulf Coast in 2005, are helping to return the CBD into a more vibrant and viable sector of New Orleans and revitalizing an area that was largely ignored for the better part of four years.

Benson's economic investment plan, which included agreements on both a private and public level, will revitalize the Superdome area, and the agreement with the state includes a dramatic modernization of the stadium. The upgrades with his help will include a legion of new enhancements to improve the fan experience for all events at the Superdome and keep the building competitive with new stadiums across the country.

Mr. Benson's vision of what an NFL club should be off the field - proactive, with a positive impact on the prosperity of the community and the charities that support the less fortunate - has been the determining factor of the Saints' approach.

The Saints' owner has not only reached out by supporting charities, but also by recognizing the future of the area's economy depends on keeping major businesses and employers in the Gulf South locally-owned. His philosophy is to rebuild the economy by developing the infrastructure of the region from the inside, and Mr. Benson recently made another large investment in the city's future and has encouraged a number of other businesses to follow his example.

BENSON COMMUNITY SERVICE

Tom Benson's greatest impact over the last 26 years has been in the community, and the club's charitable involvement has been among his most rewarding endeavors personally since 1985. He realized immediately the Saints could be more than just a football team to the region, and that the club's players, coaches and staff were pacesetters when it came to volunteerism, involvement, donations and charitable outreach. As a corporate citizen, the Saints annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and the donation of goods and services - not to mention the club's critical role in economic impact and development.

Mr. Benson and the Saints have been honored repeatedly during his years as Owner for the support and care of charitable and civic causes, including the Volunteers of American selecting Mr. Benson as the winner of the annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in 2008. In 2010, Mr. Benson was awarded Loyola University of New Orleans' highest honor as the recipient of the Integritas Vitae Award, given to an individual who exemplifies a commitment to community service.

Just days following the storm, Mr. Benson and his family started the New Orleans Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million. Annually, the club has also partnered with local youth-oriented charities such as the Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts and the United Way to reach as many children as possible. And over 45 foundations and agencies receive monetary donations from the Saints each year - organizations as diverse as Make-A-Wish Foundation, the American Heart Association, the United Negro College Fund, Habitat For Humanity, the New Orleans Police and Justice Foundation, the National Council of Jewish Women and the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra.

In addition to backing charities, Mr. Benson has also been a leading advocate for New Orleans and the Gulf South region. He lends his support in attracting new events to the city, and members of the Saints' front office have worked in conjunction with the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation and NCAA to bid and receive both the Men's and Women's Final Four Basketball Championships. New Orleans' leading advocate of the successful bid to host Super Bowl XLVII (to be played in 2013), Mr. Benson remains committed to work on behalf of the city to land future Super Bowls.

OWNERSHIP

In 2008, he purchased WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally owned. After researching the trends of the media industry, Mr. Benson discovered television stations have increasingly become parts of national media conglomerates, and his focus remains on keeping Louisiana businesses owned by those with ties to the state.

Since 2006 - when New Orleans captured the nation's imagination by winning the NFC South and advancing further into the postseason than ever before - the Saints have been symbolic of the region's resolve and grit, though Mr. Benson as usual chooses to work quietly in the background.

His tenure as owner has been defined by honesty, dedication, loyalty and commitment to the city, region, Saints and the NFL. When Mr. Benson initially became interested in purchasing the club in 1985, he was motivated by out-of-town investors were planning to move the club from New Orleans. He was certainly a fan of the game and the Saints, but the sport had yet to become one of Benson's passions.

As one of the area's top businessmen, Mr. Benson recognized the importance of the team to the region, and he immediately spearheaded the effort to keep the Saints. But unlike others at the time, it wasn't just an emotional plea. He pooled all of his resources, purchased the club in 1985 and preserved the Saints for the team's legion of fans across the area. And the once-rampant speculation that the club was moving immediately ceased.

While Mr. Benson's initial motivation for purchasing the team was to ensure it did not leave New Orleans, all of the Saints' best seasons have come since his arrival, and Mr. Benson's goal remains for the club to rank among the most admired franchises in all of sports, a feat that took a monumental step forward with the Saints' first-ever NFC and NFL championships in 2009.

So perhaps the Saints' successes in the years since were to be expected. Football was a new business for Mr. Benson when he arrived on the scene, but he was a quick learner and followed his lifelong professional philosophy of finding the right people and giving them the freedom to handle their responsibilities.

Mr. Benson also immediately emerged as one of the most trusted and valued figures in the league. He has played a key role in many capacities, including three stints as Chairman of the Finance Committee, one of the league's most difficult, time-consuming and influential positions. The assignment is evidence of the respect and esteem in which successive NFL commissioners and his fellow NFL owners hold him.

Community involvement has been the hallmark of the Benson era since he became the owner of the team, and because of those efforts the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame has twice recognized the club as one of the five most charitable professional organizations. Mr. Benson was selected by the Volunteers of American as the winner of its annual Good Samaritan Award in Philanthropy in recognition of his work in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. In 2010 Benson was honored by Loyola University with the school's Integritas Vitae Award, the New Orleans' school's highest honor. The award is annually presented to an individual who exemplifies the qualities Loyola seeks to instill in its students. The recipient is chosen for displaying high moral character and selfless service, without expectation of material reward or public recognition, and adhering to the principles of honesty, integrity, justice and the preservation of human dignity. In addition, Benson was honored by the New Orleans chapter of CRIMESTOPPERS with the James J, Coleman Corporate Partner Award for his continued support of the national organization with their an independent non-profit organization that works with law enforcement agencies in their work to identify and apprehend criminals.

For his humanitarian and philanthropic endeavors that have positively affected the lives of so many individuals and groups, Benson was recently honored by the Roman Catholic Church with an Oblate Doctor of Human Letters (to a person who has achieved the human purpose for which Divine Providence Placed Him on Earth) certificate that honors his "realities of the most noble of human endeavors, weighted by criteria arising from the deepest human values." The certificate also honors "excellence in the area of life where excellence makes the most difference," and further cites Benson's "attributes and accomplishments that come closest to what God would be interested in honoring."

His wife, the former Gayle Marie LaJaunie and a fellow native of New Orleans, is also involved in several charitable endeavors, including supporting local and regional causes. Mr. and Mrs. Benson have also funded the building of a football stadium located on the University of Incarnate Word Campus, known as Gayle and Tom Benson Field. The school's team took to the field for the first time in 2009 and will continue to grow and build their foundation with Benson's unwavering support. In addition, the Benson family also established an endowment fund at Central Catholic High School in San Antonio that is dedicated to the memory of the late Robert Carter Benson, who graduated from the school in 1962. Tom Benson also donated the Benson Memorial Library at Central Catholic. Benson also is working closely with the Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans on a Cancer Center that will be named in his honor.

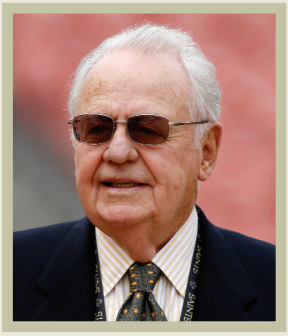

Some of Mr. Benson's most recent attention has gone towards helping those throughout the Gulf Coast affected by the recent oil spill. Initially, he spearheaded a trip to the Louisiana Coast where coaches, players and staff uplifted the spirits of residents and relief workers alike. At the June 8 event, Benson and the club announced an innovative plan to raise funds and awareness for those affected by the disaster, raffling off an authentic Super Bowl XLIV Championship ring to fans.

In 1945, Mr. Benson served in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. South Dakota and has remained particularly close to this branch of the armed forces. He is the only enlisted man to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Pensacola Naval Museum and has been honored with an award from the crew of the submarine U.S.S. Louisiana. In 2007, Mr. Benson was honored by the U.S. Navy Memorial with the Lone Sailor Award, presented to those who exemplify the core values of honor, courage and commitment. In 2009, Benson was presented with U.S. Army's Army Strong award in recognition for his position in the community while demonstrating leadership and Army Values on a daily basis.

A leading advocate for the National World War II Memorial in Washington D.C., Mr. Benson was also a major contributor and past director of The National D-Day Museum in New Orleans, with his pledges helping fund the Pacific Exhibit Grand Opening and the Midway Theater.

OWNERSHIP

BENSON MILESTONES

1985 Ownership of club officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes managing general partner of the Saints. With training camp almost a month away, Mr. Benson maintained the team management group that he inherited.

1986 The Benson influence really begins, as the Owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise. His first hire: Jim Finks as president/general manager on Jan. 14. Jim Mora is named the club's 10th head coach two weeks later.

1987 The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record – including victories in the final nine contests – and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988 The Saints finish 10-6, posting a double-digit victory total again and achieving consecutive winning seasons for the first time in team record books.

1989 Mr. Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept before stepping down in the mid-1990s.

1990 After winning six of their last nine games, the Saints earn their second playoff appearance by finishing second in the NFC West.

1991 New Orleans clinched its first-ever division championship at 11-5 as the Superdome hosts its first playoff game.

1992 The Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Mr. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1993 The Saints finish second in the NFC West, with the club recording its seventh-straight non-losing season.

1996 Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility.

2000 New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2001 The city hosts its fourth Super Bowl during Mr. Benson's tenure as Owner – including 1986, 1990 and 1997.

BENSON MILESTONES

2003 Mr. Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before camp.

2004 The Saints notched their 150th win since Mr. Benson assumed ownership with a 28-25 overtime victory at St. Louis.

2005 After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge. The club established the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million.

2006 The team returns to Louisiana, with Mr. Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints – selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time – win the NFC South title under the guidance of new coach Sean Payton at 10-6. The victory total included a memorable, 23-3 win over Atlanta in the reopening of the Superdome. The team advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history.

2007 Saints reach 350th regular-season game under Mr. Benson's ownership tenure, a 31-24 victory over Arizona in the Superdome.

2008 Mr. Benson purchases WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally-owned. He also brings Horizon Entertainment to New Orleans in a joint venture as part of his Louisiana Media Company.

2009 In what Mr. Benson considers part of his legacy in Louisiana, the New Orleans native reaches an agreement with the state through 2025 that will create a new Sports Development District downtown. The Benson family will purchase and redevelop two properties – each adjacent to the Superdome and have sat dormant and in disrepair since 2005 – an economic windfall for the region without any new taxes.

New Orleans is selected by the NFL to host Super Bowl XLVII, to be played in 2013, with Mr. Benson serving as the city's leading advocate in the campaign. It is the fifth time New Orleans has been selected to host the Super Bowl since Mr. Benson has owned the club.

On the field, the Saints enjoy their most successful season in franchise history. New Orleans sets a club record for victories with a 13-3 regular season, capturing the NFC South title. The Saints then hosted the NFC Championship game for the first time and advance to their first Super Bowl with a 31-28 overtime victory over the Minnesota Vikings on January 24, 2010. New Orleans then defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, on February 7, 2010, in Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida's Sun Life Stadium to give the Saints their first-ever NFL title.

OWNERSHIP

Rita Benson LeBLANC
OWNER/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Owner/Executive Vice President Rita Benson LeBlanc is the leader of the business operations of the New Orleans Saints, with responsibilities that include overseeing all sales and marketing efforts, the club's community and youth programs, game day entertainment and stadium operations. She represents the club at NFL Ownership Meetings, where she chairs the league's Employee Benefits Committee and serves on the NFL International Committee.

In addition to her responsibilities with the Saints, LeBlanc has taken an active leadership role in tackling the economic, environmental and community challenges that face the New Orleans and Gulf South region through serving on the boards of the Business Council of New Orleans and the River Region and of GNO Inc., the official economic development agency serving the 10-parish Greater New Orleans Region. She played a key role in securing the Super Bowl (XLVII) for New Orleans and serves on the Executive Board of the New Orleans 2013 Super Bowl Host Committee. Recently LeBlanc served on New Orleans Mayor Mitch Landrieu's Economic Development Task Force, a group of business leaders that teamed to gather opinions from the public on how city government could help create jobs and facilitate economic development in the city.

LeBlanc is also playing a key role in the investments being made by her family in the economic development of New Orleans. Through Zelia, Inc., LeBlanc is leading the effort to redevelop Benson Tower and a new sports and entertainment partnership with the State of Louisiana adjacent to the downtown office building and across from the Superdome called Champions Square. The previously blighted and idled properties have served as a catalyst in the Central Business District. She additionally serves on the Board of Directors for the Louisiana Media Company, which includes WVUE FOX-8, the only locally owned television station in New Orleans. Furthering her involvement in the media, television and film industries of the region, LeBlanc also fulfills a position as an executive producer with Horizon Entertainment.

She fosters the rejuvenated spirit of the city of New Orleans through her creativity not only on the Saints' behalf but also on a multitude of civic, cultural and philanthropic levels through her passion for the city she calls home. Recently LeBlanc served as a key figure behind the Saints' June visit to the southeastern community of Plaquemines Parish to help rally community members and provide inspiration to families, business leaders and elected officials who are faced with the catastrophic events that have taken place as a result of the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico. As a direct result, LeBlanc was part of a never-before initiative of raffling off a Super Bowl XLIV ring to a member of the public that is expected to result in contributions exceeding a million dollars in funds that will be distributed to those most effected by the results of the catastrophe. The commitment to the betterment of the environment is an important pillar of LeBlanc's core beliefs, as she and the Saints have joined in partnership with several important Gulf Coast Restoration causes.

LeBlanc's commitment to the community extends beyond economic development with a focus on improving the quality of life of citizens in need and environmental protection of the Gulf Coast. While overseeing more than $5 million in charitable contributions, goods and services donated by the Saints annually, LeBlanc has also led the Saints to partner with several organizations and initiatives focused on Gulf Coast restoration. The Saints have teamed up with several coastal preservation groups, including America's Wetlands and Women of the Storm, to raise awareness and funding for this vital national resource.

She has been recognized for her work on behalf of the team and community by being named in 2007 and 2008 to Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40", honoring the 40 most influential sports executives under the age of 40. LeBlanc was also honored in New York as one of three selections by vote for W.I.S.E's (Women in Sports and Events) "Women of the Year." In 2009 LeBlanc was honored by the organization for her efforts in leading the Saints through the tumultuous period of time associated with guiding a professional sports franchise during and after Hurricane Katrina and helping the Saints organization rise to international prominence in the years that followed the catastrophe. Furthermore in 2010 she participated in the Fortune/Time/CNN Global Forum in South Africa, which gathered world leaders to focus on substantive issues and opportunities in the addressing worldly pressing issues. Included in the forum were some of the world's most influential people from the highest ranks of government, science and technology, business, sports, media, entertainment, and nongovernmental organizations.

In the immediate days following the storms, LeBlanc helped establish the New Orleans Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, which raised over $1 million dollars to assist the citizens of the Gulf South. She also coordinated the continuing refurbishment of the Superdome and joined the New Orleans Business Council to work for economic growth and development in the area. As the city moves forward under the direction of newly elected Mayor Mitch Landrieu, LeBlanc and the Saints work in concert with spreading the message that New Orleans is viable base for businesses ranging from film and television production companies to Fortune 500 corporations.

In 2009, her family again displayed their unwavering commitment to the region, announcing a new partnership with the state of Louisiana that called for the club to make a long-term investment that dramatically revitalized the neighborhood around the Superdome with the addition of The Benson Tower and Champions Square.

LeBlanc's close working relationship with the League office has proved to be beneficial in securing League grants and programs that benefit Gulf South youth and charitable initiatives. Since 2006, the Saints have distributed over $2 million dollars to high school and youth football organizations to help in their post-Katrina rebuilding process. For her dedication and efforts in youth football development, LeBlanc was awarded the 2008 "Star Performance Award" by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. Continuing to help foster the growth of the sport among the region's youth through education, LeBlanc was honored with the 2008 Pop Warner Female Achievement Award by the Pop Warner Little Scholars organization.

Under LeBlanc's direction, the Saints maintain an active presence throughout the Gulf South region by developing and implementing programs that not only allow children to experience the excitement of Saints football but also teach important life skills. As part of the Saints' Grass Roots Programs, over 5,000 charities, schools, churches, foundations and festivals receive in-kind donations from the club annually. Over 50,000 young people are reached yearly through Saints Youth Programs, over 700 instructors, coaches and athletic directors receive training and over 130 schools and playgrounds in the region are visited. LeBlanc has also been a galvanizing figure in the ever-growing and extremely popular free concert series "Wednesday's at the Square," a festival-like gathering each spring that feature both local and national musical acts that has added to the economic viability of New Orleans' Central Business District.

LeBlanc's leadership in the local community has been evident, as she has played a critical role in securing the return of the Saints to New Orleans and helped build a World Championship franchise and one that was voted by ESPN The Magazine (June, 2010) as "the best professional organization in professional sports." She has also directed the team's marketing development efforts that have lead the club to new heights in season ticket sales. The club sold-out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in 2006, and has repeated the feat each year since. The team was named "2006 Marketer of the Year" by the American Marketing Association's New Orleans region chapter and received the MAX award for its 2006 "Winning Is An Attitude" advertising campaign.

LeBlanc also committed to bringing additional international events to New Orleans in an effort to increase the city's global exposure. She played an integral part in hosting the first U.S. Women's Soccer National Team match in the state when the USA Women played against the Brazilian Women's National team on July 13, 2003. The contest marked the first international soccer match in the state, and was televised live by ESPN both domestically and internationally.

Her sports industry career has encompassed work in various areas within the Saints organization, as well as the NFL's League office. She has served in virtually every department within the club, working in concert to insure the club's fiscal initiatives, business development, stadium viability and enhancement projects. Her past sports experience includes roles with the NFL in New York, the NFL Properties Publishing Group in Los Angeles and NFL Films in Mount Laurel, N.J.

LeBlanc is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Agribusiness – studying abroad for a semester in Italy focusing on international finance and art – and also received a certificate in International Business from the Lowry Mays School of Business.

The ranch features a herd of over 200 Black Angus cattle, 500 Texas White Tail Deer, exotic animals from all over the world and has purchased, bred and raced over 100 thoroughbred horses.

MICKEY LOOMIS

Loomis has been with the Saints since 2000 and was promoted to General Manager in 2002. He took on the additional title of Executive Vice President later that year and is responsible for the club's entire football operations. Loomis was a near-unanimous selection as the 2006 NFL Executive of the Year.

TOM RODDY

Born in Houma, La., Roddy has a long association with Mr. Benson in both the banking and automotive businesses. He has overseen the day-to-day operations of Benson Management Company as well as Benson Financial Corp. Roddy has also been a member of the Owner's search teams for key hires by the club in the past.

STANLEY ROSENBERG

One of Tom Benson's most trusted advisers, Rosenberg has been an associate of the Owner's for over 40 years. In addition to his role as Mr. Benson's attorney, Rosenberg has assisted in representing the club in negotiations with the state and has offered experienced counsel in the selection of the Saints' key hires since 1985. Rosenberg played a key role in the Saints' recent partnership with the state that includes Mr. Benson and his family purchasing the New Orleans Centre and Dominion Tower and a dramatic modernization of the Superdome.

GENERAL MANAGER

Mickey LOOMIS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his ninth season in his current position and 11th with the Saints. He is a veteran of over 25 years in the NFL and during his time in New Orleans has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive. Yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career came in helping mold the 2009 squad that captured the franchise's first NFL title by winning Super Bowl XLIV.

Loomis was promoted to General Manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of Executive Vice President later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006 - after being the key figure in the hiring of Sean Payton, the signing of Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship - Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by the Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, leading to the 2009 championship campaign. Over the past four years, he has brought aboard a collection of players who have played a key role in New Orleans' run to the Super Bowl title through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing several significant contributors to long-term contracts.

While his responsibilities have grown during his tenure with the Saints, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as Director of Football Administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

GENERAL MANAGER

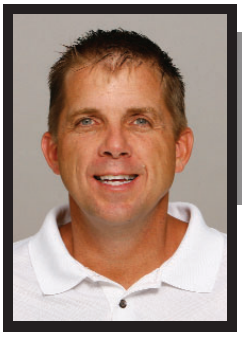

In 2003, Loomis oversaw the renovation of Saints headquarters that added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to executive vice president in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University. Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

HEADCOACH

Sean PAYTON
HEAD COACH

Sean Payton, entering his fifth season as a head coach in the National Football League, is the first coach in New Orleans Saints history to lead the team to a Super Bowl title. Payton, who has quickly molded New Orleans into one of the NFL's elite teams, guided the Saints to their first-ever championship on February 7, 2010 when they defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV.

For Payton, the run has capped a four-year span where the Saints have won 42 games, claimed two division titles, appeared in a pair of NFC Championship games (2006 and 2009) and won Super Bowl XLIV. Payton and New England's Bill Belichick are the only two head coaches to guide their clubs to a conference championship game twice in the last four seasons. His 42 wins during the time are the most during any four-year span in Saints history and the second-most by an NFL coach during this period. With a career coaching record of 42-27 (.609 winning percentage), Payton owns the top winning percentage in club history. This is also the top winning percentage in the NFC South during this period. He's posted a 4-1 (.800) mark in the postseason after the team had won only one play-off game in franchise history prior to his arrival.

Serving as the club's play-caller, Payton's presided over the most prolific offense in the NFL, leading the league in yards per game three-of-his four seasons at the helm and finishing first in scoring in 2008 and 2009. These are the only three times, the Saints have led the NFL in total offense. In franchise history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points 10 times. Six of these outputs have occurred under Payton's watch.

In 2009 Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in his four seasons with a 13-3 record. Along the way the Saints set a franchise-record for most regular season wins in a season (13), breaking the previous mark of 12 in 1992. Their 16 overall victories were the most for a club in the 44-year history of the franchise. The Saints also posted the longest winning streak in team history when they won their first 13 contests. Payton once again was named as the top head coach in the NFL by numerous media outlets and recognized football chapters.

In 2009, the Saints finished as the National Football League's number one ranked offense (sixth in rushing and fourth in passing) for the second consecutive year and the third time in four seasons. On the other side of the ball, an opportunistic defense recorded 26 interceptions with an NFL-leading five returned for touchdowns. New Orleans also ranked second in the league in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (39.3). The Saints set team records in scoring (510), and touchdowns (64) under Payton's watch and battled through the postseason with victories over the Arizona Cardinals (divisional round), and Minnesota Vikings (NFC Championship game) and Indianapolis Colts (Super Bowl XLIV). A franchise-record seven players were named to the Pro Bowl - QB Drew Brees, G Jahri Evans, C Jonathan Goodwin, S Roman Harper, S Darren Sharper, T Jon Stinchcomb and LB Jonathan Vilma.

In 2008, the Saints ranked No. 1 in the NFL in offense and set team records for total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977) and first downs (354), also tying a team record for single-game scoring in a 51-29 win over Green Bay.

HEADCOACH

PLAYITFORWARD

Head Coach Sean Payton and his wife, Beth, launched the Play It Forward Foundation in 2008 to raise funds and awareness to help families in need in the areas of health, education and social welfare. Since, it has also served as a catalyst for various nonprofit organizations to improve the quality of life for local families in need, as well as support disadvantaged and disabled individuals through educational-based initiatives, increased and improved healthcare support systems, and social welfare through research, education and professional services.

In 2008, the foundation held its first Black & Gold Gala fundraiser at the Louisiana Superdome, with ESPN's Chris Berman serving as the master of ceremonies and Irma Thomas and Jimmy Buffett serving as honorary chairs. Three of the main benefactors were Brad Pitt's Make It Right NOLA, Blaine Kern's First Responder's Fund and the Dr. Phil Foundation. The multiple approach advanced the mission of enriching lives and strengthening the New Orleans community and Gulf South region. The foundation will host their second Black and Gold Gala, again featuring an all-star lineup of stars in athletics, entertainment and music on October 1 at the Superdome. Funds raised will be distributed to Feed the Children and the Dr. Phil Foundation.

In May, 2009, the foundation hosted its inaugural golf tournament - the Celebrity Kid's Classic - which raised thousands of dollars to benefit children's charities throughout Greater New Orleans.

Prior to training camp, Payton also hosts an annual High School Football Camp, a free camp at the team's training facility for high school players focused on developing skill position players. It includes a life skills presentation by Payton.

In 2007, the Saints endured injuries and a slow start, but put together a four-game winning streak to get back into playoff contention. New Orleans finished No. 4 in the NFL in total offense while also holding nine opponents to 17 points or fewer.

Payton scrapped the traditional timetable for rebuilding an NFL club in 2006. In his opening season as a head coach, the Saints jumped out to a 3-0 record - a first in team history and equaling the team's win total from the previous year - and clinched the NFC South title before the regular season finale. New Orleans led the NFL in total offense, went to the postseason for the first time since 2000 and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time. When 2006 came to a close, Payton was voted the Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Maxwell Club. He and his staff also coached the NFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

HEADCOACH

Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after being a member of the Dallas Cowboys staff since 2003. In 2010 he enters his 14th season in the NFL and 22nd in coaching.

Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling. For the previous two years, he had been assistant head coach/quarterbacks. In 2005, the Cowboys tied for second in the NFC with 318 first downs. When Payton arrived Dallas had ranked 31st in passing the previous year but immediately improved to 17th.

Payton came to Dallas after four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach. Payton solidified his reputation as one of the game's brightest offensive minds in 2000. In his first season as coordinator, the Giants captured the NFC title and went to Super Bowl XXXV. New York scored 328 points - the club's highest total since 1990 - and finished 13th in the NFL in total offense.

Payton was first assigned play-calling duties prior to a game against the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999. The Giants responded with 41 points and 490 yards - both season highs - and he retained that assignment over the final five games. Appointed the offensive coordinator the following season, over the next three years the Giants passing attack continually improved, ranking 13th in the NFL in 2000, tied for eighth in 2001 and sixth in 2002.

In 2002 the Giants also finished sixth overall in total offense, the team's highest ranking since 1985. In the previous decade, New York hadn't ranked above 20th. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach. In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing and third in total offense in the NFC.

During his career, Payton has had particular success tutoring quarterbacks. Brees has thrived since arriving in New Orleans, as he holds or has tied a total of 17 club career, single season and single game records. Brees enjoyed his finest season last year, when he finished first in with an NFL record 70.6 completion percentage and also led the league with a career-high 106.9 passer rating and 34 touchdown passes. In the postseason, the Super Bowl MVP threw for eight scores with no interceptions, playing mistake-free football on the way to the Championship. Under Payton's watch in 2008, Brees became the second passer in NFL history to throw for over 5,000 yards in a season. In 2007, Brees set a league record with 440 completions, and he owns club records for almost every single-season category.

Since 2000, every passer under Payton's guidance has thrown for over 3,000 yards. In addition to Brees since 2006, the three starting quarterbacks he worked with in Dallas - Drew Bledsoe in 2005, Vinny Testaverde in 2004 and Quincy Carter in 2003 - all surpassed the milestone. And while in New York, Giants QB Kerry Collins had 4,073 yards in 2002.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). During his second stretch with the Aztecs, Payton was running backs coach, working with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk before becoming quarterbacks coach.

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami of Ohio (1994-95) where he was quarterbacks coach prior to being promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. The three-time AP All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000.

Born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton and his wife, Beth, have a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

COACHING STAFF

Gregg WILLIAMS
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

When Coach Sean Payton began the search for a defensive coordinator following the 2008 season, he focused on finding a coach with experience, intensity, character and a track record of success built on teaching skills. Payton found those traits in Williams, who has been the leader of some of the NFL's finest defenses of the last decade.

Williams, a 20-year coaching veteran in the NFL - including three seasons as a head coach and ten as a defensive coordinator - has a well-earned reputation around the league for producing sound, aggressive units.

Williams' impact on the Saints' defense was impressive as they improved significantly in several categories. After allowing opponents to score touchdowns in the red zone on 48.2 of their possessions in 2008, the Saints lowered that figure to 39.3 in 2009, second-lowest in the NFL. The Saints recorded only 15 interceptions in 2008 and then finished second in the NFC and third in the NFL with 26 picks in 2009. He was in charge of a unit that recorded 35 defensive takeaways, after recording only 21 in 2008. Seven of those takeaways were returned for touchdowns. New Orleans had three defensive players (S Roman Harper, S Darren Sharper and LB Jonathan Vilma) named to the Pro Bowl.

The defense continued to show a nose for the ball in the playoffs as they led the league with eight takeaways, while holding opponents to an average of 19.7 points per game. Twice the defense came up with a pair of key fourth quarter interceptions. Near the end of regulation in the NFC Championship Game, CB Tracy Porter intercepted Minnesota QB Brett Favre at the New Orleans 22-yard line, stopping a potential Vikings game-winning score and ensuring overtime. Late in the fourth quarter of Super Bowl XLIV, the Saints took a 14-point lead when Porter returned a Peyton Manning pick 74 yards for a touchdown.

He arrived in New Orleans following a one-year stint in Jacksonville as defensive coordinator/assistant head coach, defense, where in 2008 the Jaguars held 10 opponents to 20 points or less. Williams spent the previous four seasons (2004-07) as assistant head coach/defense of the Washington Redskins.

Washington had one of the NFL's top defenses over that span, allowing just 19.4 points per game and ranking sixth overall in defense during the four-season stretch. In 2007, the Redskins ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense, including allowing only 91.3 yards per game rushing.

In 2005, the Redskins defense was a key factor in the club making its first postseason appearance since 1999. Washington allowed less than 19 points per contest that season - including a scant 11.7 over the final six games. In 2004, Williams

GREGG WILLIAMS FOUNDATION

Williams has made community service a priority throughout his career. He created the Gregg Williams Foundation, Inc. in 2004 (www.greggwilliamsfoundation.org) to benefit the children in his hometown of Excelsior Springs and provide funding for the community. For the past six years, he has held the Gregg Williams Tiger Classic, and he has also organized coaching clinics, seven-on-seven tournaments and lineman challenges. Since coming to the Saints, Williams has held fundraisers in New Orleans as well. Williams has made the doctrine of the foundation that every cent raised stay in the Excelsior Springs community.

The proceeds from his events have funded a multitude of projects. New scoreboards for the football stadium, basketball gym and baseball field have been installed, as well as a new irrigation system for the football practice field and new uniforms for the team. Williams' foundation also funded the construction of a new weight room and fitness center, special flooring for the volleyball courts and the purchase of heart monitor watches for the middle school. For wheelchair athletes, a YMCA fitness center was built as part of the Challenger Program.

But athletics haven't been the only beneficiary of the foundation. A robotics team has been created for the school's science department, college scholarships and competitive educational programs have been established and recreation parks have been built. A Career Center with business classes was funded, local art and theater programs have been supported and the museum has also received generous donations. A latchkey program for children with working parents was also established with foundation contributions, as well as SAFE programs and After-Prom sponsorships. 20 Drama Club members were sent to Scotland to participate in theater arts training & competition.

made an immediate impact on a unit that had finished 24th the year before, with the Redskins' defense improving to third in the NFL and forcing 26 turnovers.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Williams spent three seasons as head coach of the Buffalo Bills, where the defense improved each season. In 2003, the Bills ranked second in the league, jumping from 15th in 2002 and 21st in 2001. Overall in 2003, Buffalo's defensive and special teams units finished among the NFL's top five in nine categories.

His reputation as a defensive coach was forged in his years with Tennessee, where he served for 11 seasons (1990-2000), including as coordinator over his last four years with the club. Initially hired as a defensive quality control coach when the team was still located in Houston, he was promoted to special teams coach in 1993, and took over as linebackers coach from 1994-96 before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1997.

The club made a steady climb to the top of the NFL's defensive charts under

COACHING STAFF

Williams' direction. In his first year as coordinator, the unit forced 32 turnovers. In 1998, Tennessee ranked in the top 10 against the run and held seven opponents to 14 points or less. The following year the Titans would march to Super Bowl XXXIV, force 39 turnovers and place DE Jevon Kearse and DT John Thornton on All-Rookie teams.

In 2000, the Titans led the NFL in total defense for the first time since joining the NFL and allowed 191 points - the third-fewest in league record books since the adoption of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Tennessee also set club records with 55 sacks, fewest passing yards allowed (2,424) and fewest touchdowns allowed (17). It completed a two-year stretch where the Titans posted an NFL-high 109 sacks. Prior to arriving in the NFL, Williams was a graduate assistant at the University of Houston from 1988-89 under former NFL head coach Jack Pardee. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton, Mo., High School after opening his coaching career at Excelsior Springs (Mo.) High School.

Williams graduated from Northeast Missouri State, where he played quarterback and also played baseball. He later earned a master's degree from Central Missouri. He and his wife, Leigh Ann, have a daughter, Amy, and two sons, Blake, a coaching assistant on the Saints staff, and Chase, a freshman on the Virginia Tech football squad. Gregg and Blake were the first father and son combination who served on the same coaching staff to win a Super Bowl.

PLAYING CAREER: Northeast Missouri State 1977-79.
COACHING CAREER: University of Houston, 1988-89; Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans, 1990-2000; Buffalo Bills (head coach), 2001-03; Washington Redskins, 2004-07; Jacksonville Jaguars, 2008; New Orleans Saints, 2009-.

Pete CARMICHAEL, JR.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pete Carmichael Jr. is in his second season as the Saints' offensive coordinator after tutoring the club's quarterbacks the previous three years. Throughout this time he has been a key figure in the planning and preparations of an offensive attack that has been ranked first in the NFL in yardage in three of the last four seasons, while leading the league in scoring for the past two campaigns.

In his first season with his new title, The Saints continued to compile impressive numbers on offense. The Saints finished in the top five in seven offensive categories and eight single season and single game team records were set or tied. They scored a club-record and NFL-best 510 points, the ninth-highest total in league record books. At least 45 points were scored four times, a fifth time in the postseason, with four straight outputs of at least 30. They ranked first in the league with 6,461 net yards, the second-best total in club history. The Saints' 348 first downs was the second-best total both in 2009 league rankings and in team record books. The Saints also finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 131.6 yards per game on a club-best 4.5 yards per carry, an improvement from 28th in 2008 and their highest ranking since 1987 when they were third with a 146.0 average.

The offense continued to flourish in the postseason, averaging 35.6 points per game and scoring eight-of-nine times inside the red zone. QB Drew Brees keyed the run, completing 70.6 percent of his passes and throwing eight touchdowns, tied for the fifth-highest postseason total in NFL history and a 117.0 passer rating. He was selected Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XLIV, as he led the Saints back from a ten point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes and engineering the fourth quarter game-winning drive, culminating in the go-ahead touchdown pass to Jeremy Shockey with under five minutes left.
In 2008, Carmichael's title was quarterbacks/passing game - with duties that included assisting in the pass routes, protection schemes and quarterback responsibilities. He tutored the signal callers his first three seasons with the club. In 2008, the offense went on to rank No. 1 in the NFL in passing, and Brees threw for 5,069 yards - the second-highest total in league history and tossed a club-record 34 touchdowns.

Carmichael has worked closely with Brees since both arrived in New Orleans in 2006, and since then the majority of the franchise's career, single-game and single-season passing records have fallen. Brees has led the NFL in passing yardage twice, set NFL records for completions (440-2007) and completion percentage (70.6-2009) and has thrown for a club record 122 touchdowns over the last four seasons.

Carmichael brings the perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense during his career. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked 10th in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control until being promoted.

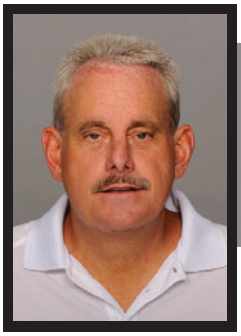

In 2001, Carmichael was quality control coach for the Washington Redskins, and in 2000, he was the tight ends and offensive assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the Bulldogs' QBs broke almost every passing record at the school. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) HS where he played football and baseball. He went on to a collegiate playing career in baseball and was a four-year letterman at Boston College. As a senior, Carmichael was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. He graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994.

Carmichael and his wife, Tina, have sons, Peter and John and a daughter, Allison.

Joe Vitt

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ LINEBACKERS

Tutoring a unit that since 2006 has annually ranked among the Saints' most productive position groups, assistant head coach/linebackers Joe Vitt enters his fifth season in New Orleans.

In 2009, two of the club's top three tacklers on defense came from the linebacker corps, including Jonathan Vilma, who led the team for the second consecutive season with 130 stops, adding two sacks and three interceptions. Under Vitt's supervision, Vilma was the first Saints linebacker selected to a Pro Bowl since 2000. Scott Shanle added 106 tackles with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries to finish tied for third in the NFL among linebackers with four takeaways.

Vitt came to the Saints after serving as interim head coach for the final 11 games in St. Louis in 2005. He held the Rams together during a difficult period after previously holding the title of assistant head coach/linebackers. It was part of a two-year stint with the Rams where he also turned a handful of young defenders into a unit that paced the team in tackles each season.

He joined St. Louis after working as linebackers coach in Kansas City from 2000-03. It was with the Chiefs where he first worked with former Saint Scott Fujita, a fifth-round pick who developed into one of Kansas City's top defenders and led them in tackles twice. In New Orleans, under Vitt's tutelage, he enjoyed three consecutive seasons with over 100 stops.

Vitt took over the linebacker corps in Kansas City after tutoring the Green Bay defensive backs in 1999, molding a legion of rookies and young players into a formidable unit that doubled the Packers' previous-year total by picking off 26 passes. One of his understudies was Saints safety Darren Sharper, who led the Packers with 113 tackles.

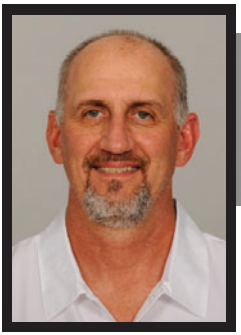

From 1995-98, Vitt was linebackers coach for Philadelphia, where he first worked with Saints head coach Sean Payton. In 1998, his group helped the Eagles lead the NFL in pass defense, allowing 170 yards per game. Vitt was assistant head coach and defensive backs coach with the Rams under Chuck Knox from 1992-94 for the franchise's final three seasons in Los Angeles.

Vitt spent 10 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (1982-91), holding several titles during that stretch. In 1982 he was defensive quality control coach/assistant strength & conditioning coach. From 1983-87 Vitt was quality control/assistant linebackers coach, and from 1988-91 he tutored the safeties.

Born in Syracuse, N.Y., Vitt grew up in Blackwood, N.J., and played four years at linebacker for Towson State, where he was part of a squad that went undefeated in 1974. Vitt was later inducted into the Towson State Hall of Fame. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Baltimore Colts as strength/quality control coach from 1979-81.

Vitt is married to Linda, with two children: Joe, Jr. and daughter, Jennifer.

PLAYING CAREER: Towson State, 1974-77.
COACHING CAREER: Baltimore Colts, 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks, 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams, 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles, 1995-98; Green Bay Packers, 1999; Kansas City Chiefs, 2000-03; St. Louis Rams (head coach, final 11 games of 2005), 2004-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Greg McMAHON
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Greg McMahon enters his fifth season working with the special teams and third as coordinator. His tenure with the club has been defined by solid performances by the kicking game, the coverage units and the returners.

With McMahon stressing opportunistic play over the last four seasons, the Saints have recovered nine fumbles on special teams, scored eight touchdowns -including five on punt returns - and blocked a punt and a pair of field goals.

All facets of the kicking game played a crucial role in New Orleans' 2009 championship campaign. The unit finished fourth in the league in kickoff return average (24.4) as Courtney Roby had the first touchdown return by a Saint since 2004. Roby is the club's all-time kickoff return average (26.7) leader. In the postseason, RB Reggie Bush had an 83-yard punt return for a touchdown to break open the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona.

While the coverage units scooped up three fumbles, the most improved group were the specialists. K Garrett Hartley, who made the first 16 field goal attempts of his career, setting an NFL record for most consecutive tries to start, came through clutch twice in the postseason. His 40-yard field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship sent the Saints to the Super Bowl. Hartley then became the first kicker in Super Bowl history to boot three kicks of 40-or-more yards. LS Jason Kyle, a 15-year NFL veteran, was selected to USA Today's All-Joe team. P Thomas Morstead, the club's fifth round draft choice, was the first Saints punter to capture NFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice in the same season. On kickoffs, he finished fourth in the NFL with 27 touchbacks. In Super Bowl XLIV, Morstead successfully executed an onside kick at the start of the second half that brought possession back to New Orleans.

Special teams played a key role for the Saints in 2008, McMahon's first year as coordinator. New Orleans finished the season as one of only four teams to rank in the top 10 in both punt return average (fourth) and kickoff return average (eighth). Bush scored on two punt returns vs. Minnesota to tie an NFL record. Then a rookie, Hartley, signed after a midseason tryout, started his field goal streak by making all 13 attempts.

McMahon served as assistant special teams coach for his first two years in New Orleans, following a one-year stint as tight ends/special teams coach at East Carolina.

In 2005, the Pirates finished in the top 20 in the nation in field goal accuracy and had a pair of solid return men. As tight ends coach, McMahon was part of a staff that directed East Carolina to the fourth-highest passing total in school history.

He spent 13 years at the University of Illinois (1992-2004), working primarily with the special teams, tight ends and wide receivers. In 1997, McMahon took on the additional responsibility of overseeing the special teams. His efforts were integral in Illinois making four bowl appearances and twice appearing in the final national rankings, and in 2001 the school finished 10-2 and captured the Big Ten title.

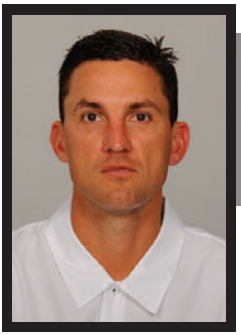

Based on the records his units established, the play of the special teams during McMahon's years at Illinois are unmatched in school history. Illinois blocked 16 kicks from 2001-04 and accounted for nine touchdowns. K Neil Rackers, and punt return yardage leader Eugene Wilson, both currently with the Houston Texans, each benefited from McMahon's guidance. Players under his direction included the school leaders in career punting average, single-season scoring and all-time punt return yardage.

McMahon, 50, came to Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas, where he spent two years as special teams coordinator as well as coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. He has also had stints with Valdosta (Ga.) State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama and Minnesota.

As a defensive back at Eastern Illinois, he was a member of two teams that played for the NCAA Division II National Championship. The Panthers won the title in 1978 and again went to the championship game two years later. McMahon earned a degree in psychology from EIU in 1983.

McMahon and wife, Linda, have three children: sons Drew and Sam and daughter Lisa.

Dennis ALLEN

SECONDARY

Entering his fifth year with the Saints, Dennis Allen begins his third season as secondary coach after serving as assistant defensive line coach his first two years with the club. A nine-year NFL coaching veteran, Allen brings a well-rounded base of experience to his position - with an emphasis on working with defensive backs - and a strong reputation for his teaching skills.

In 2009, the Saints secondary allowed the fifth-fewest touchdown passes in the NFL (15). They accounted for 20 of the club's 26 interceptions, returning a league-leading five for touchdowns.

A revamped starting secondary of CB Jabari Greer, S Roman Harper, CB Tracy Porter and S Darren Sharper made numerous game-changing plays for New Orleans. Greer returned one interception for a touchdown. Harper led the defense with a career-high 127 tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two forced fumbles. Porter finished second on the club with four interceptions, one returned for a touchdown in the regular season and in the postseason picked off future NFL Hall of Famers Brett Favre and Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter in consecutive contests. Sharper tied for first in the NFL with nine interceptions, also tying for the league lead with three returned for scores. With both Harper and Sharper being voted to the Pro Bowl, the Saints secondary had two selections to the all-star game for the first time in team history.

While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the strengths of the Saints' defense. During that stretch, the defensive front combined for 48.5 sacks, 10 forced fumbles and 10 fumble recoveries and DE Will Smith was voted to the 2006 Pro Bowl.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control, with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent DE Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005 DT Rod Coleman represented the club in the Pro Bowl and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield. Atlanta improved to 16th against the pass after ranking 30th the year before, and tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

Taking over as the Saints' secondary coach in 2008 was a return to Allen's coaching and playing roots. He had two stints working with defensive backs in the past on the college level.

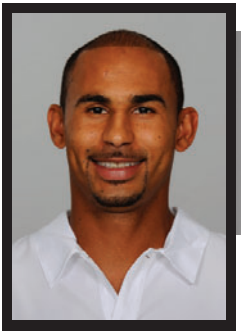

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at Texas A&M as a graduate assistant, working primarily with the school's secondary.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's father, Grady, was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1969-72.

He and his wife, Alisson, have a son, Garrison and a daughter, Layla.

PLAYING CAREER: Texas A&M, 1992-95.
COACHING CAREER: Texas A&M, 1996-1999; Tulsa, 2000-01; Atlanta Falcons, 2002-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Charles BYRD

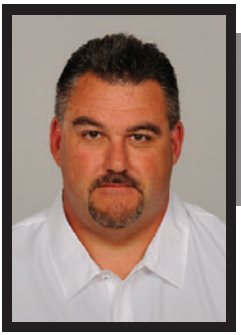

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

After serving as a strength & conditioning assistant his first two seasons with the Saints, 2010 will mark Charles Byrd's first campaign as the club's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Byrd's responsibilities will consist of assisting head strength and conditioning coach Dan Dalrymple in implementing the team's year-round program

Byrd is in his fifth season as a coach after stints on the offseason and training camp rosters of the Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers, Washington Redskins and New York Giants from 2005-06 as a defensive back, also playing for Las Vegas of the Arena Football League in 2006. He started as a strength and conditioning intern at Miami University (Ohio) in 2006, becoming a graduate assistant in his final year with the Redhawks before coming to New Orleans.

Byrd graduated from Morehead State University with a bachelor's degree in University Studies, where he played in the secondary and as a kickoff returner from 2001-04. The Oxford, Ohio native earned Division I-AA Mid-Major All-America honors for two straight seasons. A team captain and three-year starter, he helped the Eagles to three consecutive Pioneer Football League Southern Division championships.

PLAYING CAREER: Morehead State, 2001-04; Las Vegas Gladiators (AFL), 2006.
COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 2006-07; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Dan DALRYMPLE
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

By designing extensive workout programs - crafted to the needs of every player as well as the demands of each position group - strength & conditioning coach Dan Dalrymple has been a key member of the Saints organization since arriving in 2006. His responsibilities and influence both in the weight room and on the field remain constant throughout the entire year.

The efforts of Dalrymple and his staff have played a key role in the club's success over the past four seasons. His routines, focused on building and maintaining strength and stamina, while minimizing injuries have paid dividends for the Saints. Nine players have been selected to the Pro Bowl during his tenure, six for the first time in their careers.

In 2009's Super Bowl XLIV Championship season, evidence of the conditioning of the club was their stamina throughout games, as they outscored opponents 139-48 in the fourth quarter, finishing first in the NFL in both points scored and allowed in the final period. He was named as the recipient of the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society and the Samson Strength and Conditioning NFL Coach of the Year award from American Football Monthly.

Prior to joining the Saints, Dalrymple spent the previous 17 seasons in a similar capacity at Miami University (Ohio), including the last 16 as director of athletic conditioning, a program he built from its foundation. While the football team was a focus of his efforts, Dalrymple and his staff created workout regimens for every athletic program. He was promoted with the additional title of assistant athletic director in 2003.

Dalrymple has been certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1991 and has been honored as a finalist for the organization's coach of the year in 1995, 1997, 1999, 2003 and 2006. He's one of only two NFL coaches in his field to be certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Dalrymple has earned two certifications for USA Weightlifting that designate him as qualified to work with athletes in Olympic weightlifting and as a sports performance specialist.

After taking over the supervision of Miami's strength and conditioning program in 1989, the football program posted a 116-72-9 record, had a streak of 12-straight winning seasons and went to bowl games in 2003 and 2004.

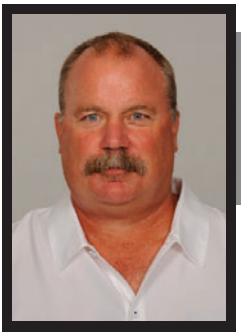

For the Saints, Dalrymple couples his intense work ethic and a constant evolution of his approach with a lengthy background in football.

A 1988 graduate of Miami, Dalrymple was a four-year starter (1983-86) as an offensive lineman and was a first-team All-MAC selection his final two seasons, also earning honorable mention All-America accolades. He was one of three captains of the 1986 conference champion team. Dalrymple was later honored as one of five linemen on The Cincinnati Enquirer's All-20th Century Miami football team and was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 2002.

After his college career and attending training camp with the Seattle Seahawks, Dalrymple returned to his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1987. He served as a graduate assistant the following year before being promoted to offensive line and strength coach in 1989. He was named strength & conditioning coordinator in December of that year.

Dalrymple and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Kylelyn and a son, Daniel.

COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1987-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Bret INGALLS

RUNNING BACKS

A coaching veteran of over two decades including four stints as a coordinator, Bret Ingalls enters his second season in charge of the New Orleans running backs.

Ingalls' extensive experience with the run game made an impact in 2009 as the Saints improved in the NFL rushing rankings from 28th to sixth as they churned out 131.6 yards per game and set a club record averaging 4.5 yards per carry. Under his leadership, the trio of Pierre Thomas, Reggie Bush and Mike Bell combined for 1,837 yards rushing. Thomas enjoyed a breakout season, leading the club in rushing with 147 carries for 793 yards (5.4 avg.) and six TDs, ranking fourth in the NFL in yards per carry. Grabbing 39 receptions for 302 yards, he finished with a team-best 1,095 total yards from scrimmage, adding 254 more and three TDs in the postseason. Bush had a career-high 5.6 yards per carry and led the running backs with 47 catches as a threat out of the backfield. The total of 86 grabs by Thomas and Bush was the third-most receptions by an NFL backfield duo in 2009.

Ingalls served on the staff at Northwestern from 2006-08, where he was running game coordinator/offensive line coach his final season. He molded a line without extensive starting experience into the cornerstone of an offense that led the Wildcats to a nine-win season. Northwestern rushed for over 1,800 yards and ranked second in the Big 10 for fewest sacks allowed. In 2007, the offensive line blocked for the Big Ten's top-ranked passing attack, and in 2006 led the way for 1,705 yards rushing.

Ingalls spent 2005 at Miami University (Ohio), working with the tight ends and tackles, and spent the previous season with Indiana State. From 2000-03, he was the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, the University of Idaho, where he also tutored the quarterbacks and running backs for two seasons each.

From 1997-99, Ingalls served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northern Iowa and he held similar positions at Louisville from 1995-96. In 1994, he coached the offensive line at Eastern Michigan.

Ingalls held several positions on the offensive side of the ball at San Diego State from 1989-93. Over those years, he had stints as offensive coordinator (1992-93), offensive line coach (1990-92) and running backs coach (1989, 1993). While running backs coach, he tutored RB Marshall Faulk, who twice led the nation in rushing.

Ingalls' coaching career began at Idaho, where he graduated in 1984. After serving as a student defensive backs coach, he was assistant offensive line coach from 1984-85 and running backs coach from 1986-88. Idaho won four Big Sky Conference championships during his tenure. While at the school, over his final two seasons Ingalls was on the same staff with current Saints wide receivers coach Curtis Johnson, and the two would also work together at San Diego State.

A native of Snohomish, Wash., Ingalls was a starting running back at Wichita State (1979-81). He graduated from Idaho in 1984 with a degree in business.

Ingalls and his wife, Diana, have two sons – Samuel and Jack – and a daughter, Breana.

PLAYING CAREER: Wichita State, 1979-81.
COACHING CAREER: Idaho, 1982-88; San Diego State, 1989-93; Eastern Michigan, 1994; Louisville, 1995-96; Northern Iowa, 1997-99; Idaho, 2000-03; Indiana State, 2004; Miami (Ohio), 2005; Northwestern, 2006-08; New Orleans Saints, 2009- .

Bill JOHNSON
DEFENSIVE LINE

Entering his second year on the Saints coaching staff, Bill Johnson possesses a long history of developing the skills of top-notch defensive linemen throughout his coaching career. Entering his 30th year in the profession and tenth season in the NFL, the Louisiana native came to New Orleans after a two-year stint (2007-08) in Denver.

The Saints defensive line thrived under Johnson's approach in 2009. DE Will Smith enjoyed the finest season of his career, finishing fifth in the NFL with a career-high 13 sacks. DL Anthony Hargrove enjoyed a remarkable comeback, recording 63 tackles, five sacks and three fumble recoveries to tie for the third-highest total in the NFL. DT Sedrick Ellis had a career-high 45 tackles, while DT Remi Ayodele, a former undrafted free agent, effectively manned the nose position in his first season as a starter with 53 stops. The front four was the first line of defense in a unit that finished second in the NFL in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (39.3).

During his two seasons with the Broncos, he coached a unit that in 2007 tied for second in the NFL with nine takeaways, combining for seven fumble recoveries and two interceptions. That season, DE Elvis Dumervil tied for sixth in the league with 12.5 sacks.

During his tenure as defensive line coach with Atlanta from 2001-06, Johnson oversaw a unit that helped the club post 242 sacks during his six years with the club. Over that span, Atlanta twice ranked in the top 10 in fewest yards allowed and fewest yards per carry (2004, 2006). The Falcons also had a pair of Pro Bowlers up front under Johnson's direction, including DE Patrick Kerney and DT Rod Coleman.

Coleman was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2005, and his 28 sacks from 2004-06 were the most by a defensive tackle in the NFL over that span. Kerney was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2004, and the defensive end had 53 sacks under Johnson's tutelage from 2001-06, notching at least 10 sacks in three seasons.

Atlanta reached the NFC Championship Game in 2004, with Johnson's defensive line leading the NFL in sacks (48) for the first time in franchise history. The Falcons also ranked eighth in the NFL in run defense, Kerney had a career-high 13 sacks and Coleman led all defensive tackles with 11.5.

Johnson joined the Falcons in 2001 after a one-year stint at Arkansas working with the defensive line, his second time coaching at the school. That season closed a 21-season stretch as a college assistant.

The longest coaching tenure of his career was at Texas A&M, where Johnson served as defensive line coach for eight seasons (1992-99) under Coach R.C. Slocum. The Aggies earned three conference championships during those years, went to six bowl games and finished in the top 10 three times. Nine defensive linemen under his instruction were selected in the NFL Draft, including Sam Adams, a consensus All-American in 1993 and the eighth overall pick by the Seattle Seahawks in 1994.

Johnson came to Texas A&M after coaching the defensive lines at Arkansas (1990-91) and Louisiana Tech (1988-89). In 1987, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami under Coach Jimmy Johnson, working primarily with the linebackers on a team that went 12-0 and was voted National Champions. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Johnson spent two years as an assistant at McNeese State University (Lake Charles, La.) coaching the school's outside linebackers in 1986 and its defensive line the year before.

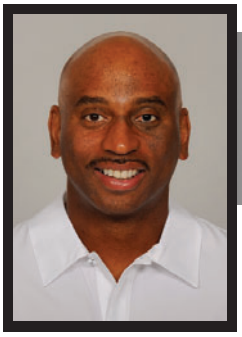

He entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northwestern State University (Natchitoches, La.), in 1980 and served in that capacity for two seasons before coaching defensive ends/linebackers at the school from 1982-84.

Johnson was a four-year letter-winner and two-year starter in football at Northwestern State, after a standout prep career at Neville High School in Monroe, La.

Born June 23, 1955, he and his wife, Dawn, have two children: Billy, 19, and Abby, 18.

PLAYING CAREER: Northwestern (La.) State, 1976-79.
COACHING CAREER: Northwestern (La.) State, 1980-84; McNeese State, 1985-86; Miami (Fla.), 1987; Louisiana Tech, 1988-89; Arkansas, 1990-91, 2000; Texas A&M, 1992-99; Atlanta Falcons, 2001-06; Denver Broncos, 2007-08; New Orleans Saints, 2009-.

COACHING STAFF

Curtis JOHNSON

WIDE RECEIVERS

Tough-minded and uncompromising, few coaches bring more drive or passion to their profession than Curtis Johnson, and the Saints have been rewarded with outstanding results from the wide receiver corps since his arrival in 2006. He came to New Orleans after forging a reputation for developing top-flight targets on the college level for over two decades, and his stature has only grown on the NFL level.

Over the last four seasons, Johnson has worked with both veteran and young wide receivers, with all benefitting from his guidance and high-energy teaching style. Among the players who have continued to improve under his watch through their own dedication and his tutelage are Marques Colston, Devery Henderson, Robert Meachem and Lance Moore.

With Johnson's tutoring, Colston has gone from being the fourth-to-last player selected in the 2006 NFL Draft to posting 285 receptions for 4,074 yards and 33 touchdowns, rocketing up the club's career leader lists in all receiving categories. After recording only 22 catches from 2004-05, Henderson has averaged an NFL-high 20.4 yards per reception since 2006. Meachem has made marked improvement each season, culminating with a breakout 2009, where he led the club with ten touchdowns. Moore has gone from the practice squad in 2006 to being the Saints' reception leader in 2008 with 79 catches for 928 yards and 10 touchdowns.

With a coaching style that is intense and detail-oriented, Johnson's wideouts have combined for 86 touchdown grabs and 29 performances with over 100 yards receiving since 2006.

Entering the fifth year of his initial NFL assignment, few coaches at any level can match the wide receivers that Johnson has helped develop. The group of standouts under his direction while at University of Miami (Fla.) and his prior stop at San Diego State includes some of the top wide receivers over the last decade, including NFL first-round picks Andre Johnson, Santana Moss, Reggie Wayne and Yatil Green.

At Miami, Johnson was part of a staff that went to nine bowl games and won the 2001 National Championship. He polished the skills of at least one All-Big East performer each season from 1996-2005, including Johnson - the third overall pick by Houston in 2003 - and Moss, who became the Hurricanes' all-time leader in receiving yardage before making the Pro Bowl for Washington. Wayne departed ranked first in school history in catches is a Pro Bowl performer for Indianapolis.

In his five-year stint at San Diego State (1989-93) Johnson landed some of the school's biggest recruits, including 2000 NFL MVP and fellow New Orleans native Marshall Faulk as well as WR Darnay Scott, who completed his eight-year NFL career with 408 grabs and 37 TDs. Each year Johnson was with the Aztecs the school had an all-conference performer at wide receiver.

Johnson began his coaching career as a receivers coach at Lewiston (Idaho) High School in 1984, serving for three seasons before holding a similar position at the University of Idaho. He spent 1987 and 1988 at the school before becoming receivers coach at San Diego State. His next stop was at Southern Methodist in 1994 before becoming wide receivers coach in 1995 at the University of California.

Johnson attended the University of Idaho and graduated in Physical Education in 1985. Born in New Orleans and a graduate of St. Charles High School, Johnson and his wife, Angel, have six children, Janene, Kiejon, Curtis III, and Aaron, Angele and Justin.

PLAYING CAREER: Idaho, 1980-83.

Travis JONES

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Entering his sixth year in the NFL, Travis Jones works with defensive line coach Bill Johnson in developing a talented defensive front that possesses a mixture of youth and experience. Known for his dedication to the fundamentals and his teaching skills, Jones begins his third season in New Orleans.

Last season, DE Will Smith enjoyed his finest season as he ranked fifth in the NFL with 13 sacks, while the trio of Sedrick Ellis, Anthony Hargrove and Remi Ayodele provided a solid pass rush on the interior of a line that played an important role on the Super Bowl XLIV champions.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Jones spent three seasons with the Miami Dolphins, his first year as assistant defensive line coach and his final two seasons tutoring the outside linebackers and defensive ends.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, the line recorded 92 sacks. DE Jason Taylor was selected to the Pro Bowl each year and was named the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. The Dolphins ranked second in the league in sacks in 2005 and third in 2006.

Before arriving in Miami, Jones spent 2003-04 at LSU, where he was the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator. In his first season, the Tigers' defensive front recorded 31 of the team's school-record 44 sacks, while also limiting opponents to 67 yards rushing per game - ranking third in the nation and first in the SEC.

At LSU, Jones coached a defensive front that featured DT Chad Lavalais, a consensus All-American, finalist for the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards and the SEC Defensive Player of the Year. Following the 2003 BCS National Championship season, Lavalais and teammate DE Marquise Hill were selected in the NFL Draft. DE Marcus Spears was also named All-SEC in 2003 and was a consensus All-American in 2004. Spears was a No. 1 pick by Dallas in 2005.

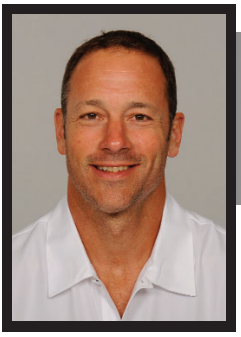

Prior to his stint at LSU, Jones served as defensive line coach at the University of Kansas from 2001-02. There he developed the skills of Nate Dwyer, an All-Big 12 selection in 2001 and a fourth-round choice by Arizona in 2002. From 1998-2000, Jones was linebackers coach/recruiting coordinator at Appalachian State.

In 1997, Jones opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Georgia, where he worked with the defensive line, including a pair of freshmen in Richard Seymour and Marcus Stroud. Jones brings the added perspective of having played on the defensive front. He was a four-year letterwinner (1990-92, 94) as a defensive lineman for the Bulldogs and served as a defensive captain as a senior. He graduated in 1995 and earned a master's degree from the school in 1998.

Jones played one season with the Baltimore Stallions of the CFL in 1995 and joined the Florida Bobcats of the Arena League in 1996. A native of Irwinton, Ga., for the last five years he's held a football camp for youngsters in central Georgia that teaches the fundamentals of football, sportsmanship and the importance of goal-setting to serve them on and off the field.

Jones and his wife, Melody, have two daughters, Kennedi and Averi and a son, Mason.

PLAYING CAREER: Georgia, 1990-94; Baltimore Stallions (CFL), 1995; Florida Bobcats (AFL), 1996.
COACHING CAREER: Georgia, 1997-98; Appalachian State, 1998-2000; Kansas, 2001-02; Louisiana State 2003-04; Miami Dolphins 2005-07; New Orleans Saints, 2008- .

Aaron KROMER

OFFENSIVE LINE/RUNNING GAME

Entering his third season with the Saints, Aaron Kromer brings 19 years of coaching experience to the coaching staff, the majority of it developing and tutoring offensive linemen. He's also extensively involved in the design and blocking schemes of the rushing attack.

Kromer arrived in New Orleans in 2008 after a three-year stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including his final two as senior assistant/offensive line coach. He has developed the skills of several Pro Bowl blockers during his time in the NFL, including three in 2009. The former college offensive lineman is known for his teaching skills and attention to detail.

In his first season in his new position, after tutoring the club's running backs in 2008, a trio of Kromer's linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl, each for the first time: G Jahri Evans, C Jonathan Goodwin and T Jon Stinchcomb. It was the first time three Saints linemen were selected in the same season. Thanks in part to the strong performance of the line, New Orleans was ranked first in the NFL both in total yards per game (403.8) and points scored (510). Churning out 131.6 yards per game on the ground, the New Orleans running game was ranked sixth in the league, their highest standing since 1987. The offensive line surrendered only 20 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL .

Kromer's achievements in leading the running backs in 2008 were many. RB Pierre Thomas emerged as a top threat over the last half of the season, rushing for 625 yards, hauling in 31 passes and scoring 12 touchdowns. Despite missing six games, Reggie Bush added 844 yards of offense and six TDs. As a unit, the running back corps combined for 2,472 yards from scrimmage and 28 TDs.

At Tampa Bay in 2007 Kromer worked with an offensive line that cleared the way for the Buccaneers to rush for 1,872 yards and average nearly 327 yards of offense per game. That season, G Arron Sears earned All-Rookie honors under Kromer's tutelage. In 2006, despite the unit losing a total of 23 starts from injuries, Kromer contributed to the preparation of a pair of rookie starters weekly and Tampa Bay cracked the 1,500-yard rushing milestone.

He was a senior assistant for the Buccaneers in 2005, working primarily with the offensive line. Tampa Bay surpassed the 100-yard rushing plateau in 10 contests, and Kromer helped polish the skills of All-Rookie selection G Dan Buenning. Following the season, he was selected by former Bucs coach Jon Gruden to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium.

Kromer arrived in Tampa Bay after spending four seasons with Oakland as offensive line coach from 2002-04 and assistant offensive line coach in 2001, where he was a part of two AFC West Champion squads. The Raiders' offensive front was the foundation of a unit that led the NFL in total offense in 2002 - the same season the club advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII.

While in Oakland, Kromer tutored Pro Bowl selections T Lincoln Kennedy (2001-02) and C Barrett Robbins (2002) and also coached 2004 All-Rookie selection T Robert Gallery. Prior to joining the Raiders - his first NFL assignment-he served as offensive line coach at Northwestern from 1999- 2000, with the Wildcats leading the Big Ten in total offense his final season.

He had previously spent nine seasons (1990-98) at Miami University (Ohio), his alma mater, where Kromer gained a wealth of experience and perspective while holding several assignments. He coached the offensive line in 1998, after previously working with the tight ends/H-Backs, defensive line and special teams. Kromer was a graduate assistant at the school from 1990-91.

Kromer lettered at Miami at offensive tackle from 1987-89 and served as a captain his last two seasons - one of only four players in the history of the program to serve as a two-time captain. He was a recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award and graduated with a degree in education. Kromer earned his master's degree in education administration in 1991.

Kromer and his wife, Dawn, have a son, Zachary, and a daughter, Brooke.

PLAYING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1986-89.
COACHING CAREER: Miami (Ohio), 1990-98; Northwestern 1999-2000; Oakland Raiders 2001-04; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2005-07; New Orleans Saints 2008-.

Joe LOMBARDI QUARTERBACKS

Joe Lombardi enters his fourth season with the Saints and second as quarterbacks coach after having served as an offensive assistant the first two years.

In Lombardi's first season as quarterbacks coach, Drew Brees enjoyed a banner campaign, completing 363-of-514 passes for 4,388 yards with 34 touchdowns, setting new career-highs with an NFL record 70.6 completion percentage and a league-leading 109.6 passer rating.

In his previous position, he was heavily involved in the preparation of the quarterbacks and passing attack as well, having worked closely with offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael Jr. Lombardi also stepped in for a brief stint as the running backs coach near the end of 2008.

He arrived in New Orleans with extensive coaching experience on both sides of the ball, most recently serving as defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. While in that role, Lombardi worked with a defensive line that combined for 25.5 sacks.

Bringing game-planning and play-calling experience to his position, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 at Mercyhurst College, also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Lombardi coached tight ends and running backs for the New York/New Jersey Hitmen of the XFL. In 2000, he tutored the defensive line and served as strength & conditioning coordinator at Bucknell University.

He coached both the tight ends and tackles at the Virginia Military Institute in 1999, and Lombardi opened his coaching career at the University of Dayton, where he was responsible for the defensive line from 1996-98. The Flyers won 20-straight games during his tenure.

Lombardi - the grandson of legendary coach Vince Lombardi - is a 1994 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse. Lombardi and his wife, Molly, have five children: sons Joseph, Thomas and Dominic and daughters Maria and Bernadette.

PLAYING CAREER: Air Force, 1991-93.
COACHING CAREER: Dayton, 1996-98; Virginia Military Institute, 1999; Bucknell University, 2000; New York/New Jersey Hitmen (XFL), 2001; Mercyhurst College, 2002-05; Atlanta Falcons, 2006; New Orleans Saints, 2007-.

Mike MALLORY
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

An experienced coach who has built a reputation for attention to detail, intensity and preparation throughout his career, Mike Mallory enters his third season in New Orleans as assistant special teams coach. He brings over two decades of experience as a college coach to his post - including three stints as a defensive coordinator - and a strong past working relationship with special teams coordinator Greg McMahon.

Last season, the Saints finished fourth in the league in kickoff return average and had their first return for a touchdown since 2004 and had a punt return for a TD in the postseason. The coverage units recovered three fumbles, while Mallory has also assisted in the development of K Garrett Hartley and P Thomas Morstead, both of whom had a significant impact on an improved kicking game.

Mallory joined the Saints in 2008 after spending 2007 at the University of Louisville, where he served as secondary coach. He spent the previous season at Kansas coaching the linebackers, and the five years before (2001-05) as an assistant at Illinois, including his final two seasons as the team's defensive coordinator/ linebackers.

Mallory coached the Illinois linebackers in 2003 after spending his previous two years working with the safeties. For four seasons Mallory and McMahon were on the same staff at Illinois, and Mallory, as now, assisted McMahon with preparing the special teams units.

During his career, Mallory also coached the inside linebackers at Maryland (2000) - also working with the punt team while with the Terrapins - and was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northern Illinois (1996-99) and Rhode Island (1993-95).

Mallory had a standout career as a linebacker at the University of Michigan. He was a two-time All-Big 10 selection and two-year captain. He was a finalist for the 1985 Butkus Award - given to the nation's premier linebacker - and voted his team's MVP in 1984. Mallory played in four bowl games and graduated with a degree in sports administration.

Mallory is from a distinguished football family. He is the son of Bill Mallory, who has served as a head coach at Indiana, Colorado, Northern Illinois and Miami University (Ohio). Mike's youngest brother, Curt, is currently the defensive coordinator at Akron, and brother, Doug, is the defensive coordinator at New Mexico.

Mallory and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Kathryn, and a son, William.

PLAYING CAREER: Michigan, 1982-85.
COACHING CAREER: Indiana, 1986-87; Kent State, 1988-90; Eastern Illinois, 1991-92; Rhode Island, 1993-95; Northern Illinois, 1996-99; Maryland, 2000; Illinois, 2001-05; Kansas, 2006; Louisville, 2007; New Orleans Saints, 2008-.

Terry MALONE

TIGHT ENDS

The leader of a position group that has been a productive component of an offense that has ranked among the NFL's top units since 2006, tight ends coach Terry Malone enters his fifth season in New Orleans. Malone brings over two decades of coaching experience to his post, including two stints as an offensive coordinator.

The club's platoon of tight ends have been solid and consistent as both receivers and blockers under Malone's tutelage. TE Jeremy Shockey had 48 receptions for 569 yards with three TDs. He scored two more times in the playoffs, including the go-ahead touchdown grab from Drew Brees in Super Bowl XLIV. Malone integrated David Thomas into the offense quickly following a week one trade and he responded with 35 grabs for 356 yards with one TD. It marked the first time two Saints tight ends had at least 35 catches since 1995. Both tight ends played a key role in the blocking scheme for the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense.

Malone's work with tight ends has a long history. He worked at Michigan from 1997-2005, including his final four seasons as the Wolverines' offensive coordinator/tight ends. During Malone's nine seasons, Michigan won five Big 10 championships and appeared in eight New Year's Day bowl games.

In his tenure as coordinator the school had 14 All-Big Ten selections and four All-Americans. The Wolverines had back-to-back conference Player of the Year winners on offense (RB Chris Perry, 2003 and WR Braylon Edwards, 2004). In 2004, the offense ranked second in the Big Ten and 24th in the nation in scoring by averaging over 30 points per contest. The Wolverines were led by Rimington Trophy co-recipient David Baas and Edwards, who won the Biletnikoff Award as the country's top receiver. QB Chad Henne became the first true freshman in Big Ten history to lead his squad to a conference title and was the first to start a Rose Bowl.

In 2003, Malone was named a finalist for the Broyles award, recognizing the top college assistant. It was a fitting honor, as the Wolverines tied for 12th nationally in scoring (35.4 avg.) and 15th in total offense (446.7 avg.) while setting school records in every passing category. Michigan led the Big Ten in passing (270.8 avg.) for the first time since 1948 and set school marks for total yards (5,807) en route to the conference title.

Malone began his years at Michigan as offensive line coach, with the Wolverines winning the 1997 national title in his first season. His offensive line allowed a conference-low 18 sacks. He remained in that position until being promoted to offensive coordinator after the 2001 season.

Michigan's front line had three NFL draft picks in 2001, including No. 1 picks

COACHING STAFF

Steve Hutchinson and Jeff Backus and second-rounder Maurice Williams. The line paved the way for RB Anthony Thomas to break all of the Wolverines' rushing yardage and touchdowns records.

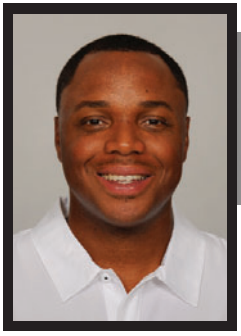

Two Malone-coached players were recognized as the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year: Jon Jansen (1997) and Hutchinson (2000). Hutchinson became just the fourth player in conference history to earn All-Big Ten first team honors after all four years.

Malone arrived at Ann Arbor after spending 1996 as offensive line coach at Boston College on the staff of Coach Dan Henning. Prior to that season, Malone served as offensive line coach, tight ends coach, and offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 1986-95, where he was a part of two squads to win MAC Conference championships and subsequent bowl games.

Before returning to his alma mater, Holy Cross, in 1985 to tutor the tight ends, Malone opened his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Arizona, under the late coach Larry Smith.

A native of Redford, Mich., Malone attended The College of The Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., and played four seasons at tight end. Malone was the Crusaders' captain as a senior. He earned a degree in history from Holy Cross (1983). Malone and his wife, Ann, have four children, Kara, Patrick, Ryan and Natalie. The Malone family lives on the northshore. They volunteer at the Covington Food Bank and are active parishioners at the Most Holy Trinity Church in Covington.

PLAYING CAREER: Holy Cross, 1979-82.
COACHING CAREER: Arizona, 1983-84; Holy Cross, 1985; Bowling Green, 1986-95; Boston College, 1996; Michigan, 1997-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

Tony ODEN
ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Entering his fifth season with the Saints, assistant secondary coach Tony Oden brings a wealth of experience of working with defensive backs to his post, and will again assist Dennis Allen in tutoring the cornerbacks and safeties.

Along with Allen in 2009, he helped a revamped secondary finish second in the NFC (3rd-NFL) with 26 interceptions and fifth in the league in touchdown passes allowed (15). A league-leading five of the picks were returned for TDs. The group saw S Darren Sharper lead the team and tie for first in the NFL in interceptions (9) and picks returned for a touchdown (3). Oden assisted with CB Tracy Porter's continued development, who in his second year had four interceptions in the regular season and two picks in the playoffs, a total of two returned for touchdowns.

Over the last four seasons, the Saints have held opponents to under 200 yards passing 32 times, and in 2006 the club ranked third in the NFL in defending the pass.

Oden arrived in New Orleans prior in 2006 after spending the previous two seasons with the Houston Texans in a similar capacity. In 2004, Oden's efforts were rewarded when Houston's secondary intercepted 18 passes, with CB Dunta Robinson leading all NFL rookies with six.

Oden tutored the defensive backs in 2003 at Eastern Michigan. He worked at East Carolina prior to his season at EMU, serving as outside linebackers coach in 2000, secondary coach in 2001 and safeties coach in 2002. Each year he also was an assistant with the special teams.

Before his stint at East Carolina, Oden spent two seasons at West Point as Army's assistant secondary coach. He also led the junior varsity program in 1999 after serving as its defensive coordinator in 1998.

In 1997, Oden coached wide receivers as a graduate assistant at Boston College. His first college coaching job came at Millersville (Pa.), where he was assistant secondary/special teams coach.

Oden also acquired NFL experience by twice serving as a summer coaching intern, first for Green Bay (1999) and then for Cleveland in 2001.

A two-time all-conference selection at linebacker at Baldwin-Wallace, Oden was the Yellow Jackets captain as a senior. He earned All-America recognition and Co-Defensive MVP honors in college.

A native of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Oden and his wife, Amanda, have a son, Jaylen and a daughter, Ryan.

PLAYING CAREER: Baldwin Wallace, 1992-95.
COACHING CAREER: Millersville, 1996; Boston College, 1997; Army, 1998-99; Green Bay Packers (summer intern), 1999; East Carolina, 2000-02; Cleveland Browns (summer intern), 2001; Eastern Michigan; 2003; Houston Texans, 2004-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

NFL CAREER – Few players in the era of NFL free agency can rival the impact that Drew Brees has made on the Saints since arriving in 2006 - leading the team to victory in Super Bowl XLIV and being named the MVP of the contest, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors in 2008, being voted to the Pro Bowl three times and setting a slew of team passing records. He ranks among the league's elite quarterbacks, becoming only the second player in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards in four-straight seasons - including 5,069 in 2008. Brees has also set two league records since joining the Saints: completion percentage in a season (70.6 in 2009) and completions (440, 2007). Last season, he was named Super Bowl MVP after a sparkling performance against the Colts, where he completed 32 of 39 for 288 yards and a pair of TDs. During the postseason, he had eight touchdown passes and completed over 70 percent of his passes. Despite playing in only 15 games in 2009, Brees led the NFL in passer rating (109.6), and touchdowns (34), was voted the NFC starter in the Pro Bowl and led New Orleans to 13-straight victories to open the season. Brees was honored as the co-winner of the 2006 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year, in large part for his charitable contributions and volunteer work, where he has taken a leadership role in the New Orleans community. Originally drafted by San Diego in 2001, Brees signed a six-year contract with the Saints in March of 2006 as an Unrestricted Free Agent after ranking as one of the NFL's top quarterbacks over the previous two seasons with San Diego, departing as the Chargers' all-time leader for career completion percentage. In 2004, Brees was selected to the Pro Bowl after earning a host of awards, including the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year. Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 18,298 passing yards, 2,355 attempts and 1,572 completions and is tied for the league-lead over that span with 122 TD passes. Brees also has thrown for over 300 yards in 30 games with the Saints, including five contests with over 400.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to six-year contract with Saints, (UFA), 3/16/06; Re-signed by San Diego Chargers to one-year contract as Franchise Player, 3/4/05; Designated Franchise Player by San Diego, 2/22/05; Selected by San Diego in the second round (32nd overall) of 2001 NFL Draft.

! WORTHNOTING

Since joining the Saints in 2006, Brees has completed 1572 of 2355 passes (66.8%) for 18,298 yards with 122 touchdown passes and a 109.6 passer rating, leading the NFL in passing yardage, attempts, completions and tying for tops in scoring throws. The yardage total is the highest four-year passing yardage total in NFL history. He's the club's all-time leader in completion percentage, TD passes and passer rating, rapidly closing in on all of Saints passing records.

Despite breaking team and NFL records each year since arriving in New Orleans in 2006, Brees continues to build on the output of his previous seasons. In 2009, Brees' 70.6 completion percentage set an NFL single-season record, eclipsing the previous mark set by Cincinnati's Ken Anderson (70.55) in the nine-game strike-shortened 1982 season.

2009 – Selected by teammates one of three season-long captains…Started all 15 games he played, held out of finale with Saints having clinched No. 1 seed in NFC…In regular season, threw for over 300 yards in seven games, and over 295 in three others en route to 4,388 yards…Set an NFL record with a 70.6 completion pct. and tied his team record with 34 TD passes. Also led the league with a passer rating of 109.6…Nearly flawless in postseason while leading the Saints to Super Bowl XLIV title, completing 72 of 102 passes (70.6 percent) for 732 yards with eight TDs, zero INTs and a 117.0 passer rating…In Super Bowl vs.

Tied a team record with TD total (Billy Kilmer, 11/2/69)…At Philadelphia, Sept. 20 - his 50th game with Saints - led team to 48 points while completing over 73 percent of his passes for 311 yards, with three touchdowns, an INT and a 118.6 rating. Tied a NFL record with nine TDs after two games…

! WORTHNOTING

Throwing for 4,388 yards in 2009, Brees became only the second NFL player to throw for 4,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, joining Peyton Manning (1999-2004, 2006-09).

Brees also led the league with a 109.6 passer rating in 2009, the eighth-highest single season total in NFL record books. With a league-leading 34 touchdown passes, he tied the club record he first set in 2008.

The Super Bowl XLIV Most Valuable Player enjoyed a flawless postseason, completing 72 of 102 passes (70.6%) for 732 yards with eight TD passes, zero interceptions and a 117.0 passer rating. In the NFL's championship, he led the Saints back from a ten-point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes, including his final ten throws. Brees' career postseason completion percentage of 66.7 is the highest in NFL history and his 103.7 passer rating is ranked second.

Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for September, the second-straight year he took home award…Set a team record vs. NY Giants, Oct. 18, completing 15-straight passes in first half. Ended game 23 of 30 for 369 yards and four TDs. Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts, which included engineering TD drives on team's first four possessions. In contest, became third QB in club history to throw for over 15,000 yards, and third to throw 100 TDs… Overcame rough start at Miami, Oct. 25, to produce a 36-point second-half in comeback victory to erase a 24-3 deficit. ! WORTHNOTING

Upon coming to the Saints in 2006, Brees needed no adjustment to a new club as his 4,418 passing yards were the most in NFL history for a quarterback on a new team and during one five-game stretch, he threw for 1,954 yards, the most in NFL record books over a five-game period. As the Saints made an amazing turnaround from a 3-13 season to reach the NFC Championship, he was voted to the Pro Bowl, first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and finished second in the wire service's voting for the Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year voting.

Taking a leadership role in the rebuilding and enhancement of the New Orleans community through his charitable contributions and endless volunteer work, Brees was voted the co-winner of the 2006 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year Award honoring excellence on the field as well as a player's charitable work. He also has been honored by the Pro Football Writer's Association with the 2007 Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award, based on his commitment to the community and the 2009 Good Guy Award, which goes to the player who best helped the media do their job.

NFL CAREER – A threat as a runner, returner and receiver, over the last four seasons Bush has been a key part of a Saints' offense that has ranked among the NFL's leaders yearly - and also been one of the league's top punt returners. In 52 regular-season games, Bush has recorded 4,504 all-purpose yards and scored 32 touchdowns. It is his versatility that has made him such a dynamic performer: With 260, he has more receptions than any running back in the league since 2006. Last season he averaged nearly six yards per carry, posted eight TDs and was fourth on the club in catches within a balanced attack. Bush led the club in rushing in 2007 and set an NFL record for rookie running backs with 88 receptions in 2006. Since the AFL-NFL merger, he's one of only six players to have multiple seasons with a rushing, receiving and punt return for a touchdown (2006 and 2008). In 2009, he equaled the feat in the postseason - ripping off a 46-yard touchdown burst and an 83-yard punt return TD vs. Arizona and hauling in a five-yard scoring grab in the NFC Championship. The TD run and punt return against the Cardinals, as well as his 88-yard touchdown reception in 2006 at Chicago, are the longest postseason scoring plays in franchise history. Bush was drafted second overall in 2006 after an honor-filled career at USC, including winning the Heisman Trophy in 2005. He has twice won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors and has also taken home NFC Offensive Player of the Week once.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Placed on injured reserve, 12/17/08; Signed a six-year contract, 8/1/06; Drafted in the first round (second overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2008: Sporting News All-Pro (Punt Returner); NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 5). 2006: Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie Team; NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month (December); NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 13); NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 5), NFL Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week (Week 1).

2009 – Played in 14 games, starting eight, gaining 390 yards on 70 carries with five TDs along with 47 catches for 335 yards with three touchdowns…Added 27 punt returns for 130 yards (4.8)…Accounted for 35 first downs (19 rushing, 16 receiving)…Inactive for two contests with a knee injury…Had a sterling postseason, rushing for 117 yards on 17 carries (6.9 avg.) with a touchdown, hauling in 10 passes for 95 yards (9.5) and a TD, and returning five punts for 113 yards (22.6) and an 83-yard TD…Had five carries for 25 yards in Super Bowl XLIV vs. Indianapolis, and added four receptions for 38 yards…In NFC Championship vs. Minnesota, held in check most of the game but scored on five-yard reception…In NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona, turned in one of the best games of his career. Had five carries for 84 yards, setting a club postseason record with a 46-yard run for a touchdown. Added four receptions for 24 yards and gained 109 yards on three punt returns, including an 83-yard return for a TD - the third-longest punt return in NFL postseason history. The 209 total yards were the top total for a player in club history…Had five grabs for 55 yards in opener vs. Detroit, Sept. 13…At Philadelphia, Sept. 20, caught three passes for 42 yards and scored on a 19-yard TD run…Had 13 carries for 64 yards and three grabs for 17 yards at Buffalo, Sept. 27, part of a 222-yard rushing day for the Saints' offense…Oct. 4 vs. the NY Jets, had a punt return for 22 yards, six carries for 37 yards (6.1 avg.) and added a 22-yard punt return in the victory…At

Bush is the only player in franchise history to score touchdowns rushing, receiving and on a punt return. He has accomplished this in both the regular season and postseason. He has 17 rushing touchdowns, 11 TD receptions, and has returned a club-record four punts for touchdowns, making him only the second active player who has scored ten times each on rushing and receiving over his first four NFL seasons.

Bush played a key role in the playoffs in New Orleans' run to the Super Bowl XLIV Championship, carrying 11 times for 117 yards (6.9 avg.) with one touchdown, ten receptions for 95 yards with a touchdown and a punt return for a touchdown. In the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona, Bush became only the second player in NFL history - and the first in more than 60 years - to produce touchdowns on a rushing play and a punt return in a postseason game. He was also only the second player in NFL postseason history to score a touchdown of 80-or-more yards and another of 40-or-more yards in the same game. He joined Carolina WR Steve Smith as only the second player in NFL history to score touchdowns on a rush, reception and punt return in the same postseason.

With 260 receptions, Bush has the most catches of any NFL running back since 2006. Making his 200th catch in his 34th career contest, Bush is tied with Anquan Boldin as the fastest to 200 in NFL history.

Bush has recorded at least 100 total yards from scrimmage in 15 games (13 regular season, two postseason). The Saints have posted a 10-5 record in these games.

Miami, Oct. 25, had just three catches for 16 yards and three carries for 10 yards, but turned in one of most memorable plays of 2009 when he took a pitch off a double-reverse and leapt around a defender and into the end zone from about five yards away. The sweeping touchdown dive - which ended up on the cover of Sports Illustrated - cut the Dolphins' lead to 34-31 after Miami once led by three TDs, and the Saints would go on to win 46-34…Scored a TD for third-straight game with a one-yard burst vs. Atlanta, Nov. 2…At St. Louis, Nov. 15, recorded first multi-TD game of season, running for a three-yard TD and catching a short pass and outrunning the defense for a 15-yard score. Rushed for 83 yards on six carries, but suffered an injured knee that would land him on inactive list for next two contests…At Atlanta, Dec. 13, started at wide receiver and caught a pair of TDs (six and 21 yards). Had six grabs for 46 yards and six carries for 33 yards. Added a 23-yard punt return…Prior to departing with a leg injury vs. Dallas, Dec. 19, had one carry for 29 yards and two catches for 17 yards…Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay, had six catches for 37 yards, 16 yards on a pair of rushes and a 14-yard punt return…Played sparingly vs. Carolina in finale, rushing for 35 yards on five carries. Failed to catch a pass in a game for the first time in his NFL career.

BUSH BY THE NUMBERS

260 – Receptions in his first 52 NFL regular-season games. It's the highest total among running backs over that span and ranks eighth in club history.

32 – Total touchdowns in the regular season for Bush in his career. 17 have come rushing, 11 through the air and four on punt returns. He's ranked eighth on the club's all-time list. He has also scored five touchdowns in five postseason contests to take the franchise lead.

17 – Rushing touchdowns for Bush in his career. He's currently ranked ninth on the club's all-time list. He's the franchise's all-time leader in the postseason with two rushing scores.

1,934 – Receiving yardage by Bush in his NFL career through 52 games. It's the second-highest total among NFL running backs over that time span.

2,435 – Total yards from scrimmage in 33 regular season games since taking over as a starter in game four of 2007.

11 – Bush ranks 11th in team history in rushing with 1,940 yards on 488 carries, with 17 touchdowns. With 188 rushing yards in the postseason, he is the club's all-time leading runner.

131 – Receiving yards against San Francisco in his rookie season (12/3/06), the most by a running back in franchise history.

12 – Bush became just the 12th player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the same contest vs. Minnesota (10/6/08) on Monday Night Football.

176 – Punt return yardage vs. Minnesota, setting a single game franchise record as he averaged 35.2 yards on five returns.

83 – The length of his third quarter punt return for a touchdown in the NFC Divisional Playoff game vs. Arizona, the third-longest punt return in NFL post-season record books.

4 – Touchdowns for Bush vs. San Francisco (12/3/06), tying a team single-game record for total touchdowns in a contest. Bush had three scoring rushes against the 49ers - also tying a club record - and one touchdown reception.

9 – Multiple touchdown performances in his four-year career, including eight in the regular season and one in the playoffs.

2 – During New Orleans' playoff run, Bush joined Carolina WR Steve Smith as only the second player in NFL history to score a touchdown on a rush, reception and punt return in the same postseason.

lowed moments later by going around the end for two-point conversion…At San Francisco, Oct. 28, rushed for 64 yards on 10 carries and caught seven passes for 49 yards…Against Jacksonville, Nov. 4, rushed for 72 yards on 17 attempts with a one-yard TD and caught seven passes for 43 yards and a two-yard touchdown…Had a seven-yard touchdown run and five catches for 27 yards vs. St. Louis, Nov. 11. Set a club record and tied an NFL record with a pair of two-point conversions, both on runs in fourth quarter…At Houston, Nov. 18, set a career-

NFL CAREER – Turned potential into production on the field in 2009, seizing the chance to become full-time starter and becoming an integral part of the offensive front. Played in 15 games and started the first 14 of his career at left tackle after starter Jammal Brown missed the season with a sports hernia/hip injury. Bushrod distinguished himself while learning perhaps the offensive line's most difficult position. Also started all three postseason contests. A fourth-round pick in 2007, he is the only player the club has ever drafted out of Towson University.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Re-signed to a one-year contract (RFA), 4/13/10; Signed to a three-year contract, 7/20/07; Drafted by the Saints in the fourth round (125th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

2009 – Played in 15 games, making 14 starts at LT, inactive vs. Jets, Oct. 4 with knee and ankle injuries…Sept. 13 vs. Detroit opened first NFL game and did not allow a sack…Suffered ankle injury at Buffalo, Sept. 27…Did not start at Tampa Bay, Nov. 22, playing in a rotation with T Zach Strief…Helped hold Arizona sack-free in NFC Divisional Playoff, Jan. 16. 2008 – Inactive for 12 games, dressed but did not play in two and appeared in two contests on special teams, blocking on kick return units. 2007 – Inactive for 14 games, played in one, and dressed but did not see action in another…Made NFL debut at Houston, Nov. 18, serving as a blocker on kickoff return unit.

COLLEGE – A four-year starter at Towson…Voted All-Atlantic 10 selection at left tackle in 2006…Finished career with a streak of 38 consecutive starts…Earned third-team all-league honors as a junior and recorded nine TD-resulting blocks…Posted 72 knockdown blocks and was third-team All-Atlantic 10 as a sophomore, his first full season as a starter…Started five games in 2003 after redshirting in 2002.

Marques COLSTON 12

HEIGHT: 6-4 WEIGHT: 225
COLLEGE: HOFSTRA
JOINED SAINTS: D7B-06
NFL EXPERIENCE: 5
BORN: 6/5/83

WR

NFL CAREER – In just 57 career games, Colston is established as one of the NFL's most difficult-to-defend targets. He's dependable - moving the chains for 204 first downs, already ranking fourth in club history in receptions with 285 and hauling in eight or more grabs in 14 contests. Colston is also explosive, notching four games with 150 yards or more, 13 with over 100 and having scored 33 TDs. He's gone about it while keeping a low profile, emerging as an impact player soon after being drafted 252nd overall in 2006. Since his arrival, Colston has led the Saints in receiving three times and had a trio of 1,000-yard seasons. In 2007, he set a club record with 98 catches, and in 2006 had 869 yards after his first nine games - the quickest start of any player in league history. Colston led the Saints in 2009 by hauling in 70 passes for 1,074 yards and nine TDs, and played a key role in the postseason with 15 receptions for 188 yards and a touchdown - including a team-high seven grabs for 83 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed three-year contract extension, 7/23/08; Signed to a three-year contract, 7/18/06; Selected in the seventh round (252nd overall) in the 2006 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2006: Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie; Dallas Morning News All-Rookie; NFL Rookie of the Month (October).

! WORTHNOTING

While Colston is extremely adept at moving the chains - 204 of his 285 career catches have gone for a first down - he has also been a big-play threat who can stretch the field. He has nine receptions of over 40 yards in his career, including touchdown grabs of 86 and 70 yards. In 57 career games, Colston has 59 catches of 20 yards or more.

No player in league history caught more passes in their first two seasons than the 168 that Colston hauled in from 2006-07.

Colston holds the club record for catches in a season with 98 in 2007 and tied the team mark that year with 11 receiving TDs.

Colston has posted 13 games with over 100 receiving yards. Only two Saints have reached the century mark more than him.

Colston has twice put together streaks of three-straight 100-yard games, one of only two players to reach the milestone in three consecutive games (Joe Horn, 2000) and the lone player in club history to have achieved the feat twice.

Colston is ranked fourth in team record books in receptions (285), receiving yardage (4,074) and receiving touchdowns (33). His receiving TD total is ranked sixth in the NFL since entering the NFL in 2006 during this time.

2009 – Played in all 16 games, starting 14 contests and led the club with 70 catches and 1,074 yards (15.3 avg). Tied WR Robert Meachem for the team-lead with nine receiving touchdowns and added one rush for six yards…Had 12 catches of 25 yards or more and 54 of his grabs went for first downs, leading the team in the category…Added 15 catches for 188 yards in three postseason games, including six for 83 and a two-yard TD vs. Arizona and seven grabs for 83 yards in Super Bowl XLIV vs. the Colts…Caught 25th touchdown of his career in opener vs. Detroit…Led team vs. Philadelphia, Sept. 20, with a pair of first half TDs (15 and 25 yards) on a team-high eight catches for 98 yards. It was the sixth time he has had over 90 yards in his career, but fallen short of 100…Had a season-high 166 yards and a TD on eight catches for NY Giants, Oct. 18, including a 40-yard reception…Led club with five catches for 72 yards and a 10-yard score at Miami, Oct. 25…Nov. 2 vs. Atlanta, led team again with six catches for 85 yards and an 18-yard touchdown…Posted 13th career 100-yard performance vs. New England, Nov. 30, catching four passes for 121 yards, including a season-long 68-yard reception and a 20-yard TD…Had a 40-yard touchdown catch at Washington, Dec. 6…At Atlanta, Dec. 13, started and had six receptions for 54 yards and a TD. His six catches moved him past TE Hoby Brenner and WR Quinn Early into fifth on the club's all-time receptions list…Led team with 86

COLSTON BY THE NUMBERS

285 - Total receptions in his first four seasons, the highest total by a Saints' draft pick over his opening four years and the fourth highest overall total in franchise history. Only ten other players in NFL history have more grabs in their first four seasons after coming into the league via draft or free agency.

4,074 - Career receiving yardage, the 12th highest total in the NFL since 2006 and the fourth-highest in franchise history.

13 - Colston has had over 100 yards receiving on 13 occasions in his career - including four contests with over 150 yards. Only two other players in club history have reached the 100-yard milestone as often.

14 - Represents the number of games in his career when Colston's recorded eight or more receptions.

25 - Postseason reception total by Colston in five games, the highest number of catches in Saints playoff record books.

204 - Career receptions that have moved the chains for a first down - 71.6 percent of his catches.

37 - Catches of 25 yards or more during his career, including touchdowns of 86 and 70 yards. He has 59 catches of 20 yards or more.

455 - Receiving yardage in a three-game stretch in 2006 (10/29-11/12), the most yardage over such a span in franchised record books. He had over 100 yards in all three contests, a streak that he also equalled again in 2007.

6 - While Colston ranks third in club history with 12 games with over 100 yards receiving in his brief career, he has had over 90 yards in six other contests. The number also represents the multiple-touchdown games in his career.

5 - Consecutive games with a touchdown reception that Colston posted from 12/11/08-9/27/09. Colston shares the record with fellow wideout Lance Moore who set the mark in 2008.

86-yard TD in fourth quarter - the longest in club history for a rookie. The last players in NFL record books to have a receiving touchdown of 86 yards or more within their first four NFL games were QB Mark Malone of Pittsburgh, who in his third contest had a 90-yard scoring grab in 1981, and Detroit RB Billy Sims, who had an 87-yard TD catch in his second game…Posted six receptions for a 163 yards and two TDs vs. Baltimore, Oct. 29. Scoring grabs were of 25 and 47 yards in the fourth quarter, and also had a 53-yard grab. Combined with WR Joe Horn (126) to give the Saints a pair of 100-yard receivers for sixth time in club history. Yardage total was highest in club history for a rookie at that point… Named NFC Rookie of the Month for October, a span where Colston had 373 yards and four TDs…At Tampa Bay, Nov. 5, recorded a career-best 11 grabs for 123 yards and a TD. Set a club rookie record with third 100-yard day. Combined with WR Devery Henderson (111) for seventh time the Saints have had a pair of 100-yard receivers in same game, and it was the first time the club had a duo achieve the feat in back-to-back games…Notched 10 catches for 169 yards at Pittsburgh, Nov. 12, breaking his two-week-old club record for most receiving yards in a game by a rookie. Over the previous three-game stretch, he recorded 27 catches for 455 yards and three TDs, the best three-game totals in club history…Suffered a sprained ankle in early moments vs. Cincinnati, Nov. 19, and forced to miss the next two games…Had five catches for 78 yards vs. Washington, Dec. 17 and went over 1,000 yards on season, becoming first rookie in team history to reach the milestone…With club having clinched a playoff berth, started but played sparingly vs. Carolina, Dec. 31 and did not record a reception.

COLLEGE – A four-year standout at Hofstra University, appearing in 40 career games with 37 starts and posting 182 catches for 2,834 yards, with 22 TDs…All-Atlantic 10 as a senior after hauling in a career-high 70 receptions for 975 yards (13.9 avg.) and nine TDs… Sidelined in 2004 while recovering from shoulder injury…As a junior in 2003, led team with 51 receptions for 910 yards (17.8 avg.) and seven TDs…In 2002, recorded 47 grabs for 614 yards and three TDs… Posted 14 catches for 335 yards (23.9 avg.) and three touchdowns as a freshman.

PERSONAL – The lone player the Saints have drafted out of Hofstra University… Attended Susquehanna Township (Pa.) HS, where he lettered four times in football and was a three-year member of track team…All-conference at receiver and defensive end as a senior…Had 37 catches for 412 yards and blocked three PATs in 2000…Interdisciplinary studies major…Born June 5, 1983 in Harrisburg, Pa.

NFL CAREER - Dunbar has risen from seeing extended playing time as an undrafted free agent in 2008 to being expected to battle for a starting spot at strongside linebacker this season. Known for his solid tackling and instincts, Dunbar's 2009 season was cut short after nine contests with a hamstring injury. Since entering the NFL he has ranked among the Saints' top special teams performers while playing in 24 games with five starts. As a rookie, he played in 15 contests after a standout career at Boston College.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS - Placed on injured reserve, 12/8/09; Signed by Saints to active roster from practice squad, 9/6/08; Waived by Saints, 8/31/08; Signed by New Orleans to a three-year contract as an undrafted free agent, 4/30/08.

2009 - Started three games and appeared in nine prior to be being placed on injured reserve with injured hamstring, Dec. 8…Had 16 tackles on defense (eight solo) and 12 tackles on special teams…Inactive for three-game stretch early (at Buffalo, Sept 27-vs. NY Giants, Oct. 18) with hamstring injury…Returned at Miami and had a tackle, knocked down a pass and added a stop on special teams…Started vs. Atlanta, Nov. 2 and had six stops…Posted a career-high seven tackles (three solo) vs. Carolina…Tied career-high with a trio of special teams tackles in kick coverage at Tampa Bay, Nov. 22. Also added a pair of stops on special teams. Started at Washington, Dec. 6, but injured his hamstring again early in the contest. Placed on injured reserve two days later. 2008 - Appeared in 15 games with two starts and recorded seven tackles (two solo) and two pass defenses and added 16 special teams tackles…Made first career start at strongside linebacker at Washington, Sept. 14, and notched five tackles (two solo) and two pass defenses…Had a big night on special teams vs. Minnesota, Oct. 6, making a career-high three solo tackles as well as throwing key blocks on RB Reggie Bush's two punt return touchdowns.

COLLEGE - Two-year starter and captain at Boston College, notching 269 career tackles with 2.5 sacks and a pair of interceptions over his 46-game career…As a junior tied an NCAA Division I-A record when he returned two fumbles for touchdowns in the same game.

PERSONAL - Born in Syracuse, N.Y…All-State running back and also played linebacker at Thomas J. Corcoran (Syracuse, N.Y.) HS.

NFL CAREER – Ellis has started every game since being drafted seventh overall in 2008, and has proven that his strength against the run and ability to rush the passer is a key factor in the Saints' defense. In 23 NFL games, he has posted 87 stops, six sacks, knocked down seven passes and recovered a fumble. Ellis has registered those totals and has been able to take on two blockers despite missing nine career contests with knee injuries. He earned All-Rookie honors in 2008 after being one of the most coveted players in the NFL Draft. New Orleans moved up in the first round to select Ellis, sending the 10th overall choice and a third-round pick to New England in exchange for the Patriots' seventh overall selection and a fifth-round pick.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to a five-year contract, 7/30/08; Drafted in the first round (seventh overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2008: PFWA/Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie.

2009 – Played in and started 10 games - missing six with a knee injury - and had a career-best 45 stops (28 solo), a pair of sacks, two pass defenses and recovered a fumble…Added 12 tackles in the postseason, ranking second among all defensive linemen, and recorded the team's only sack…Had four stops in Super Bowl XLIV vs. Indianapolis, including one for a loss…Top postseason performance came vs. Minnesota Vikings in NFC Championship, with seven stops, but also notched an eight-yard sack vs. Arizona in divisional playoff, his lone tackle in the contest…Set a career-high with 10 tackles (four solo) and a sack at Buffalo, Sept. 27…At Miami, Oct. 25, had three tackles before leaving the game

NFL CAREER – The all-purpose fullback proved to be everything the Saints hoped for until going down with a season-ending knee injury six games into last season. Before being placed on injured reserve - the first time in his career he suffered a significant injury - Evans showed the versatility that made the former free agent's signing a priority with rugged lead blocking, 10 catches for a pair of touchdowns and another TD rushing. He continued to have a significant role last season tutoring young players on the roster. Evans has played in 127 career games (17 starts) posting 577 yards on 162 carries with four rushing TDs and 50 receptions for 398 yards and three touchdowns. The former Auburn standout - who has had stints with Seattle, Miami and New England - also has 29 tackles on special teams.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Placed on injured reserve, 10/29/09; Signed to a two year contract with Saints (UFA-NE), 3/12/09; Re-signed by New England Patriots to a two-year contract, 3/2/07; Re-signed by New England to a one-year contract, 3/27/06; Signed by New England, 11/1/05; Released by Miami Dolphins, 10/25/05; Signed by Miami to a one-year contract (UFA-Sea), 3/17/05; Re-signed by Seattle Seahawks to a one-year contract (RFA), 4/7/04; Signed by Seattle to a three-year contract, 7/26/01; Drafted by Seattle in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

2009 – Played in six games, with five starts, prior to suffering a torn ACL in right knee in win at Miami, Oct. 25…Finished season with five carries for 16 yards and a TD and 10 receptions for a pair of touchdowns. At time of his injury, the Saints ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing…In Saints debut vs. Detroit, Sept 13, had career-high four catches for 35 yards, including a 13-yard screen pass for a TD…Caught an 11-yard touchdown at Philadelphia, Sept. 20…At Buffalo Sept. 27, helped pave the way for Saints to rush for 222 yards…Oct. 4 vs. NY Jets, had three carries for 12 yards and an 11-yard reception…Scored on a two-yard burst vs. NY Giants, Oct. 18…Placed on injured reserve, Oct. 29. 2008 – Played in all 16 regular-season games, including four starts at fullback…Had 11 carries for 23 yards and three receptions for 59 yards, adding four special teams tackles… Rugged blocking helped Patriots to best rushing season in over 20 years, with 2,278 yards and 21 TDs…Had a 28-yard reception vs. Arizona, Dec. 21…Hauled in two passes for 31 yards at Buffalo, Dec. 28. 2007 – Played in all 16 regular season-season games, including one start and set career-high with three TDs, while carrying ball 34 times for 121 yards…Scored first rushing TD of season on a one-yard lunge vs. NY Jets, Sept. 9…Hauled in career-high 29-yard reception

COLLEGE: TENNESSEE
JOINED SAINTS: UFA-09 (BUF)
NFL EXPERIENCE: 7
BORN: 2/11/82

CB

NFL CAREER – Greer proved to be precisely what the Saints were searching for when the club signed the unrestricted free agent to a four-year contract prior to last season - a shutdown cornerback with the speed and skills to make plays all over the field. Despite missing a seven-game stretch in 2009 with a groin injury, Greer's impact was substantial, with 53 tackles - a career-high and second among all cornerbacks - and intercepting a pair of passes. Greer also ranked second on the team in pass breakups with 13, and returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown. His importance to the defense was most evident in the final push toward victory in Super Bowl XLIV - though only participating in 19 plays over the last half of the year, in the three postseason games Greer had 19 tackles and deflected five passes. Including his first five seasons in Buffalo, he has posted 193 career tackles, a pair of sacks, six interceptions for 135 return yards with three TDs and two forced fumbles. Since becoming a full-time starter in 2007, Greer has broken up 39 passes in the 35 games he has appeared in. He ranks among the NFL's fastest defensive backs, as he was also a standout on the University of Tennessee's track squad.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed by Saints to a four-year contract (UFA-BUF), 3/4/09; Re-signed by Buffalo Bills to a two-year contract, 3/1/07; Signed by Buffalo as an undrafted free agent, 4/26/04.

HONORS – 2007: AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 4).

2009 – Played in nine games, starting the first eight and returning for the finale after being inactive for a seven-game stretch with an injured groin which necessitated sports hernia surgery…Still managed a career-best 53 tackles (44 solo), two interceptions - one for a TD - and 13 pass defenses…In Super Bowl XLIV vs. Indianapolis, started and had five stops…Had a sparkling performance vs. Minnesota in NFC Championship, posting 10 tackles (eight solo) and deflecting three passes…Made his first start in over two months vs. Arizona in NFC Divisional Playoff in postseason debut and had four stops and broke up two passes…Posted 10 tackles (seven solo) with a pass defense at Philadelphia, Sept. 20…At Buffalo, Sept. 27, returned to face his former team and had eight tackles and knocked a pass into the air that was intercepted by DE Will Smith…Tied a career-high vs. NY Jets with three pass defenses, and added eight tackles…Had first interception with New Orleans when he picked off QB Eli Manning vs. NY Giants, Oct. 18…Nov. 12 vs. Atlanta, recorded first TD with Saints, returning QB Matt Ryan pass 48 yards…Started and made three stops prior to leaving game with groin injury vs. Carolina, Nov . 8, which would keep him on the inactive list for the next seven weeks and force him to undergo surgery. He did not return until finale at Carolina, 1/3/10. 2008 – Started all 10 games he appeared in for Buffalo and tallied 43 tackles (35 solo), two interceptions - both returned for TDs - nine pass defenses and a forced fumble.…Inactive for final six games due to a knee injury… Posted a forced fumble with two solo tackles and a pair of pass defenses vs. Seattle, Sept. 7…Returned an interception 33 yards for a go-ahead touchdown at St. Louis, Sept. 28, in addition to six solo tackles and deflecting six passes…Led team with a 12-tackle (nine solo) performance at Arizona, Oct. 5, his first double-digit tackle game…Intercepted a QB Brett Favre pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown vs. NY Jets, Nov. 2. 2007 – Posted 47 tackles (40 solo), two interceptions and 17 pass defenses, playing in all 16 games for the third consecutive year and making a career-high 13 starts… In fourth quarter vs. New York Jets, Sept. 30, had first career interception. Also had six tackles and deflected a pair of passes to earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors…The following week vs. Dallas, Oct. 8, recorded his second interception in addition to five tackles and three pass defenses - including breaking up a potential two-point conversion late game…Against Cincinnati, Nov. 4, notched his first career forced fumble. 2006 – Played in all 16 games for second consecutive season and ranked second on club with 20 tackles on special teams,

! WORTHNOTING

In his first season as a Saint after signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent from the Buffalo Bills, Greer bolstered the Saints secondary, often matching up against the opposition's top receiver

In his first season in New Orleans, Greer recorded a career-high 53 tackles and career-best-tying two interceptions, one returned for a TD. Despite missing seven games with a sports hernia injury, he finished second on club with 12 passes defensed.

In his NFL career, three of Greer's six interceptions have been returned for touchdowns.

COLLEGE: OKLAHOMA
JOINED SAINTS: FA-08
NFL EXPERIENCE: 3
BORN: 5/16/86

K

NFL CAREER – Signed by the Saints in a shrewd 2008 midseason acquisition following a tryout, the strong-legged Hartley has already made some of the most significant kicks in club history. He made his first 16 field goal attempts, setting an NFL record for consecutive field goals to start a career. Hartley enjoyed a stellar 2009 postseason as he was five-of-five on field goals and 12-of-12 on PATs, coming through in the clutch on repeated occasions. The former University of Oklahoma standout was initially signed as an undrafted free agent by the Denver Broncos.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Reinstated by NFL Commissioner with one week roster exemption, 10/5/09; Placed on NFL reserve/suspended list, 9/5/09; Signed by Saints, 10/29/08; Waived by Denver Broncos, 7/21/08; Signed by Denver as an undrafted free agent, 4/28/08.

2009 – Took over kicking duties for final five regular season games after being suspended for first four and inactive for next seven, going 9-of-11 on field goals and making 10-of-11 PATs for 37 points…In postseason, made five-of-five field goal attempts and 12-of-12 PATs…Making 2009 debut at Washington, Dec. 6, kicked career-best four field goals-including the 18-yard game-winner in overtime-in five attempts, his only miss coming on a 58-yard attempt at the end of regulation that fell just short. Carrying over from his rookie campaign, made his first 16 field goals, breaking the NFL record for consecutive field goals to start a career, previously held by Kris Brown (13 consecutive FG-1999)…Fourth quarter 38-yard field goal, in addition to an earlier 33-yarder, gave the Saints a 26-23 lead they would keep at Atlanta, Dec. 13…In NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona, converted all six PATs and was successful on his lone field goal try, a 43-yarder…After kicking four PATs in regulation, made the biggest kick of his young career in overtime when he split the uprights on a 40-yard field goal to provide the winning margin in a 31-28 win to send Saints to Super Bowl in NFC Championship vs. Minnesota…In Super Bowl XLIV, became first player in Super Bowl history to kick three field goals of 40-or-more yards, when he connected from 46,44 and 47 yards, in addition to two extra points. 2008 – Signed by the Saints, Oct. 29 and proceeded to have the finest season for field goal percentage by a rookie kicker in club history…Made all 13 field goal attempts and was 28-for-28 on PATs…Field goal total and 67 points are the second-highest total for a Saints rookie kicker, both records held by K Charlie Durkee in 1967 with 14 and 69 points… In NFL debut at Atlanta, Nov. 9, converted both PAT attempts and 24 and 44-yard field goals…Connected on all six of his extra point

NFL CAREER – Nicks continued to blossom into one of the finer young offensive linemen in the game in 2009, holding down the left guard spot he made his own during his rookie year a season prior. A powerful run blocker who also has the wide wingspan and quick feet needed for pass protection, Nicks was a key factor in the Saints surrendering ranking first overall in the NFL in offense for the second consecutive season. The former collegiate tackle was selected by multiple publications for All-Rookie honors in 2008, and has continued on to be a fixture on the club's offensive front.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed to a three-year contract, 7/23/08; Drafted in the fifth-round (164th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

HONORS – 2008: Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie, The Sporting News All-Rookie.

2009 – Started at left guard in all 16 games, running his consecutive starts streak to 29 games just 32 contests into his career…Played a key role in the club's top-ranked offense, helping to improve a rushing game to rank sixth in the league to go along with the NFL's fourth-ranked passing attack that allowed just 20 sacks…Started at LG in the season-opener vs. Detroit, Sept. 13, and helped lead the way for 515 yards of total offense, including 157 rushing yards and allowing zero sacks…Started at left guard and helped pace the team's 493-yard offensive attack that produced 48 points in the victory over the N.Y. Giants, Oct. 18…Started at left guard in all three of the Saints' postseason victories. 2008 – After serving as a backup and goal-line tight end for the first three games, Nicks opened the final 13 contests at left guard and was a key component of an offensive unit that was ranked first in the NFL in yards per game and scoring, while setting a club record with only 13 sacks surrendered…After entering the starting lineup in the fourth game of the season, vs. San Francisco, the Saints would only give up nine sacks in the final 13 contests.

COLLEGE – Appeared in 23 games at Nebraska, starting 13 contests, including 11 at left tackle in 2007 and two at right tackle in 2006…During his two seasons with the Cornhuskers, he allowed just one sack…As a senior, he was named second-team All-Big 12 while registering 76 knockdowns blocks… Appeared in all 11 games as a junior in 2006, serving as the top backup at RT, where he started the final two games…Attended Hartnell (Salinas, Calif.) JC in 2005…Played as a reserve defensive tackle as a true freshman at New Mexico State in 2003, recording three tackles and a fumble recovery…Majored in sociology.

PERSONAL – Attended Salinas (Calif.) Scott SHANLE 58

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 245
COLLEGE: NEBRASKA
JOINED SAINTS: TR-06 (DAL)
NFL EXPERIENCE: 8
BORN: 11/23/79

LB

NFL CAREER – Since arriving in New Orleans in 2006 Shanle has been one of the Saints' top defenders, and he turned in another stellar season in 2009 as he notched 100-plus tackles for the third time in four seasons and added the first two interceptions of his career and recovered a pair of fumbles. He started all 14 games he played in the regular season and opened all three postseason contests as well from the weakside linebacker spot he has owned for the past four seasons. Equally adept at blitzing, dropping into coverage and plugging against the run, Shanle has been an important addition since acquired in a trade from Dallas on the eve of the 2006 training camp. In his 60 games in New Orleans since, he has had 464 tackles, six sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries while rarely leaving the field. Initially a seventh-round pick out of Nebraska in 2003 by St. Louis, Shanle spent most of his rookie year with the Rams, playing in six games before being claimed off waivers by Dallas late in the season. With the Cowboys, he was a special teams standout in 2004 before starting eight games in 2005. Though he has also started at strongside linebacker and in the middle during his NFL career, he has found a home at weakside linebacker in New Orleans.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Signed by Saints to a four-year contract, 2/9/07; Acquired by New Orleans from Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft pick, 8/23/06; Claimed off waivers by Dallas, 12/10/03; Waived by St. Louis Rams, 10/9/03; Chosen by St. Louis in seventh round (251st overall) of 2003 NFL Draft.

2009 – Played in and started 14 games at weakside linebacker, missing the final two contests of the year with a concussion, and posted 106 tackles (74 solo), his third 100-tackle season in the past four years…Also recorded his first two career interceptions along with four pass defenses and two fumble recoveries…Made at least seven tackles in 11 games…Made seven tackles (four solo), along with his first career interception as he picked off QB Matthew Stafford in the season-opening 45-27 win vs. Detroit, Sept. 13...Led the team with 14 tackles (11 solo) at Philadelphia, Sept. 20, and made a key play when he intercepted a Kevin Kolb pass in the third quarter that led to a Saints touchdown…Had his hand in his third turnover of the season, recovering a fumble to set up a Saints touchdown to go along with seven tackles (four solo) vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 18... Made eight solo tackles from his starting WLB spot and recovered a fumble which led to a Saints touchdown in the victory at Miami, Oct. 25…Made nine tackles (seven solo) with a pass defense at St. Louis, Nov. 15, crossing the 500-

tackle plateau for his career in the victory…Made seven tackles (five solo) vs. Dallas, Dec. 19, crossing 100 tackles for the season for the third time in his career…Missed his first games in over two years, sitting out against Tampa Bay and Carolina after suffering a concussion against Dallas…Returned to action for the NFC Divisional Playoff game against Arizona and led the team with eight tackles (six solo), adding a pass defense…Tied for the team-lead with 12 tackles (nine solo) in the NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota…Led the linebacking crew with nine tackles (seven solo) and added a pair of pass defenses in the Super Bowl XLIV victory over Indianapolis. 2008 – Started 16 games at weakside linebacker, registering 145 tackles (79 solo) to rank second on the team…Also had eight pass defenses, a forced fumble and a pair of sacks…Had 10 or more tackles in six games…Posted five tackles, tipped away a pass and forced a fumble near the goal line to stop a scoring opportunity for San Francisco, Sept. 28…Notched 11 tackles (8 solo) and deflected two passes vs. San Diego, his second-straight game with double-digit stops…Posted 14 tackles vs. Green Bay, Nov. 14, 11 and a sack the following week at Tampa Bay, and a career-high 15 (10 solo) vs. Atlanta, Dec. 7…Recorded six tackles (three solo), a sack and deflected a pass vs. Carolina, Dec. 28. 2007 – Played in 14 games, all starts, missing two (vs. Jacksonville, Nov. 4 and vs. St. Louis, Nov. 11) with a hamstring injury…Had six or more stops in all but three contests…Recorded 96 tackles (56 solo) to tie for third on the team…Added a pass defense, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a tackle for a loss…Tied for team-high with eight tackles, including notching 200th career tackle, at Tampa Bay, Sept. 16…Registered five tackles before leaving the game with a hamstring injury at San Francisco, Oct. 28…Injury forced him to the inactive list for the next two games…Returned to starting lineup at Houston, Nov. 18 and had seven stops (five solo) and a special teams tackle…Posted 12 tackles (six solo) vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 2…Dec. 16 vs. Arizona had seven stops and picked up a fumble, returning it 26 yards to set up a touchdown…At Chicago, Dec. 30, notched 11 tackles (six solo) and a forced fumble. 2006 – Acquired in a trade with Dallas for a conditional draft pick during training camp and went on to become one of the club's most productive defenders…Played in every contest, starting 15 at WLB, and led team with 77 solo stops, and his 117 total tackles only trailed LB

NFL CAREER – The 2009 addition of Sharper strengthened the secondary by bringing a proven performer with playmaking ability, leadership skills and a wealth of experience. In his first season in New Orleans, the 13-year NFL veteran backed up this reputation, tying for first in the league with a career-high tying nine interceptions for an NFL single-season record 376 yards. A career-high three of the picks were returned for touchdowns to tie for the league lead as he was voted a Pro Bowl starter. Sharper - who leads all active NFL players and is tied for sixth all-time with 63 interceptions in the regular season - has been voted to the Pro Bowl five times and scored 13 career defensive touchdowns. He has posted at least four picks nine of the past ten seasons, stealing nine passes three times. Named a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team (2000-09), Sharper has played in 197 contests, with 181 starts, and also seen action in 13 playoff games, starting ten. He spent his first eight years with Green Bay - a stretch where the Packers claimed four division titles - before joining Minnesota in 2005. Sharper has returned 11 interceptions for touchdowns, a total that is ranked second in NFL history along with his 1,412 return yards. A second-round pick by Green Bay in 1997, Sharper has posted 75 or more tackles 11 times.

NFL EXPERIENCE: 7

DE

NFL CAREER – A true impact player on the Saints' defense, Smith has been one of the club's top performers since being drafted 18th overall in the 2004 NFL Draft and has evolved into one of the top linemen in franchise history. Since he joined the team, no Saint has had more than his 49½ sacks and his 13 QB drops in 2009 were the most by a New Orleans defender since LB Charlie

Clemons in 2001. He now ranks seventh on the club's all-time sacks list and needs just 3 1/2 in 2010 to vault into fourth place. Also a disruptive force against the run, the Pro Bowl selection in 2006 has only been a full-time starter for the last four seasons, yet has caused 16 fumbles in his career and recovered six. Smith sets the tone for the entire unit with his rugged play and intensity. Though often double-teamed he notched 77 stops last season, leading the defensive line for the second consecutive season - pacing the defensive front and posting a career-best 13 sacks while starting all 16 contests despite for the third straight year. Smith has only missed two games in his career, playing in 94 and opening 75, and has posted 419 tackles.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Agreed to terms on a six-year contract extension, 7/11/08; Signed to six-year contract, 7/31/04; Selected in the first-round (18th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft, 4/24/04.

HONORS – 2006: Pro Bowl; 2004: Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie.

2009 – Started all 16 games at right defensive end and posted a career-high 13 sacks to rank second in the NFC, adding 77 tackles (42 solo) with his first career interception, four pass defenses and three forced fumbles…Notched 10 tackles, a forced fumble and another interception in three postseason starts as well… Helped lead a dominating defensive performance at Buffalo, Sept. 27, as he sacked QB Trent Edwards among his six tackles and also notched his first career interception as grabbed a tipped pass in the 27-7 victory…Had a second consecutive dominant game the next week vs. the N.Y. Jets, notching 1 1/2 sacks of QB Mark Sanchez, stripping the ball on the first leading to Remi Ayodele recovering the fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. Tallied six tackles on the day… Made five tackles from his starting defensive end spot vs. the N.Y. Giants, Oct. 18, and drew a holding penalty that nullified a New York touchdown pass and forced a field goal…Vs. Atlanta Nov. 2, matched a career-high with two sacks of QB Matt Ryan as he posted his seventh career multi-sack performance, recording four tackles with an additional pass defense on another near-sack…Recorded his second straight multi-sack game vs. Carolina Nov. 8, dropping QB Jake Delhomme twice and stripped the ball on one of the sacks along with making a total of five tackles…Made seven tackles from his starting DE spot with a forced fumble and a three-yard sack of QB Marc Bulger at St. Louis, Nov. 15…Made six tackles at Tampa Bay, Nov. 22, recording an eight-yard sack of QB Josh Freeman, marking the fourth consecutive game he recorded a sack, the longest such streak of his career…Wrapped up a dominant month of November with his fifth consecutive game where he posted at least one sack, recording 1 1/2 sacks - splitting a sack of QB Tom Brady with Charles Grant and later dropping QB Brian Hoyer - among his four tackles in the win over New England, Nov. 30…Posted six tackles vs. Dallas Dec. 19, with a pair of sacks of QB Tony Romo to establish a new career-high with 12 on the season…Recorded a season-best nine tackles vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 27, with a three-yard sack of QB Josh Freeman…Made an impact from his starting defensive end spot in the NFC Divisional Playoff against Arizona, making one tackle and intercepting a Kurt Warner pass that led to a New Orleans touchdown…Played nearly every snap in

NFL CAREER – Thomas has been an exceptional find for the Saints - initially signed as an undrafted free agent in 2007, he earned a roster spot as a rookie as a special teams ace and has since evolved into a significant cog in the club's offensive attack as an equally versatile threat in the backfield as a runner, receiver and blocker. In 41 games over three seasons with 12 starts, Thomas has carried 328 times for 1,670 yards (5.1 avg) with 16 touchdowns and added 87 receptions for 737 yards with six touchdowns. He's ranked third in club history with 5.1 yards per carry. In 2009, he was New Orleans' leading rusher for the second consecutive season, carrying 147 times for 793 yards (5.4 avg.), with six touchdowns and 39 catches for 302 yards with two touchdowns, to lead the Saints with 1,095 total yards from scrimmage.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS – Re-signed to a one-year contract (RFA), 6/15/10; Signed a three-year contract 4/30/07 as an undrafted free agent.

HONORS – 2008: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14).

2009 – Appeared in 14 games with six starts and for second straight season, led team in rushing with 147 carries for 793 yards (5.4 avg.), with six touchdowns and finished sixth in receiving with 39 catches for 302 yards (7.7 avg.) and two TDs…Rushing average ranked fourth in NFL and was second-best single season total in club history…Led team with 1,095 total yards from scrimmage…Thomas (39) and Reggie Bush (47 receptions) combined for the third-most receptions of an NFL backfield duo in 2009…Led Saints in rushing in the postseason with 36 carries for 143 yards (4.0 avg) with one TD to go with 12 receptions for 111 yards with two TDs, leading NFL backs in postseason receptions and tying for second with three total TDs. Thomas' team-high postseason 254 yards from scrimmage was the sixth-highest total by an undrafted player in NFL history…After missing season opener and seeing limited action in the second game of the season recovering from a training camp knee injury, Thomas sprung into action in the second half at Buffalo, Sept. 27 and ran for a career-best 126 yards on 14 carries with a pair of fourth-quarter TD rushes of 34 and 19 yards, marking his fifth career multi-TD game…Again a second half workhorse vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 4, as he churned out 81 of his 86 rushing yards in the second half and scored the Saints' final TD, while also catching four passes for 46 yards, including a career-long 36-yard gain on a screen …For the third consecutive week, Thomas led the Saints in rushing, carrying 15 times for 72 yards vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 18…Scored two TDs for the sixth time in his career, as he posted

100 total yards from scrimmage, rushing for 91 yards on 14 carries with a 22-yard TD and two grabs for nine yards with a one-yard TD vs. Atlanta, Nov. 2…Had 81 total yards from scrimmage as he led Saints in rushing with 13 carries for 50 yards with a ten-yard TD and also had five receptions for 31 yards vs. Carolina, Nov. 8…Rushed for 92 yards on 11 carries to go with three catches for 11 yards at Tampa Bay, Nov. 22…Vs. New England, Nov. 30, led the Saints in rushing with 11 carries for 64 yards, while adding three receptions for 23 yards with an 18-yard TD off a screen…Led Saints with 100 total yards from scrimmage as he carried 13 times for 47 yards and had six receptions for 53 yards at Atlanta, Dec. 13…Surpassed 1,000 total yards from scrimmage for first time, carrying six times for 20 yards and making five catches for 50 yards vs. Dallas, Dec. 19…Carried 13 times for 52 yards and had four receptions for 18 yards in first half vs. Tampa Bay, Dec. 22, before departing with bruised ribs…Inactive

For the second consecutive year, Thomas was the club's leading rusher in all categories with 147 carries for 793 yards (5.4 avg.), with six touchdowns and 39 receptions for 301 yards and two touchdown grabs. His rushing average was ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-best single season total in franchise history. Thomas possesses two of the top five yards per carry averages in club record books.

with rib injury at Carolina, Jan. 3…In NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Arizona, carried 13 times for 52 yards along with making four catches for 18 yards…In NFC Championship, led the Saints in rushing with 14 carries for 61 yards with one TD and added two receptions for 38 yards, all 38 on a screen where he dodged Viking defenders all the way to the end zone. Saved more heroics for the game-winning field goal drive in overtime, where he set up the drive with a 40-yard kickoff return and converted on a key fourth-and-one situation with a two-yard dive over the offensive line. Thomas became only the ninth undrafted player since the merger to score two TDs in a postseason contest…In Super Bowl XLIV, led Saints with 85 total yards from scrimmage on nine rushes for 30 yards and six receptions for 55 yards, including a third quarter 16-yard TD. 2008 – Led club in rushing with 625 yards on 129 carries (4.8 avg.) with nine TDs, finished seventh with 31 catches for 284 yards (9.2 avg.) and three TDs and led team with 31 kickoff returns for 793 yards (25.6 avg.)…Also led the team in scoring with 72 points…Played in 15 games, with five starts, inactive for season finale with back and wrist injuries…Rushed for 475 yards and six touchdowns, had three TD receptions and added an 88-yard kickoff return in his final six contests…Scored a touchdown in six straight games (11/16-12/21), tying a team record held by Dalton Hilliard, who reached the milestone twice…At Denver, Sept. 21, reached end zone on runs of five and 10 yards…Top kick return day of year came vs. Minnesota, with five for 168 yards, including a 56-yarder…Emerged as club's top backfield threat at Kansas City, with 16 carries for 88 yards and a TD, and four catches for 56 yards, including a 24-yard catch-and-run…Nov. 24 vs. Green Bay, had 87 yards on 15 attempts with two TDs and hauled in three passes for 34 yards…Scored on a 20-yard TD catch at Tampa Bay and added 34 rushing yards, Thomas tied a team record in 2008 by scoring a touchdown in six straight games, equaling a record reached twice by Dalton Hilliard.

In the 2007 finale, Thomas became the first Saints' player - and only the second rookie in NFL history - to gain over 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same contest. He had 105 yards rushing on 20 carries and 12 catches for 121 yards at Chicago. It was the first start of his NFL career.

Nov. 30…Posted Saints' lone 100-yard performance of the season with 102 on 16 carries with a TD vs. Atlanta, Dec. 7. Added a seven-yard TD catch and an 88-yard kickoff return, and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week…At Chicago, Dec. 11, had a season-high 22 carries for 87 yards, including a 42-yard burst for a TD, and added seven catches for 59 yards and a TD. His 146 yards of offense were a season-high, and he added three kickoff returns for 63 yards… Posted 77 yards on 13 attempts with a TD at Detroit, Dec. 21. Performance included a 29-yard run, and he added three grabs for 26 yards. Tied team record by scoring a touchdown for his sixth straight game, but back and wrist injuries kept him on inactive list for finale. 2007 – One of only two rookie free agents to make opening day roster…Played in 12 games with one start, inactive for four games…Rushed for 252 yards on 52 attempts (4.8 avg.) with a touchdown, caught 17 passes for 151 yards and a TD, returned 36 kickoffs for 865 yards (24.0 avg.) and made five special teams tackles…Also scored on special teams fumble recovery and added a two-point conversion run…Inactive for first three games…Made NFL debut Oct. 7 vs. Carolina, averaging 25 yards on four kickoff returns and also had a carry for three yards…Scored a touchdown in just the his second career game at Seattle, Oct. 14, scooping up a loose ball on a botched punt snap and carrying it five yards into the end zone to give the Saints a 7-0 lead less than three minutes into a 28-17 victory…Against Atlanta Oct. 21, scored his first career offensive touchdown on a 24-yard draw and totaled two rushes for 26 yards…Tied a team record with eight kick returns against St. Louis, Nov. 11, totaling 233 yards (second-highest single-game total in team history) to average 29.1 yards, with a season-best 64-yard return…Inactive Dec. 2 vs. Tampa Bay with bruised kidney suffered the previous week at Carolina…Playing in hometown of Chicago, Dec. 30, made first career start and turned in one of the finest statistical performances by Saints RB in club history. Posted 20 carries for 105 yards and caught 12 passes 121 yards and an 11-yard TD, becoming the first player in team annals to gain more than 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game. His 226 total yards from scrimmage marked the third-highest total in club history. Also ran for a two-point conversion following his fourth quarter TD catch, gained 16 first downs on his 32 touches and stripped the ball from CB Charles Tillman on an interception return that Lance Moore recovered, setting up a Saints field goal just before halftime.

COLLEGE – Played 40 games at Illinois and ranks sixth in school's history with 2,545 rushing yards…Averaged 5.6 yards per carry over his career and ran for 20 TDs…Also caught 57 passes for 411 yards and three TDs…Led team in rushing in each of the final three seasons, and had eight 100-yard games… Had a school-record 1,495 career kickoff return yards…Averaged 24.1 yards as a kick returner for his career including a 99-yard return for a TD…Second in school history with 4,451 all-purpose yards…Majored in sports management.

Vilma has made a significant impact in the middle of the Saints defense since joining the club in 2008, leading the team in tackles each season. A leader on and off the field, he's has been recognized by teammates as the club's winner of the Ed Block Courage Award in 2008 and was voted the defensive team captain in 2009.

Last season he led the Saints in stops for the second consecutive season with 130 tackles (102 solo), two sacks, three interceptions and eight passes defensed. He was the first Saints linebacker to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Mark Fields after the 2000 season.

His memorable moments in 2009 were many. Among his top performances:

- Recorded nine tackles vs. Atlanta, but his biggest play came when he tipped a pass at the New Orleans one-yard line with the Saints holding a four point lead. The ball was picked off by CB Tracy Porter and returned 18 yards to lead to a TD and give the Saints an 11-point cushion.
- Nine tackles and a late fourth quarter interception at Washington that kept the Redskins from scoring and ensured the game would go to overtime.
- His eight-tackle day at Atlanta led the team. The biggest plays came in the fourth quarter with an interception and a tackle of Falcons RB Jason Snelling short of the first down marker on a critical fourth-and-two play, one yard short, to ensure a 26-23 win.
- In the NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota, made three big plays; intercepting QB Brett Favre, forcing a fumble by RB Adrian Peterson and later recovering another fumble by WR Bernard Berrian
- In Super Bowl XLIV, made eight tackles, including one where he stuffed Colts RB Joseph Addai for a three-yard loss and broke up a deep pass in the fourth quarter on a critical third-and-11 play.

SAINTS: 45 LIONS: 27
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. – 9/13/09
ATTENDANCE: 69,719 TIME: 3:31

The Saints, behind six touchdown passes by QB Drew Brees (including a pair to TE Jeremy Shockey) to set a career-high and tie a club record, the impressive debut of an opportunistic defense that recorded three interceptions and their highest point total in club history on a kickoff weekend, defeated the visiting Detroit Lions, 45-27 in the 2009 season opener at the Superdome.

The high-powered New Orleans offense set the tone for what would become their most successful season with an opening drive that resulted in a 7-0 lead with a nine-yard touchdown pass from Brees to WR Marques Colston. The Saints extended their first quarter lead to 14-0 when Brees found WR Robert Meachem for a 39-yard scoring throw before the Lions got on the board with a 47-yard field goal by K Jason Hanson.

Following a long punt return at the end of the first quarter, Lions RB Kevin Smith scored on a four-yard run at the start of the second period to bring Detroit to within four points, but the Saints would go into halftime with a 28-10 lead as Shockey landed in the end zone for the first time as a Saint with scoring grabs of one- and 15 yards.

GAMENOTES

The Saints won their second consecutive home opener for the fourth time in club history.

In his Saints debut, S Darren Sharper paced the defense with five tackles and two interceptions.

Brees' touchdown pass total was one shy of the NFL record of seven and the highest in league history on kickoff weekend. It tied the club record originally set by Billy Kilmer at St. Louis on Nov. 2, 1969.

WR Devery Henderson led the Saints in receiving with five catches for 103 yards, including a 58-yard bomb from Brees for a touchdown.

The Saints would not lead by less than 11 again as Brees threw scoring passes to WR Devery Henderson and FB Heath Evans to cap his total at six, while controlling the clock behind RB Mike Bell's career-high 143 rushing yards. S Darren Sharper in his Saints debut recorded two picks, while LB Scott Shanle added one.

SAINTS: 48 EAGLES: 22
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD
PHILADELPHIA, PA. – 9/20/09
ATTENDANCE: 69,144 TIME: 3:19

The Saints improved to 2-0 in an impressive road victory in Philadelphia, as they scored at least 40 points in two consecutive games for the first time in franchise history. They broke the game open with 17 unanswered points in the second and third quarters.

QB Drew Brees led the offense, completing 25 of 34 passes for 311 yards and three TDs for a 96.9 rating, while the defense and special teams forced four turnovers.

The Saints scored first on the game's opening possession when Brees found WR Marques Colston in the end zone for a 15-yard TD. The Eagles struck back quickly to tie the score with a 71-yard pass play from QB Kevin Kolb to WR DeSean Jackson. New Orleans left the first quarter with a 10-7 lead on a 23-yard John Carney field goal.

Brees was intercepted early in the second quarter, but the defense held the Eagles to a field goal and the Saints took a 17-10 lead again on Brees' second TD to Colston. Following a Philadelphia field goal, the Saints took a 17-13 lead into halftime.

On the opening kickoff of the second half, rookie CB Malcolm Jenkins forced a fumble that was recovered by S Chris Reis at the Philadelphia 22. Three plays later FB Heath Evans scored with nifty footwork on an 11-yard screen.

GAME NOTES

Brees' three TD passes increased his total to nine in his first two games, tying the NFL record for scoring passes after two contests.

With his first scoring grab of the game, Colston joined WR Lance Moore as the only two Saints to record TD receptions in five consecutive contests.

Sharper's 97-yard interception return for a score was a then career-long and also tied the club record for the longest return.

LB Scott Shanle then picked off Kolb at the Philadelphia 27, and the Saints took the short field and RB Mike Bell punched in an 11-yard touchdown, before going up by 21 on their next offensive drive when Carney booted a 25-yard field goal.

In the final quarter, the Saints outscored the Eagles 14-2, keyed by a 97-yard interception return for a TD by S Darren Sharper.

SAINTS: 27 BILLS: 7
RALPH WILSON STADIUM
ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. – 9/27/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,261 TIME: 3:05

New Orleans improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2006 as the Saints outscored Buffalo 17-0 in the fourth quarter, powered by a rushing attack that gained 222 yards and a defense that did allow the Bills offense inside the red zone.

The Saints never trailed and took their opening offensive drive for a touchdown, embarking on a methodical 10-play, 82-yard drive that culminated with RB Lynell Hamilton's first career score.

At the start of the second quarter, Buffalo tied the game when Bills P Brian Moorman threw a 25-yard touchdown pass on a fake field goal attempt The Bills wouldn't score again, as two turnovers would be forced on defense and special teams. Buffalo's first giveaway occurred in the second quarter when rookie S Malcolm Jenkins tackled Bills PR Roscoe Parrish, forcing him to cough up the ball, recovering at the Buffalo 32-yard line, which set up a John Carney field goal to give New Orleans a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Saints and Bills played a scoreless third quarter. A potential Buffalo score was averted when DE Will Smith intercepted a tipped pass at the New Orleans 23-yard line near the end of the period as part of a dominating effort where he also had six tackles and one sack.

GAME NOTES

The defense posted four sacks, allowed only 13 first downs and 154 net passing yards. Buffalo converted two of 14 third down attempts, an efficiency percentage of 14%.

RBs Reggie Bush and Pierre Thomas combined for 190 rushing yards.

As part of the defensive effort, Bills WR Terrell Owens failed to catch a pass for the first time since his rookie year in San Francisco in 1996, breaking a 185 game streak.

RB Pierre Thomas shook off a stomach virus and entered the New Orleans offensive gameplan midway through the third quarter, rushing 14 times for a career-high 126 yards with 34 and 19-yard touchdown runs in the final period, the latter one occurring with 2:03 remaining to seal the victory.

SAINTS: 24 JETS: 10
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 10/4/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,009 TIME: 2:54

The Saints returned to the Superdome after two weeks on the road and improved to 4-0 on the strength of a strong defense, a powerful running game, two defensive touchdowns and a pass rush that recorded four sacks of Jets rookie QB Mark Sanchez.

A quiet first quarter saw the 49ers take a 3-0 lead on K John Carney's 34-yard field goal on the first drive. The second quarter belonged to the New Orleans defense, as two touchdown returns would give New Orleans a 17-3 halftime advantage.

On the first play of the second period, S Darren Sharper picked off a Sanchez throw, which he returned a career-long and club record 99 yards for the TD. Towards the middle of the quarter, Sanchez was taken down by DE Will Smith, fumbled, and the ball was recovered for a touchdown by DT Remi Ayodele.

Midway through the third quarter, the Jets took advantage of a fumble by RB Reggie Bush in New Orleans territory and four plays later New York RB Thomas Jones would bring his team within seven points on a 15-yard scoring run.

However, the Saints would extend their lead by two touchdowns on a fourth quarter 11-play, 74-yard drive, which ended with RB Pierre Thomas scoring on a one-yard TD run. Thomas led the Saints in rushing with 19 carries for 86 yards and also picked up 46 yards on four receptions. Sharper would record his second pick on the Jets' next offensive drive and CB Randall Gay sealed the win with 1:47 remaining when he made his first interception as a Saint.

! GAMENOTES

The victory over the Jets gave the Saints a 6-5 series lead.

With four sacks for the second straight week, it marked the first time the Saints recorded at least four takedowns in consecutive games since 2005.

The Saints held the Jets to 244 net yards, the second straight game they held an opponent to under 250 yards, the first time this occurred since 2001.

GAME 5

SAINTS: 48 GIANTS: 27
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 10/18/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,011 TIME: 3:27

The Saints, behind Drew Brees, Marques Colston and a top ten defense, remained undefeated, handing the previously unblemished New York Giants a 48-27 defeat in front of 70,011.

The Saints took the opening kickoff and methodically marched downfield, capped by a two-yard dive into the end zone by RB Mike Bell and never looked back, racking up 493 yards of offense against the then number one ranked defense in the NFL.

Brees completed 23-of-30 passes for 369 yards and four touchdown passes, for a 156.8 passer rating, then the third-highest in club history. He completed 15 consecutive throws in the first half. His favorite target was Colston, who had eight receptions for 166 yards with one touchdown, his second-highest single game career yardage total. In his first meeting with the team that originally drafted him, TE Jeremy Shockey added four receptions for 37 yards and a score.

The Saints defense stymied the Giants' power running attack to only 84 yards on the ground and held New York QB Eli Manning to 178 yards on 14-of-31 passing and a 61.0 passer rating. With less than a minute remaining in the second quarter, Manning was sacked by S Roman Harper at the New York 25 and the ball was returned to the Giants seven by LB Scott Shanle, setting up a subsequent seven-yard touchdown run by RB Reggie Bush to give the Saints a 34-17 lead going into halftime. In the third quarter, Manning was picked off by CB Jabari Greer for a turnover that led to Colston's touchdown grab from Brees to give New Orleans a 41-17 lead.

! GAME NOTES

The Saints defense still maintained a top ten ranking after facing a Giants offense that going into the game was ranked second in the NFL, fourth rushing as they held the New York power running attack to only 84 yards.

Colston's 166 yards receiving total was the second-highest of his career.

The contest was the first time this season that the Saints had not committed a turnover.

GAME 6

SAINTS: 46 DOLPHINS: 34
LANDSHARK STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA. – 10/25/09
ATTENDANCE: 66,689 TIME: 3:36

The Saints matched their biggest comeback in franchise history when they rebounded from a 24-3 deficit with five seconds left in the first half to beat the Dolphins 46-34 and remain undefeated.

After falling behind by 21 points, New Orleans started the comeback when QB Drew Brees had a one-yard dive into the end zone near the end of the first half. It continued into the third quarter, when S Darren Sharper had a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown to move within seven.

Trailing 34-24 going into the fourth quarter, the Saints scored 22 unanswered points courtesy of an acrobatic ten-yard touchdown run by RB Reggie Bush, Brees' second rushing score, a 20-yard field goal by K John Carney and a 54-yard interception return into the end zone by CB Tracy Porter.

New Orleans rolled to 414 yards of total offense, 302 in the second half, while holding Miami to 334 yards, including only 17 on the ground in the final two quarters, while the Saints churned out 115 of their 138 rushing yards at the same time.

GAME NOTES

The win matched the Saints' biggest comeback in club history, tying their 21-point turnarounds in a 41-24 victory against Cincinnati on Dec. 20, 1987 and their 43-38 win against San Francisco on Nov. 23, 1969. No other team in NFL history preserved a perfect record this far into a season by erasing a deficit of more than 20 points.

TE Jeremy Shockey had four receptions for 104 yards. His fourth quarter 66-yard reception was a career-long and his receiving yardage total was his most as a Saint.

K John Carney became the fourth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 points, joining Morten Anderson, Gary Anderson and George Blanda. Since this game Matt Stover has also joined the 2,000 point club.

Brees overcame two early interceptions, three overall, completing 22 of 38 passes for 298 yards, one TD pass and a career-high two scoring rushes.

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/2/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,088 TIME: 3:36

Although the deficit was not the same as the prior week, the Saints rebounded from a slow start and a first quarter 14-7 Falcons lead to score 21 consecutive points to defeat Atlanta. QB Drew Brees completed 25 of 33 passes to eight different players for 308 yards, three touchdown passes and a 111.7 passer rating.

Brees wasn't alone in the offensive fireworks as other key weapons made an impact. RB Pierre Thomas picked up 100 yards of total yards from scrimmage, while scoring one touchdown apiece on the ground and through the air. WR Marques Colston added 85 yards on six grabs with one TD.

The defense also came up big with three interceptions including a second quarter 48-yard return for a touchdown by CB Jabari Greer.

New Orleans trailed, 14-7 after the first quarter, but they heated up in the second quarter when Brees found Colston for an 18-yard touchdown, RB Reggie Bush scored on a one-yard run and Greer had his TD return right before halftime.

Atlanta came within four points in the second half with a third quarter 68-yard touchdown from Falcons QB Matt Ryan to WR Roddy White and a 25-yard field goal by K Jason Elam.

! GAME NOTES

The club's 7-0 start tied for the fastest in club history with the 7-0 beginning in 1991.

The Saints defense allowed Atlanta to successfully convert only 3-of-11 (27%) third down conversion attempts.

DE Will Smith came up big with four tackles, two sacks and one pass defense.

TE Jeremy Shockey had five receptions for 72 yards, with four of the grabs resulting in a first down.

However when Thomas scored his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard screen from Brees with 5:27 remaining and then leading 35-27, S Darren Sharper picked off Ryan with three seconds left to seal the win.

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/8/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,011 TIME: 3:04

For the third consecutive week, the Saints got off to a slow start, spotting Carolina an early 14-0 lead. However by the end of the day, New Orleans rolled up over 400 yards of offense and the defense came up with two fourth quarter fumble recoveries to improve to 8-0 for the first time in franchise history.

On the second play from scrimmage, Carolina RB DeAngelo Williams broke free for a 66-yard run into the end zone. Later in the quarter QB Drew Brees was sacked by Panthers DT Tyler Brayton, fumbled and the ball was recovered by LB Jon Beason at the New Orleans 11, setting up a seven-yard touchdown run by Williams two plays later. New Orleans then got back into rhythm on offense as Brees engineered a 15-play, 74-yard drive that resulted in a 23-yard field goal by K John Carney to put the Saints on the board at the start of the second quarter.

After the clubs traded turnovers, Carolina scored a second half field goal, before the Saints cut back into the lead right before halftime with a 76 yard drive inside the two minute warning that resulted in another Carney field goal.

A ten-yard TD run by RB Pierre Thomas at the start of the third quarter pulled the Saints within four. With Carolina leading 20-13 following a field goal, a 54-yard strike from Brees to WR Robert Meachem as time expired in the quarter, tied the score.

GAME NOTES

DL Anthony Hargrove earned the first NFC Defensive Player of the Week nod of his career with four tackles, one pass defense and a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries, one for a touchdown.

WR Robert Meachem had five receptions for a team-high 98 receiving yards in the contest.

The win was the Saints' first at home against the Panthers since 2001.

New Orleans then forced Carolina to punt and the Carney kicked his third field goal on the ensuing drive to give the Saints the lead. On Carolina's next drive, QB Jake Delhomme was sacked by Smith and his fumble was recovered by DL Anthony Hargrove. Right before the two minute warning, Hargrove forced a Williams fumble, pounced on it and brought it into the end zone to secure the win.

GAME 9

SAINTS: 28 RAMS: 23
EDWARD JONES DOME
ST. LOUIS, MO. – 11/15/09
ATTENDANCE: 59,858 TIME: 3:10

Despite a furious fourth quarter Rams rally, where they rallied from an 11-point deficit and were driving for a touchdown as time expired, the Saints held on and improved to 9-0 as their nine-game winning streak tied a franchise record.

Things started slowly for the Saints as QB Drew Brees had a pass picked off by St. Louis S Oshiomogho Atogwe. The Saints defense stepped up as S Usama Young picked off Rams QB Marc Bulger in the end zone and returned it 24 yards.

RB Reggie Bush put the Saints on the scoreboard with a three-yard TD run. A 29-yard scoring pass from Bulger to Rams WR Donnie Avery tied the score but Brees found Bush on a 15-yard TD on the next possession. Rams RB Steven Jackson tied the game at 14-14 with a two-yard TD run with 55 seconds left in the half.

The Saints retook the lead for good on the second half's opening kickoff which WR Courtney Roby returned 97 yards for a touchdown. A 32-yard field goal by Rams K Josh Brown put the Rams back within four points at 21-17.

! GAME NOTES

WR Courtney Roby's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown was the first of his career and the first by a Saint since 2004.

RB Reggie Bush enjoyed his most productive game of the season with six carries for 83 yards with one TD and a 15-yard scoring reception.

In addition to his fourth quarter touchdown, Meachem also had a career-long 41-yard rush on a reverse.

On a possession that carried over into the fourth quarter, Brees found WR Robert Meachem for a 27-yard touchdown to push the New Orleans advantage to 28-17 with 12:15 remaining. Bulger found Avery for another touchdown and he led the Rams to the New Orleans 32 on their final possession before time ran out.

AT TAMPA BAY GAME 10

SAINTS: 38 BUCCANEERS: 7
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM
TAMPA, FLA. – 11/22/09
ATTENDANCE: 62,720 TIME: 3:04

The Saints improved to 10-0 with the convincing win in Tampa Bay, giving them the longest win streak in franchise history. New Orleans rebounded from an early first quarter deficit to take the lead for good near the end of the first half and kept it, compliments of strong contributions from the offense, defense and special teams.

After falling behind early 7-0, the Saints tied the score before the end of the first quarter on a four-yard touchdown connection from QB Drew Brees to WR Robert Meachem. Rookie CB Malcolm Jenkins recorded his first interception in his first career start and the Saints took the lead with a 38-yard John Carney field goal with 4:11 remaining in the first half. New Orleans headed to halftime leading 17-7 when Brees found Meachem for a six-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

At the start of the third quarter, the Saints' Anthony Hargrove picked up a Josh Freeman fumble to give the Saints the ball. Three plays later, Brees found TE David Thomas for an 11-yard touchdown. Thomas had four receptions for 66 yards.

On Carolina's next possession, LB Jonathan Vilma intercepted Freeman and returned it to the New Orleans, 45, the Saints marched 55 yards with RB Mike Bell rushing for a three-yard TD.

! GAME NOTES

The Saints forced four turnovers, with S Chris Reis, CB Malcolm Jenkins and LB Jonathan Vilma each intercepting a pass and DL Anthony Hargrove recovering a fumble that was caused by LB Scott Fujita. The turnovers led to 17 points.

The 31 point margin of victory in the win was tied for the most in the Saints-Buccaneers series with a 38-7 win at the Superdome on October 19, 1986.

Rookie P Thomas Morstead would be named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week as he had a 48.8 average on four punts, with two inside the five-yard line and six of his seven kickoffs reached the end zone, three for touchbacks.

New Orleans forced Tampa Bay to punt on the next possession. Leading to a 13-play, 82-yard drive for the Saints that Bell finished with a one-yard touchdown run up the middle to put New Orleans ahead 38-7 with 10:12 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Saints would not attempt another pass in the remainder of the contest. Brees finished the game 19 of 29 for 187 yards (118.0 passer rating), with three TDs.

VS.
NEW ENGLAND GAME 11

SAINTS: 38 PATRIOTS: 17
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/30/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,768 TIME: 2:54

The Saints ran their club record win streak to 11 games with an impressive effort in a primetime showdown with New England. New Orleans averaged a franchise record 9.6 yards per an offensive play in a performance highlighted by big plays by the Saints offense, while a ferocious pass rush and outstanding effort by the defensive backfield harassed the Patriots.

The Patriots took the lead on their first possession when K John Carney kicked a 30-yard field goal. New England took a 7-3 edge with a four-yard touchdown run by RB Laurence Maroney on their next possession. Although the Patriots left the quarter with the lead, New Orleans had the ball back after CB Mike McKenzie recorded an interception in his 2009 debut.

The pick led to an 18-yard touchdown pass on a screen from QB Drew Brees to RB Pierre Thomas at the start of the second quarter. After forcing New England to punt, Brees immediately struck WR Devery Henderson for a 75-yard touchdown. A New England field goal put the Saints lead back at 17-10, but on New England's next possession Brees completed a 38-yard scoring pass to WR Robert Meachem.

New England would get to within seven again at 24-17 on a two-yard touchdown run by Maroney, but the Saints would score the final 14 points of the contest on scoring grabs by TE Darnell Dinkins (two yards) and WR Marques Colston (20 yards). S Darren Sharper also snuffed out another New England possession with a 38-yard interception return of Patriots QB Tom Brady.

! GAME NOTES

QB Drew Brees earned his third NFC Offensive Player of the Week honor, completing 18 of 23 for 371 yards with five touchdown passes for a career-high rating of 158.3, the second perfect rating performance in club history.

WRs Marques Colston (121) and Devery Henderson (116) were the first Saints to have 100 yards receiving in the same contest since the same duo did so at Tampa Bay on November 5, 2006.

CB Mike McKenzie's interception came after he was just added to the roster that week and had not seen action in a game in over a year.

DE Will Smith had four tackles and 1.5 sacks, capping a month where he recorded 7.5 takedowns, the highest total in the NFL in November.

SAINTS: 33 REDSKINS: 30 (OT)
FEDEX FIELD
LANDOVER, MD. – 12/6/09
ATTENDANCE: 84,520 TIME: 3:48

The Saints rebounded from three ten point deficits, made a dramatic fourth quarter comeback, then were powered by K Garrett Hartley's 18-yard field goal in overtime that improved them to 12-0 and clinched the NFC South title for the first time since 2006.

QB Drew Brees completed 35 of 49 passes for 419 yards with two touchdowns, one interception and a 102.3 rating. WR Robert Meachem had eight receptions for 142 yards and one touchdown, scoring a second on an adept play following an interception.

After the Saints punted on their first possession the Redskins struck first when QB Jason Campbell capped a 94-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass to TE Fred Davis. The Redskins took a 10-0 lead out of the first quarter following a field goal.

New Orleans got on the scoreboard with a 34-yard field goal by Hartley. After forcing Washington to punt, the Saints got the ball back and tied the score on a 40-yard scoring pass from Brees to WR Marques Colston. Campbell gave the Redskins the lead back on a five-yard scoring pass to WR Devin Thomas. Late in the second quarter, Brees threw an interception to Washington S Kareem Moore, but Meachem stripped the ball on the return and brought it 44 yards into the end zone to tie the score.

After Washington scored the first ten third quarter points, the Saints drove 64 yards on ten plays to set up a 27-yard Hartley field goal. A fourth quarter Washington field goal put them up by ten, but Hartley kicked a 28-yarder. With less than two minutes left, new life was breathed into the Saints when Redskins K Shawn Suisham missed a 23-yard field goal attempt. Brees found Meachem for a 53-yard touchdown to tie the score.

GAME NOTES

WR Robert Meachem became the 16th Saint to score three touchdowns in a game, the first since 2006, with two scoring grabs and a touchdown off a fumble he stripped on an interception return. He set career-highs with eight receptions for 142 yards.

LB Jonathan Vilma's fourth quarter interception gave the Saints another scoring opportunity before overtime. He also chipped in nine tackles.

The Saints defense allowed the Redskins to score touchdowns on only three-of-seven trips inside the red zone.

Washington won the overtime toss and elected to receive. Redskins FB Mike Sellers fumbled on a reception at their 39-yard line which New Orleans picked up. The Saints advanced to the Washington one before Hartley kicked the game winner.

SAINTS: 26 FALCONS: 23
GEORGIA DOME
ATLANTA, GA. – 12/13/09
ATTENDANCE: 68,390 TIME: 2:49

In a contest with similarities to the first game played at the Superdome, New Orleans rallied from a first quarter deficit to sweep the 2009 series with a 26-23 win as the 13-0 Saints set a club single season record for victories.

The Saints and Falcons traded field goals on the first two possessions. Atlanta K Matt Bryant booted a 30-yarder near the end of the first quarter to give Atlanta a 6-3 lead.

New Orleans found the end zone twice in the second quarter on scoring passes from QB Drew Brees to RB Reggie Bush and WR Marques Colston. Bryant's 27-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter cut the Saints' lead to 16-9 at halftime.

New Orleans extended their lead to 23-9 in the third quarter on a 21-yard scoring pass from Brees to Bush, but the Falcons immediately responded when QB Chris Redman found WR Michael Jenkins for a 50-yard touchdown to make the score 23-16 going into the fourth quarter.

Falcons RB Jason Snelling ran in a four-yard touchdown with just under 13 minutes left to tie the score. Brees then led a 16-play, 63-yard drive that ended with a 38-yard field goal by K Garrett Hartley to give the Saints the final lead. The Falcons did not go away quietly though as LB Jonathan Vilma snuffed out a Falcons scoring drive with an interception on the next possession and later stopped Snelling for only a one-yard gain on a key fourth-and-two play with less than two minutes remaining to clinch the victory.

! GAME NOTES

RB Pierre Thomas had 13 carries for 47 yards and six receptions for 53 yards as he reached the century mark in total yards from scrimmage.

With his third touchdown pass, a screen to RB Reggie Bush where he scampered 21 yard into the end zone, QB Drew Brees tied Aaron Brooks for first place on the club's all-time list with his 120th scoring throw as a Saint. The touchdown throw was his 200th overall.

LB Jonathan Vilma's fourth quarter interception and 11-yard return to stop a potential Atlanta scoring drive was his third pick of the season, tying a career-best he set as a rookie in 2004 with the New York Jets.

The win was the seventh victory of 2009 away from home, tying a franchise record for the most road wins in a season that was set in 2000.

GAME 14

COWBOYS: 24 SAINTS: 17
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 12/19/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,213 TIME: 3:08

Playing in their third nationally-televised, primetime game of the year, the Saints saw their bid for an undefeated season come to an end at the hands of the Cowboys in a 24-17 Saturday night game.

The Saints got off to a slow start as the Cowboys jumped ahead 14-0 in the first quarter. New Orleans finally got on the board in the second quarter when K Garrett Hartley kicked a 34-yard field goal. However an interception and a fumble recovery by Dallas halted a pair of New Orleans drives inside the two minute warning. The fumble recovery by Dallas set up a 44-yard field goal by K Nick Folk for the Cowboys to take a 17-3 lead into halftime.

The Cowboys added to their lead on the first drive of the second half, which ended with RB Marion Barber scoring on a two-yard touchdown run.

The Saints would rally in the fourth quarter though as RB Mike Bell scored on a one-yard touchdown and QB Drew Brees found WR Lance Moore for a seven-yard touchdown with eight minutes remaining and cut Dallas' lead to 24-17. The Saints then received a huge break when Folk missed a chip-shot 24-yard field goal attempt with just over two minutes left that gave New Orleans, who didn't have any timeouts remaining, new life and a final opportunity to tie the game.

However, the Dallas pass rush extinguished the Saints' comeback chances when Cowboys DE DeMarcus Ware sacked and stripped Brees of the football with ten seconds left in the game.

GAME NOTES

With his touchdown pass to WR Lance Moore, Brees recorded his 121st scoring throw as a Saint, surpassing Aaron Brooks to make him the franchise's all-time record holder.

Brees also surpassed the 4,000 yards passing mark for the fourth consecutive season, making him only the second NFL player to ever do so, joining Colts QB Peyton Manning.

LB Jonathan Vilma recorded a season-high 15 tackles, one sack and a pass defense.

GAME 15

BUCCANEERS: 20 SAINTS: 17 (OT)
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. – 12/27/09
ATTENDANCE: 70,021 TIME: 3:04

Despite jumping out to a 17-0 first half lead, the Saints dropped their second game in a row when the visiting Buccaneers scored 14 unanswered points in the second half and the contest went to overtime following a 37-yard missed field goal attempt by K Garrett Hartley in the waning seconds of regulation. The Bucs won the overtime coin toss and drove 48 yards to win on a 47-yard field goal by K Connor Barth.

RB Pierre Thomas opened the scoring on an eight-yard touchdown run. QB Drew Brees doubled the lead with a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Robert Meachem on a drive that was started when S Darren Sharper ended a Tampa Bay possession inside Saints territory with a 21-yard interception return, setting an NFL single season record for interception return yardage with 376.

The Saints extended their second quarter lead to 17-0 when Hartley booted a 28-yard field goal. The Buccaneers narrowed the halftime margin to 17-3 as Barth kicked a 34-yard field goal as time expired.

Following a scoreless third quarter, the Buccaneers scored their first touchdown at the start of the fourth period when RB Carnell Williams had a 23-yard run into the end zone. In addition the Saints allowed a 77-yard punt return for a touchdown by Tampa Bay WR Michael Spurlock in the fourth quarter that tied the game at 17 apiece. The Saints got the ball back and drove to the Tampa Bay 19 yard line with nine seconds left, but Hartley's miss led to overtime.

GAME NOTES

QB Drew Brees completed a club record 19 straight passes, a streak that came to an end just before the end of regulation.

In addition to setting the NFL single season record interception return yardage (376) with his 21-yard return, the pick was the 63rd of his career, tying him for sixth on the NFL all-time list with former great Ronnie Lott.

WR Marques Colston led the Saints in receiving with eight receptions for 77 yards.

AT CAROLINA — GAME 16

PANTHERS: 23 SAINTS: 10
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM
CHARLOTTE, N.C. – 1/3/10
ATTENDANCE: 73,047 TIME: 2:58

With a large number of the Saints' starters watching from the sidelines for most of the contest because the club had already clinched the NFC's number one seed in the playoffs, the Saints ended their regular season with their third consecutive loss in the 2009 finale.

QB Drew Brees did not play in a contest for the first time as a Saint, as fellow starters such as DT Sedrick Ellis, LB Scott Shanle, S Darren Sharper, TE Jeremy Shockey, RB Pierre Thomas and LB Jonathan Vilma also sat out.

On the second play from scrimmage of the game, Carolina RB Jonathan Stewart rushed 67 yards for a touchdown in the only scoring of the first quarter.

New Orleans finally got on the scoreboard in the second quarter on a 35-yard field goal from K Garrett Hartley with 11:13 remaining in the period. With 13 seconds left in the first half, Carolina QB Matt Moore connected with Panthers WR Dwayne Jarrett for a 30-yard touchdown. The ensuing kickoff return was fumbled by WR Courtney Roby and recovered by Carolina at the New Orleans 23, setting up a 41-yard field goal by K John Kasay as time expired in the half to give the Panthers a 17-3 lead.

GAMENOTES

In his first start since the 2006 season, QB Mark Brunell completed 15 of 29 passes for 102 yards.

The Saints finished the regular season with a league-high and club-record 510 points, the ninth-highest single season point total in NFL history.

The Panthers would score two more field goals in the third quarter before New Orleans got their first touchdown on a one-yard run by RB Lynell Hamilton, the final points in a game which would have a scoreless fourth quarter. Serving as the club's feature back in the contest, Hamilton rushed ten times for 48 yards and had three receptions for 38 yards.

SAINTS: 45 CARDINALS: 14
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. – 1/16/10
ATTENDANCE: 70,149 TIME: 3:03

The Saints punched a ticket to their second NFC Championship game appearance in four years and overcame a 70-yard rushing touchdown by Arizona on the first play of the game to throttle the Cardinals 45-14. The victory would allow the Saints to host their first NFC Championship in franchise history against the Minnesota Vikings inside the Louisiana Superdome the following Sunday.

On the first play from scrimmage of the contest, Arizona RB Tim Hightower found a hole and rushed 70 yards for a touchdown to give the Cardinals an initial 7-0 lead. The New Orleans defense would settle down after that initial score, as they only allowed 31 yards on the ground in the remaininder of the contest.

NFL PLAYOFFS 2009
★ DIVISIONAL ★

After that opening run for a score to give Arizona the initial lead of the contest, it was all Saints for the remainder of the first quarter as New Orleans scored three touchdowns. RB Lynell Hamilton got into the end zone on a one-yard run on New Orleans' first possession of the game. On Arizona's next offensive play, CB Randall Gay stripped the ball from Arizona WR Jerheme Urban following a reception and it was recovered by S Darren Sharper. Four plays later, QB Drew Brees fired off a 17-yard touchdown pass to TE Jeremy Shockey. Later in the quarter, RB Reggie Bush had a spectacular 46-yard touchdown run down the field to give the Saints a two-touchdown lead.

Arizona got back within seven points of New Orleans towards the middle of the second quarter, when RB Chris "Beanie" Wells scored on a four-yard run. However, the Saints would take advantage of their next possession and Brees connected with WR Devery Henderson on a 44-yard bomb on a flea flicker play. When Arizona got the ball back, QB Kurt Warner threw an interception that ended up in the hands of DE Will Smith on a play where he faced a ferocious pass rush which would force him out of the game for the remainder of the first half, with Matt Leinhart playing in substitute. Brees would find WR Marques Colston for a two-yard touchdown on the next drive with 1:10 remaining in the quarter, to give the Saints a 35-14 lead going into the half.

The Saints increased their lead on their second possession of the third quarter when K Garrett Hartley successfully booted a 43-yard field goal. However, the Saints would get back on the scoreboard less than two minutes later when Bush scored his second touchdown of the game on an 83-yard punt reutrn for the final points in the contest as the two clubs played to a scoreless fourth quarter as the Saints would advance to within one game of their first Super Bowl appearance for the second time in four years.

GAME NOTES

The Saints ran up 418 yards of total offense to the Cardinals' 359.

QB Drew Brees completed 23 of 32 passes for 247 yards, three touchdown throws and a 125.4 passer rating, setting postseason career-highs in scoring throws and efficiency.

RB Reggie Bush racked up 217 all purpose yards in the win. Carrying five times for 84 yards, he set a franchise postseason record with a 46-yard touchdown run. He also caught four passes for 24 yards and gained 109 yards on three punt returns, with his 83-yard run back for a TD, being the third longest punt return in NFL postseason history. Bush became only the second player in NFL history-and the first-in more than 60 years - to produce touchdowns on a rushing play and a punt return in a postseason game. He was also only the second player in NFL postseason history to score touchdowns of 80-or-more yards and 40-or-more yards in the same game.

WR Marques Colston led the Saints with six catches for 83 yards with one touchdown and WR Devery Henderson had four grabs for 80 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown on a flea flicker play.

The Saints held a 36:27-23:33 advantage in time of possession, and finished with 418 net yards (171 rushing, 247 passing). New Orleans forced the Cardinals to punt six times.

DE Will Smith had one solo tackle and a five yard interception return. DT Sedrick Ellis had one solo tackle and New Orleans' only sack of the postseason.

LB Scott Shanle led the Saints with eight tackles (six solo).

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. – 1/24/10
ATTENDANCE: 71,276 TIME: 3:34

K Garrett Hartley hit a 40-yard field goal straight through the uprights in overtime to give the Saints a 31-28 victory and trip to Super Bowl XLIV, the franchise's first trip to the NFL's championship game.

The Vikings took an early 7-0 lead when they marched 80 yards in ten plays, capped off by a 19-yard touchdown run by RB Adrian Peterson. The Saints tied the score on the next drive as QB Drew Brees threw a screen to RB Pierre Thomas which he advanced 38 yards for the touchdown. On the following drive, the Vikings took the lead back with a 14-7 edge when QB Brett Favre completed a five-yard touchdown to WR Sidney Rice.

On their first drive of the second quarter, the Saints tied the score at 14-14 when Brees connected with WR Devery Henderson for a nine-yard touchdown. Late in the second quarter, RB Reggie Bush fumbled a punt at the New Orleans 14-yard line and Minnesota recovered at the ten. A potential score was averted when LB Scott Fujita recovered a fumble by Favre that occurred on the exchange and the clubs went into halftime with a tie game.

WR Courtney Roby took the second half's opening kickoff back 61 yards, and four plays later, the Saints took their first lead when Thomas scored his second touchdown of the contest on a nine-yard scamper. The lead was short-lived as the Vikings went 80 yards up the field on nine plays, ending with a one-yard scoring run by Peterson. After New Orleans was forced to punt on their next possession, the Vikings advanced to the New Orleans 34, but LB Jonathan Vilma intercepted a pass thrown by Favre to stop a Vikings score.

New Orleans was forced to punt at the end of the third quarter, but DE Will Smith stripped the ball out of Vikings WR Percy Harvin's hands on Minnesota's next drive and it was recovered by DT Remi Ayodele and advanced to the Vikings seven-yard line. Three plays later, the Saints took the lead back when Brees threw a screen to Bush where he broke the plane for a five-yard gain and the touchdown following a New Orleans replay challenge and reversal.

With the Vikings in the red zone again, Favre threw a short pass to Minnesota WR Bernard Berrian, which he fumbled on a hit by CB Tracy Porter and was recovered by Vilma, stopping a scoring opportunity. The Saints were unable to convert when the Vikings got the ball back following the punt, Peterson scored his third touchdown of the game from two yards out to tie the score with 4:58 remaining.

After New Orleans was forced to their second straight three-and-out, The Vikings were in field goal range at the New Orleans 33 with 19 seconds remaining, but were called for a five-yard penalty for having 12 players on the field. On the next play, Porter picked off Farve to ensure overtime.

The Saints won the overtime coin flip and Thomas, in substitute for an injured Roby advanced the kickoff 40 yards to the New Orleans 39. Faced with a fourth-and-one play at the Minnesota 43, Thomas jumped over a pile for the first down to keep the drive alive. Advancing to the Minnesota 22, Hartley would then kick the 40-yard field goal to send the Saints to Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP

GAME NOTES

The game was the first postseason overtime game in franchise history, only the third overtime contest in NFC Championship Game history and the 27th postseason overtime game ever played in NFL annals.

The crowd of 71,276 was the largest to attend a Saints game at the Louisiana Superdome to date.

The Vikings outgained the Saints in total net yardage 475-257, but Minnesota turned the ball over five times, three times on fumbles and a pair of interceptions by QB Brett Favre, while New Orleans lost only one fumble.

QB Drew Brees completed 17-of-31 passes for 197 yards with three touchdown passes and a 106.5 passer rating, tying his postseason career-high in scoring throws. In overtime, he successfully engineered a ten-play, 39-yard drive that led New Orleans to the 22-yard line where K Garrett Hartley kicked the game-winning 40-yard field goal.

RB Pierre Thomas led the Saints in rushing with 14 carries for 61 yards and one touchdown, also adding a 38-yard touchdown grab for 99 total yards from scrimmage. In overtime, he took on kickoff return duties due to an injury to Courtney Roby and brought back the opening kick 40 yards. Thomas also converted a crucial dive for a first down on a fourth-and-one play in overtime that picked up the first down and kept the drive alive that would send the Saints to Super Bowl XLIV.

LB Jonathan Vilma's third quarter interception was his first postseason pick. Vilma also recovered a fumble in the fourth quarter, the first of his postseason career and added five solo tackles and a pass defense.

Late in the game, the Vikings seemed to be driving for a winning score leaving New Orleans without time to mount a comeback drive, but CB Tracy Porter's 26-yard interception return of a pass by Favre with seven seconds left ensured the Saints new life in overtime.

INDIANAPOLIS

SAINTS: 31 COLTS: 17
SUN LIFE STADIUM
MIAMI GARDENS, FLA. – 2/7/10
ATTENDANCE: 74,059 TIME: 2:58

Leading 24-17 and trying to stop the Colts offense, CB Tracy Porter intercepted a Peyton Manning pass and raced 74-yards for a touchdown that gave the Saints a 31-17 lead, delivering them their first Super Bowl title in club history.

The Saints staved off two consecutive early scoring drives that staked the Colts to a 10-0 lead and responded with two long distance field goals by K Garrett Hartley in the first half. With the eventual win, overcoming the ten point deficit tied the largest that a winning team would overcome in Super Bowl history.

The Colts opened the scoring with a 38-yard field goal by Matt Stover, giving the Colts a 3-0 lead 7:31 into the game and followed it up with a 96-yard touchdown drive that ended with a 19-yard TD pass from Manning to WR Pierre Garcon that made the score 10-0. The Saints responded early in the second quarter when Hartley hit a 46-yard field goal and he finished the half with a 44-yarder that made the score 10-6.

The Saints started the second half with a surprise onside kick, the first that was executed by a club prior to the fourth quarter in Super Bowl history. After the football bounced off of Colts WR Hank Baskett, it was recovered by S Chris Reis at the New Orleans 42-yard line as the Saints emerged from the pile with it.

Six plays later, the Saints would have their first lead of the contest when Brees found RB Pierre Thomas on a screen that he scampered forth 16 yards to turn into a touchdown and a 13-10 edge.

Indianapolis took the lead back midway through the third quarter when Colts RB Joseph Addai scored from four yards out, giving the Colts a 17-13 lead with 6:15 remaining in the third period.

New Orleans struck back with their first of 18 unanswered points on the next drive when Hartley kicked his third field goal, a 47-yard shot to put the Saints within one point with 2:01 remaining in the third quarter.

Indianapolis received the football back on the ensuing kickoff at the 11-yard line and eventually worked they way as close as the New Orleans 30. However on a second and eight play, CB Malcolm Jenkins stopped Colts WR Austin Collie for a loss of three yards. On the third-and-11 play, LB Jonathan Vilma successfully defended a pass intended for Collie. Stover pulled a 51-yard field goal attempt to the left, giving the Saints the ball at the New Orleans 41.

New Orleans promptly took advantage of the favorable field position. Brees led a methodical nine-play, 59-yard drive, where he would hit on all seven of his passes, culminating in finding TE Jeremy Shockey for a two-yard throw in the end zone to give New Orleans a 22-17 lead. The Saints went for two points and it appeared that they were stopped when WR Lance Moore couldn't haul in the attempt. However, head coach Sean Payton successfully challenged the ruling on the field, stating that Moore had possession of the ball and got it over the goal line, giving the Saints the conversion and a 24-17 lead with 5:42 remaining.

With ample time still remaining for a Colts comeback, Manning and the Indianapolis offense had advanced the ball to the New Orleans 31-yard line, but Porter stepped in front of the pass and rambled 74 yards for the score to give the Saints the two touchdown lead with 3:12 remaining.

The Colts got the ball back and moved inside the five-yard line, but the Saints defense repelled them on three consecutive attempts, culminating when a fourth down pass attempt by Manning was batted away by LB Scott Shanle in the end zone with 44 seconds remaining to clinch the win for the Saints.

GAMENOTES

New Orleans became the first team in NFL history to win three games in which it had trailed by seven-or-more points in one postseason.

Brees was named the game's MVP after completing 32 of 39 passes for 288 yards with two TD passes and a 114.5 passer rating. He tied the NFL record for completions in a Super Bowl. Finishing the game with ten consecutive completions, he tied the second-longest streak of consecutive completions in one game in Super Bowl history. It was also the second consecutive postseason comeback in the fourth quarter or overtime from a game that the Saints were behind or tied in that Brees had engineered, following the overtime win in the NFC Championship over the Minnesota Vikings.

K Garrett Hartley became the first player in NFL history to boot three field goals of 40-or-more yards in a Super Bowl contest.

Garnering the Super Bowl start in a split backfield alongside Reggie Bush, Pierre Thomas led the Saints with 85 total yards from scrimmage on a team-high 30 yards rushing and six receptions for 55 yards with a 16-yard TD.

The game's two starting wideouts for New Orleans were Marques Colston and Devery Henderson, each tying for the team lead with seven receptions. Colston led the Saints with 83 yards receiving, while Henderson finished second with 63 yards through the air.

The Saints did not turn over the ball once. It culminated a postseason where New Orleans tied an NFL record by playing three postseason games and committing only one turnover. The Saints became the seventh club to do this with all of them winning the Super Bowl.

S Darren Sharper led the Saints in tackles with 11 stops (five solo).

CB Tracy Porter's 74-yard interception return off of Manning for a touchdown was the fourth longest interception return in Super Bowl history. Manning has not thrown an interception that was returned for a touchdown in his last 910 regular season passes, dating back to October, 2008. He had also thrown 161 passes without an interception return for a touchdown in the postseason until the fourth quarter return.

Outscoring the Colts 15-0 in the fourth quarter, the Saints continued their dominance in the game's final period, capping a postseason where New Orleans outscored their opponents 25-7 in the fourth quarter and overtime.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Khai HARLEY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Entering his third season with the Saints and tenth in the NFL, Director of Football Administration Khai Harley's primary focus is salary cap management. He works in conjunction with the player personnel department, making the club's player acquisitions fit within the structure of the cap. His duties also include contract negotiations, coordinating different areas of football operations and being involved in the administrative functions of running the club.

Harley has a deep background in NFL salary cap administration, Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) regulations, and the research of player contracts. He arrived in New Orleans in 2008 after serving for five years as the Manager of Labor Operations with the NFL Management Council. He was responsible for ensuring personnel transactions and player contracts submitted by each team complied with the CBA and the NFL's Constitution & Bylaws while also providing advice to club officials during contract negotiations.

On a daily basis, Harley researches contracts and cap statistics from not only the club but from around the league. It is similar to the daily and yearly reconciliation he did for all 32 clubs in his former position, where he calculated cap figures for each team, made adjustments for the following year and analyzed statistical trends related to player signings.

Harley has also been a member of the NFL's Diversity Council since 2005, which is designed to promote diversity throughout the NFL's administrative offices, recommend diversity initiatives and implement/oversee approved programs. He started in the League Office in 2002 as a Player Personnel Analyst, working to ensure each team's compliance with the salary cap, analyzing player contracts and researching the eligibility of college players.

Harley served as an administrative intern with the Philadelphia Eagles from 2001-02 - gathering data used to determine whether players earned performance-based incentives while also handling other administrative duties - and earlier in 2001 served as football operations intern for the Indianapolis Colts.

Prior to entering the NFL, Harley was a financial analyst with Bloomberg, L.P. from 1995-2000, analyzing domestic and international bond markets, studying trends in European markets for clients, training employees and international staff and ensuring debt issuance within Emerging, Latin American, and U.S. Private Placement Markets were in compliance with corporate and SEC guidelines.

Harley graduated with a degree in Accounting from Rutgers University in 1998, twice receiving the National Association of Black Accountants Scholarship Award. He earned a master's degree in Sports Management from Springfield College in 2001.

Harley and his wife, Vicky - who both grew up in Somerville, N.J. - have three daughters, Na'imah, Samiyah and Asiah.

James NAGAOKA
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Entering his 11th season with the Saints, Director of Operations James Nagaoka oversees all aspects of the logistics and day-to-day needs of the football team. He was promoted to his current position in 2003.

Nagaoka arrived in New Orleans in 2000 and served as director of team logistics/box office manager for three seasons. Included in his many responsibilities is managing the Saints' training camp operations, and in 2002 Nagaoka coordinated the construction of the indoor practice field, locker room, weight room and cafeteria at the Saints facility.

He joined the Saints after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 22 years, holding a wide spectrum of responsibilities during his tenure. His duties included entertainment, travel coordination, special projects and ticket sales. As ticket director, Nagaoka managed both sales and operations for 15-consecutive sold-out seasons.

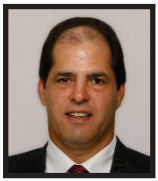

A graduate of the University of Washington, Nagaoka has degrees in communications and Japanese literature.

Ryan PACE

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Entering his ninth year in the Saints player personnel department, Director of Pro Scouting Ryan Pace is responsible for managing the entire pro personnel department on a daily basis.

In addition to overseeing the club's staff of pro scouts, Pace's legion of responsibilities include recommending player acquisitions by scouting current and future NFL free agents, monitoring the waiver wire and evaluating players from other professional leagues. Another ongoing effort is researching possible trade opportunities.

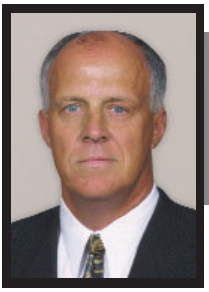

A key responsibility for Pace is supervising the advance scouting of upcoming opponents - including their personnel, tendencies and schemes. The pro personnel department also constantly evaluates current Saints players.

Pace took on his increased duties after being promoted to his current position in 2007. He served as one of the club's pro scouts from 2004-06, with his efforts including evaluating veteran free agents, scouting upcoming opponents and evaluating college players in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Pace had served as a scouting assistant for two years starting in 2002. His well-rounded experiences included evaluating players from around the league as well as prospects from NFL Europe, the Arena Football League and the CFL. Pace also tracked player movement, scouted college players and assisted in the preparation of the draft room.

In 2008, he was selected by the club to attend the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known across the league as an important training ground for promising executives.

Pace joined the Saints in 2001, assisting in the coordination of all operations on game days, training camp and with the Louisiana Superdome. Pace was a four-year letterman at defensive end at Eastern Illinois (1995-99) - serving as team captain as a senior - and graduated with a degree in marketing. He and his wife Stephanie have a daughter, Cardyn.

Rick REIPRISH

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A key member of the Saints' player personnel department since 2004, Rick Reiprish has been an integral part of the club's scouting efforts since arriving in New Orleans. He brings over three decades of experience to his position.

As the club's director of college scouting, his responsibilities include coordinating the efforts of the team's area scouts, working to build a consensus entering the draft and grading and scouting college players throughout the year. Reiprish's insight has been essential to the Saints' success during the NFL Draft since his arrival.

New Orleans has picked up a steady stream of top contributors since 2004, including future Pro Bowlers DE Will Smith, S Roman Harper and G Jahri Evans as well as DT Sedrick Ellis, CB Tracy Porter and RB Reggie Bush. The draft has also brought late-round finds such as Evans, G Carl Nicks and WR Marques Colston, and the scouts have made savvy discoveries in undrafted free agents, most notably RB Pierre Thomas.

Reiprish joined the Saints following an eight-year stint (1994-2002) with Jacksonville as director of player personnel, where he was an architect of the Jaguars' rapid ascension to the top of the AFC. He was responsible for each of the club's drafts since its inaugural effort in 1995, selecting such stalwarts as T Tony Boselli, DE Tony Brackens, RB Fred Taylor, S Donovin Darius and CB Fernando Bryant. Of the team's seven first-round picks from 1995 to 1999, each became a starter, more than any other NFL team in that span.

Originally hired as the Jaguars' Director of College Scouting in 1994, Reiprish was promoted to director of player personnel in 1998. He was responsible for the pro and college scouting departments, including directing the scouting of college players and the draft as well as the evaluation of veteran free agents.

Reiprish joined the Jaguars after working for the Seattle Seahawks for 10 years (1984-94), first as an area scout before being promoted to Eastern Scout Supervisor in 1989. He began his NFL career as a southeast scout with BLESTO from 1979-82. For the previous three years, he was a personnel scout for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Reiprish coached wide receivers and running backs at Austin Peay State University (1973-76) before going to East Tennessee State in 1977, where he coached quarterbacks and running backs. In 1978, he was offensive line coach at North Alabama.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

A native of Shamokin, Pa., Reiprish graduated from Villanova in 1972 and earned a master's degree in education-administration and supervision from Austin Peay in 1974. Reiprish is married to Julie and has a son, Andrew and a daughter, Ashleigh Norris.

Brian ADAMS

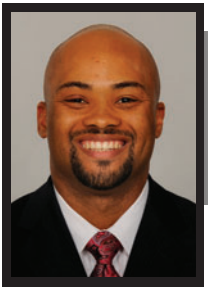

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Brian Adams enters his third season as the club's assistant director of college scouting and 24th in the NFL. Adams evaluates college prospects across the nation throughout the year, and his responsibilities peak annually with a key role in the Saints' preparations for the NFL Draft.

Adams arrived in New Orleans after spending eight seasons with the Carolina Panthers as an area scout. He joined the Panthers in 2001 after serving as one of only three scouts for the XFL in 2000. His football career began with an internship with the Cleveland Browns in 1982 while Adams was a student at Bowling Green University.

Adams became a full-time employee of the Browns in 1984 with a position in coaching administration. In 1989, he moved from coaching to scouting, and remained with Cleveland until the team's move to Baltimore in 1995.

A native of Berea, Ohio, Adams graduated from Cleveland State University after transferring from Bowling Green. Adams and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Larissa, and a son, Nicholas.

Terry FONTENOT

PRO SCOUT

Terry Fontenot enters his seventh season in the club's player personnel department and fifth as a pro scout. His responsibilities include evaluating and rating current professional players and preparing the club for acquisitions through free agency or the waiver wire.

Fontenot also assists in the team's yearly draft preparations and the detailed weekly advance scouting of upcoming opponents.

Promoted to his current position in 2006, Fontenot enters his seventh season with the Saints. Since 2004, Fontenot has held multiple positions in the scouting department, including as a pro scouting assistant - where he helped evaluate free agents, track player movement, studied film and aided in the planning for the NFL Draft - and as an assistant in player personnel.

Fontenot joined the Saints in 2003, working in community relations and marketing. A native of Lake Charles, La., he had a standout prep career and was an all-state defensive back at Lagrange High School.

A four-year letterman at safety for Tulane from 1999-2002, Fontenot served as a captain of the Green Wave in 2001 and was a member of the 2002 Hawaii Bowl Champion team. He graduated with a degree in business and organizational information technology.

Fontenot and his wife, Tanya have a daughter, Londyn and reside in St. Rose, La.

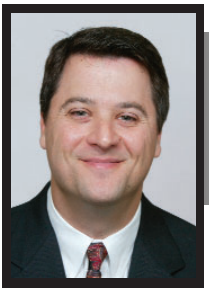

Ryan POWELL
PRO SCOUT

Entering his fourth season as a pro scout and sixth with the Saints, Ryan Powell has a wealth of responsibilities that include evaluating free agents from the NFL and other professional leagues, monitoring the waiver wire and advance scouting of opponents. Powell, who also assists in the club's yearly draft preparations, spent his first two years in New Orleans as the team's combine scout. In that position, Powell evaluated college players for both the Saints as well as contributing reports to the National Football Scouting Combine.

Previously, Powell served as a Saints training camp intern in 2004. He also worked on the coaching staff at Linfield College, as an assistant on the team that won the 2004 NCAA Division III National Championship. Powell also worked for the Seattle Seahawks for three summers (1998-2000) as a training camp assistant.

A native of Bend, Ore., Powell graduated in political science and history from Linfield in 2002. He had a standout prep career at Mountain View HS, where he earned all-state honors before playing linebacker at Linfield.

Powell and his wife, Miranda, have a daughter, Nahia.

Mike BAUGH
AREA SCOUT

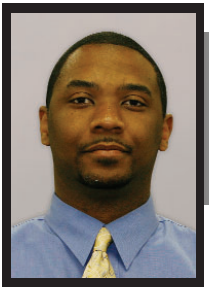

Mike Baugh – an experienced member of the player personnel department who is entering his 18th season in the NFL – is responsible for evaluating the college prospects located in the central region of the country. Baugh is in his second stint with the Saints, rejoining the club in 2008 after serving as a pro scout with the club from 2000-04.

From 2005-07, Baugh served as the assistant director of player personnel for the Miami Dolphins. Prior to his tenure in Miami, his responsibilities with New Orleans included evaluating free agent prospects, advance scouting of opponents and assisting in the yearly draft preparations.

Baugh opened his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks, spending eight years in various capacities with the club. He started as a public relations intern in 1992, served as an administrative assistant to head coaches Tom Flores and Dennis Erickson from 1993-96 and moved to the Seahawks personnel department in 1997, where he was a scouting assistant.

In 1998, Baugh was named manager of football administration for Seattle, and in 1999, his final year with the club, was promoted to assistant director of pro scouting.

Baugh graduated from Central Washington University with a degree in business administration. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Hannah, and a son, Brett.

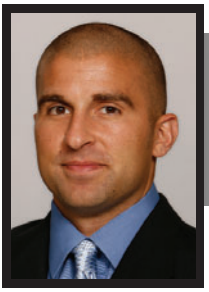

Dwaune JONES
AREA SCOUT

With a background that includes stints as a professional player, coach and scout, Dwaune Jones enters his sixth season with the Saints as an area scout. His responsibilities are evaluating players from colleges located throughout the Midwest region of the United States.

A former wide receiver in the NFL and NFL Europe, his prior experience also includes coaching wide receivers for the NFL Cologne Centurions from 2004-05 and serving as a training camp scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks in 2004.

Jones was allocated to NFL Europe by Seattle in 2001 and caught 33 passes for 577 yards and five touchdowns for Berlin. In their World Bowl IX victory over Barcelona, Jones caught six passes for 161 yards and two TDs, including a game-winning 53-yard strike from with 4:08 left.

Jones also has NFL playing experience with the Cleveland Browns and Houston Texans and served as a training camp intern coach in NFL Europe in 2003. During his college career at Richmond University, Jones was a three-year starter who hauled in 146 receptions for 1,994 yards and departed ranked sixth in school history with 15 TDs. Jones was also a sprinter on the track team.

Josh LUCAS
AREA SCOUT

Entering his fourth season as an area scout and sixth as a member of the Saints' player personnel department, Josh Lucas is responsible for evaluating players from the schools located in the southwest region of the United States.

Prior to being promoted to area scout in 2007, Lucas had spent two seasons as a scouting assistant, where he evaluated free agents, tracked player movement and assisted in the preparations for the NFL Draft.

Lucas joined the Saints after working for the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2002-04. In his final two years with the club, he was a marketing analyst working on the "Jacksonville 39" project, a marketing initiative that raised funds to finance capital improvements to ALLTEL Stadium. Those renovations were completed prior to the city hosting Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2002 he was an intern for Jacksonville in football operations, and worked in the player personnel dept. during the club's 2004 training camp.

Lucas graduated Cum Laude from Harvard University, where he played safety from 1997-98 before a series of shoulder injuries ended his career. A native of North Canton, Ohio, Lucas is married (Caryn).

Jim MONOS
AREA SCOUT

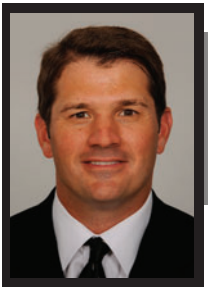

Responsible for evaluating players from colleges located throughout the southeast region of the country, Jim Monos enters his sixth season with the Saints as an area scout.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans in 2005, Monos worked for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2001-04 as an area scout, covering the northeast area of the country. In 2000, he was an intern for Philadelphia, serving a dual role in player personnel and media relations.

The Palmyra, Pa. native was the starting quarterback for Lebanon Valley College in 1995 before transferring to Bloomsburg University, where he graduated with a degree in journalism.

His father, Jim, has been the head coach at Lebanon Valley College since 2005. Previously, Monos, Sr. was the offensive coordinator at Bloomsburg, where he tutored G Jahri Evans, a fourth-round draft pick of the Saints in 2006 (108th overall), a unanimous NFL All-Rookie selection, 2009 Pro Bowler and a cornerstone of the club's offensive line.

Monos is single and resides in Charleston, S.C.

Mike NEU
AREA SCOUT

After serving as the head coach of the Arena Football League's New Orleans VooDoo from 2004-08, Mike Neu enters his second season with the Saints as an area scout. He will be responsible for evaluating the players at the schools located in the northeast region.

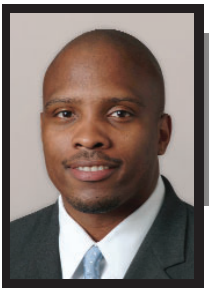

The only coach in the VooDoo's history, Neu compiled a 33-31 record and earned 2004 AFL Coach of the Year honors, serving as head coach of the Carolina Cobras for two seasons prior to coming to New Orleans.

Neu previously worked in the Saints player personnel department from 2005-2006, when the VooDoo suspended operations due to Hurricane Katrina. Starting his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State in 1994, he also served as an assistant in the AFL for three seasons and served as head coach of the Augusta Stallions of af2 in 2000, where was named the league's Coach of the Year.

An Indianapolis native, Neu was a four-year starter at quarterback for Ball State, where he was named the MAC Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 1993 and is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He played professionally with the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders and played in the AFL for two seasons.

Neu and his wife, Charmin, have a daughter, Graycen and two sons, Carson and Chase.

Terry WOODEN
AREA SCOUT

Bringing the perspective of a nine-year NFL veteran and the last seven years as a scout, Terry Wooden enters his fourth year with the Saints as an area scout. His responsibilities include evaluating the prospects from the colleges located in the western region of the country.

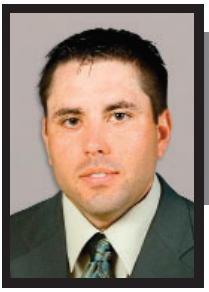

Wooden joined the Saints in 2007 after serving as a college scout for the Buffalo Bills from 2003-2006.

Wooden was selected in the second round (29th overall) by Seattle in the 1990 NFL Draft and played for the Seahawks through 1996. After departing Seattle, he had stints with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997) and the Oakland Raiders (1998). While with the Seahawks he was voted the 1992 Ed Block Courage Award winner, presented to the player who best exemplifies the principles of courage and sportsmanship.

During his college career at Syracuse, Wooden was a four-year starter and selected the All-East Coast Athletic Conference first-team three times. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in sociology. Following his career, Wooden was voted to the Syracuse All-Century Team.

He and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Tea and Maya, and a son, Brock. Terry's brother, JoJo Wooden, is the assistant director of player personnel for the New York Jets.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Ryan HOLLERN

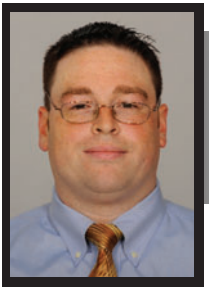

COMBINE SCOUT

Ryan Hollern enters his third season as the club's combine scout, and in his position works for the Saints and the National Scouting Combine. The club is part of the scouting service, and Hollern's reports on college prospects are shared with other teams that are members.

Hollern joined the Saints in 2008 after serving as coordinator of recruiting operations at Mississippi State from 2006-07. In that position, he worked in the daily operation of the recruiting office, and his responsibilities included coordinating travel, scholarships, admissions, overseeing the video library and working as a liaison with pro scouts. Hollern was promoted after working as an offensive assistant while completing his graduate studies at MSU. In 2004 he was an administrative assistant in the football office during his initial year as a graduate student.

A 2001 graduate of Gannon University, Hollern played quarterback for two years for the Golden Knights. He coached quarterbacks at Harding University HS (Charlotte, N.C.) for one season prior to arriving at Mississippi State.

Hollern, a native of Indiana, Pa., and his wife Keely have a son, Porter and a daughter, Bennett.

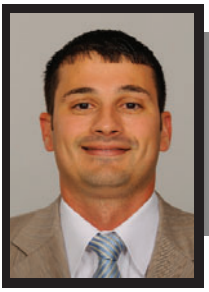

Jason MITCHELL

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Entering his fourth year in New Orleans as college scouting coordinator, Jason Mitchell is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day operations of the college scouting department regarding scouts' scheduling, processing and organizing the information gathered on draft-eligible players, and maintaining a computer database of scouting reports.

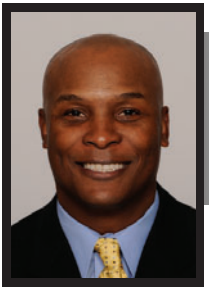

Mitchell came to New Orleans after serving as the Director of External Operations at Rutgers University from 2005-07, after serving as an undergraduate recruiting assistant for the Scarlet Knights from 2001 until his graduation. He graduated from Rutgers University with a B.S. in Sports Management in 2005. The Cresskill, N.J. native is married (Lindsey).

Joseph LAINE

SALARY CAP ANALYST/ PLAYER PERSONNEL

Entering his sixth season with the Saints, Joseph Laine has a wide-range of responsibilities in the Player Personnel department. Laine serves as Salary Cap Analyst/Player Personnel, where he assists with the daily management of the salary cap and also researches player contracts from around the NFL. Laine's duties also include evaluating current players on the Saints' roster, monitoring daily league transactions and assisting in coordinating the logistics for both free agency and the NFL Draft. Promoted in 2009, Laine had previously served as Player Personnel Assistant since 2006 after joining the Saints as an intern in 2005. He is a graduate of the University of New Orleans with a degree in Business Administration.

Fred McAFEE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

With a wide-range of responsibilities centered around helping players and their families improve their quality of life as well as invest in their futures, Fred McAfee enters his fourth season as Director of Player Development. He also organizes continuing college education opportunities, internships, life skills training seminars, financial education classes and family assistance.

In addition, McAfee serves as a conduit between players and their dealings with coaches and management. He also helps rookies adjust to the NFL and assists former players in making the transition into life following their careers. He was a longtime standout as a Saints' player, and retired following the 2006 season after a 15-year career.

The transition to the front office has been smooth for McAfee, who was known as a positive influence in the locker room during his time in the league. He played in 194 games in his career, including 122 contests in two stints with New Orleans. Drafted by the Saints in the sixth round of the 1991 NFL Draft, he is the only player in team history to have been on the roster for three of the club's four division championships (1991, 2000, 2006.) and has been affiliated with the team for all four, including the 2009 Super Bowl XLIV Championship campaign.

McAfee first played for the Saints from 1991-1993, leading New Orleans in rushing as a rookie with a career-high 494 yards. That season the Saints won their first NFC West title. After a seven-game stint with the Arizona Cardinals in 1994, he was signed by Pittsburgh later that season. He stayed with the Steelers until 1997, and served as their special teams captain for two years.

McAfee rejoined the Saints in 2000 and was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2002 for his stellar special teams play. His final game in New Orleans was the 2006 finale vs. Carolina, and one of the final carries of McAfee's career was a six-yard burst for a touchdown in the third quarter.

He attended Mississippi College, where McAfee graduated with a degree in Mass Communications. In 2007, he completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Greg BENSEL
VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

With responsibilities that include serving as the team's official spokesman, overseeing all internal and external communications and being the primary liaison between the club and national and local media, Vice President of Communications Greg Bensel enters his 14th season with the Saints.

Bensel was promoted to his current position after serving for nine seasons as director of media & public relations. In addition to managing his staff, his duties include working with the NFL's network media partners, media operations for home and away games and planning the long-range public relations initiatives for the club.

Bensel has also worked on the NFL public relations staffs for Super Bowl XXXII, XXXIII and XXXVI.

Prior to joining the Saints, Bensel was director of media relations for the Super Bowl XXXI Host Committee and the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation. He has also served on the media committee for the NCAA Men's Final Four, the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and the Sugar Bowl.

A New Orleans native who graduated from Jesuit High School and Tulane, Bensel started his professional career as a media relations administrator for the Professional Golfers Association in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. He served on the public relations staff for the 1991 PGA Championship, the 1991 Senior PGA Championship and the 1991 Ryder Cup.

Bensel and his wife, Jane, reside in New Orleans and have a daughter, Kate, and a son, Nelson.

Dave DESPOSITO
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Dave Desposito, who oversees the filming of all games and practices and edits the video on a daily basis for the coaches, scouts and front office personnel, enters his ninth season with the Saints as video director.

Desposito's responsibilities include breaking down the opponent's weekly game video and keeping a detailed archive for the coaching staff. Since his arrival, the Saints have also installed a state-of-the-art, digital editing system networked throughout the building via computer.

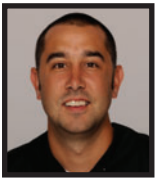

It's time-consuming work that involves late nights and tight deadlines, and the game film that Desposito and his staff generates - as well as that of every NFL team - is also shipped to future opponents.

Desposito came to New Orleans after serving as assistant video director from 1998-2001 for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He worked from 1993-97 for the New York Giants as an intern, coach's show assistant and video assistant.

A native of Little Ferry, N.J., Desposito graduated from William Paterson University with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Christine, have a daughter, Abigail, and a son, Tyler.

Scottie B. PATTON
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scottie Patton, a 19-year veteran of the NFL and entering his 11th season with the Saints, coordinates all medical care and injury rehabilitation as the club's head athletic trainer. He has supervised the team's athletic training staff and set all policies since arriving in New Orleans in 2000.

The Saints' athletic training department has earned a number of awards under Patton's direction. He and his staff were honored as the 2007 Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association. In 2006, they were honored as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year by both the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society and the National Football League Physician's Society.

Only the third head athletic trainer in club history, Patton served as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-99 and as an assistant athletic trainer for San Francisco for the previous five years. With the 49ers, Patton was on the staff of the Super Bowl XXIX Champions. He has also served three times as an athletic trainer for the NFC squad at the Pro Bowl, including in 2007 with the Saints. With the club's recent Super Bowl XLIV triumph, Patton has been a member of two World Championship athletic training staffs.

Patton earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine/Exercise Science from Appalachian State University in 1990. After enrolling in graduate school at the University of South Carolina, Patton completed his master's in Sports Medicine at San Jose State in 1996. A certified athletic trainer, he is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Patton began his career as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at South Carolina

(1990-91), as a student athletic trainer at Appalachian State (1986-90) and a summer training camp and assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers in 1988-89. During his final two years with the Eagles, Patton created the Patton Football/Athletic Training Clinic, a non-profit venture in the offseason that provided instruction in athletic training and football skills in his hometown of Gastonia, N.C.

Patton and his wife, Yvette, have three children: Cameron, Alexis and a son, Roman Scott.

Duane BROOKS
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

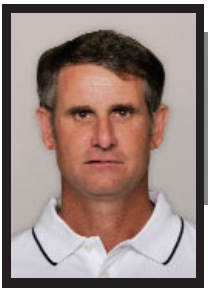

Duane Brooks, who brings nearly two decades of experience in his field, enters his ninth season with the Saints. Responsible for treating and rehabilitating players throughout the year and the maintenance of the team's medical records, Brooks also maintains two tracking systems that monitor a player's progress from injuries for both the club and the NFL.

Brooks joined the Saints in 2002 after spending six seasons with Florida State in a similar capacity. His contributions since have helped the athletic training staff earn several awards, including the 2007 Southeastern Athletic Trainers' Association (SEATA) Professional Athletic Trainers Award and both the Professional Football Athletic Training Society Staff of the Year and Fain Cain Memorial Award in 2006.

While at Florida State, Brooks was the assistant football athletic trainer and head athletic trainer for the baseball team. He traveled to the College World Series three times and was a member of a staff that participated in four national championship football games. Brooks completed summer internships with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1992, 1993 and 1996.

A member of both the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association, Brooks has an undergraduate degree from Florida A&M and earned his graduate degree in athletic administration at Florida State.

He and his wife, Natasha, have a son, Rashaad.

Kevin MANGUM

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Among the club's longest-tenured employees, assistant athletic trainer Kevin Mangum works in conjunction with the other members of the training staff to maintain the overall health and welfare of the team while also treating and rehabilitating injured players.

A native of Tylertown, Miss., Mangum has collected a lengthy list of honors as he enters his 30th season with the Saints, including being inducted into the Louisiana Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame in 2008.

His contributions have helped the athletic training staff earn several awards, including the 2007 Southeastern Athletic Trainers' Association (SEATA) Professional Athletic Trainers Award, the Fain Cain Memorial Award in 2006 and the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 1986 and 2006. Mangum received the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association's 1991 Backbone Award, which recognizes the region's outstanding assistant athletic trainer.

Mangum was a student athletic trainer for two years at Southwest Mississippi Junior College and two more at the University of Southern Mississippi before joining the Saints in 1981. He received a bachelor's degree in athletic administration with a specialization in athletic training from USM in 1981, and an advanced degree in physical education from the University of New Orleans in 1988. Mangum was inducted into the Southwest Mississippi Junior College Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

He and his wife, Susie, have five children - Katie, Megan, Scott, Kevin Paul and Mark. Katie is married, a physical therapist and has two children (Emma and Jude Moore). Mangum's daughter Megan was married in 2008 and is a rehabilitation counselor.

Dan SIMMONS
HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

As the head equipment manager, Dan Simmons is responsible for the endless list of details that goes into filling the team's needs, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms for the players and coaches, the transportation of that equipment for road trips and the daily practice field arrangement.

Simmons is also the club's longest-tenured employee and now in his fourth decade with the Saints. Known to all at the team's training facility as "Chief," he was honored by the organization for his 30th season with the club in 2002, becoming only the second employee to reach the milestone since the team's founding in 1967. He was hired for his current position April 1, 1973.

Following the 2005 season, Simmons and his staff were selected in a vote by their peers for the Whitey Zimmerman Memorial Award, annually given to the NFL equipment staff that exceeds the usual demands of the position. Simmons and his staff were also the first recipient of the award in 1994. In 2010, he was elected into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame.

In 2005, the equipment staff overcame extraordinary challenges in the forced evacuation from New Orleans because of Hurricane Katrina. After departing New Orleans, the club's base of operation moved three times, including a last stop at a high school baseball stadium. The equipment staff made those moves nearly seamless for the team, and with four home games in Baton Rouge, nearly every contest demanded the packing and preparation of a road game.

Dedication to an NFL team runs in his blood. His father, Bill, held a similar post with the St. Louis Cardinals for 22 years. Dan joined the Saints after working with his father. A graduate of Meramec College in St. Louis, Simmons served for four years in the Navy, including a stint in Vietnam. He and his wife, Elaine, have three grown children—Tracy, Tony and Amy—and four grandchildren.

Dennis LAUSCHA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Entering his 13th season with the Saints, Executive Vice President/Chief Financial Officer Dennis Lauscha maintains multiple roles within the operations of the club and other holdings of Owner Tom Benson. In addition to directing all financial functions of the organization, Lauscha maintains a lead position in the negotiations with government officials and has an active role in the management of New Orleans FOX affiliate WVUE-TV, and Zelia, LLC.

Promoted to executive vice president last May after serving as senior vice president from 2006-09, Lauscha is a key member of the negotiating team that actively pursues future Super Bowls for the City of New Orleans - including recently landing Super Bowl XLVII (to be played in 2013). He joined the Saints as chief financial officer in 1998, has been a vice president since 2003 and is one of the club's representatives at the NFL Owner's Meetings.

Lauscha was part of the Saints' contingent that negotiated the agreement with Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal on a partnership that continues the club's commitment to the state through 2025. The deal also creates a new Sports Development District in the city that includes the Benson family purchasing and redeveloping the New Orleans Centre and newly renamed Benson Tower, properties adjacent to the Superdome which had sat dormant and in disrepair since Hurricane Katrina. As a result of the agreement, the Superdome and these properties are currently undergoing extensive renovations and upgrades and will include the new Champions Square promenade adjacent to the Superdome.

The innovative agreement will dramatically modernize the Superdome, revitalize the area around the stadium and will generate revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

Lauscha is the principal liaison with all vendors that service the club and also oversees several administrative and operations departments. In addition to maintaining the team's finances, Lauscha supervises the Saints' human resources, information technology and facilities and grounds departments. He was also a primary member of the negotiating team during the purchase of WVUE, and has since helped steward the station's growth in the New Orleans market.

Lauscha also negotiated the deal to bring Horizon Entertainment to New Orleans. The joint venture is a television production, content development and motion graphics studio that's part of Mr. Benson's Louisiana Media Company.

During his tenure, he was also instrumental in the expansion of the team's training facility to include a new weight room, indoor field and cafeteria and in recent years has overseen the revamping of the employee benefits program.

ADMINISTRATION

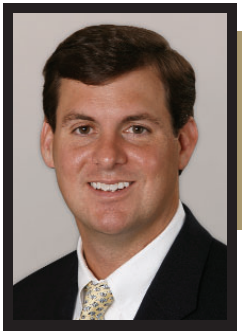

Lauscha is involved with numerous league-wide initiatives, including an NFL working committee for league financial reporting and a working committee for disaster preparedness. He has also completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Lauscha has completed terms as president of the Preservation Resource Center and as president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America. He serves on the visiting committee of the Loyola University School of Business and on the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee.

His dealings with the Saints, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. The professional and charitable work of the New Orleans native was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness when Lauscha was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola University of New Orleans' College of Business and also was named to the 2010 class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council, recognizing his commitment to his contributions to the enhancement of the community.

After graduating from Jesuit High School, Lauscha graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in business. He has also received a Masters of Business Administration from Loyola University in New Orleans and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant. Prior to joining the Saints, Lauscha worked as the club's auditor for four years while working for a national accounting firm.

Lauscha and his wife Jennifer, have a son, Dennis Patrick, Jr., and a daughter, Evelyn Anne.

Ben HALES

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

With a wide-range of responsibilities that includes overseeing the majority of the club's marketing initiatives, Ben Hales enters his 11th season with the Saints and fifth since being promoted to Vice President of Marketing and Business Development.

On a daily basis, Hales directs the Saints' marketing, sponsorship efforts and sales staff. He's also intricately involved in the club's critical planning of short-term and long-range marketing efforts. Hales' duties also entails stadium operations at the Superdome, corporate partnerships, broadcasting partnerships, promotions, advertising, special events and youth programs.

Hales has helped create and implement a variety of innovative opportunities for local and national partners to build relationships with the club, including the development of Patron Saints Partners, a premium sponsorship program. Under his direction the club has added a sponsorship and fulfillment department, to ensure corporate partners receive the highest level of service.

The Saints have significantly increased the number and variety of television and radio programs in the last few years after Hales assumed the role of the club's primary programming negotiator. In addition to three weekly in-season television programs, the Saints now produce numerous specials that have aired on three different local television stations throughout each season.

In 2006, the Saints achieved the first season ticket sellout in team history, a feat the team has equaled prior to the last two seasons. The club was named the 2006 Marketer of the Year by the American Marketing Association's New Orleans regional chapter and also received the 2007 MAX Award for its 2006 “Winning Is An Attitude” advertising campaign.

Hales joined the Saints in 2000 as a corporate sales account executive. In 2001, he was promoted to corporate sales and broadcasting manager before becoming a director the following year and assuming the responsibilities of business and marketing operations.

Prior to joining the Saints, Hales worked in television advertising in the New Orleans market. In addition to his community efforts on behalf of the team, Hales is a member of the New Orleans City Park Board of Commissioners, the People's Health Champions Selection Committee and the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee Executive Committee.

A native of New Orleans and a longtime Saints terrace and plaza level season ticket holder before joining the club, Hales earned a degree in English from the University of Mississippi in 1996. Hales, his wife, Kendall, and daughters Madison and Caroline live in New Orleans.

Vicky NEUMEYER

VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL COUNSEL

Providing comprehensive legal consultation and services to the club's executive staff and assuring compliance in all of the organization's business endeavors, Vicky Neumeyer has been a key member of the club's front office since joining the Saints in 2000 and was promoted to vice president/general counsel in 2006.

Her myriad of responsibilities include drafting key documents - including leases, sponsorship agreements and broadcast contracts - identifying and analyzing legal issues and presenting comprehensive recommendations.

ADMINISTRATION

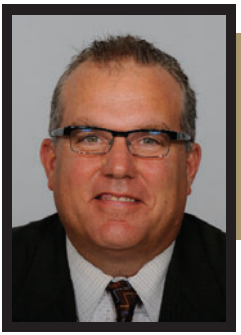

A member of the Louisiana and federal bars, prior to joining the Saints, Neumeyer spent over five years as an in-house corporate litigation attorney for Exxon. Previously she served as a judicial clerk for the Supreme Court of Louisiana and was in private practice as a consultant to major corporate clients and law firms.

Neumeyer possesses extensive experience in Sports Law, including antitrust, labor and organizational matters. She also has a comprehensive background in CAD engineering, software development firm drafting, negotiating contracts worldwide, copyrighting and in handling legal business issues.

In 2004, Neumeyer was selected by the Saints to attend the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives. She has also been invited to speak at several venues, including Harvard Law School, The Sports Lawyer's Association annual conferences, American Bar Association programs, Tulane Law School, and Loyola Law School.

After completing her undergraduate work Summa Cum Laude at the University of Wisconsin, Neumeyer earned a Master of Science Degree in Audiology at the school. She graduated with honors from Loyola Law School in 1989 and attained a Master of Law with Distinction with a dual emphasis in Intellectual Property Law and Sports Law in 1998.

Neumeyer and her husband, Jeff, have two daughters: Mary Rose and Jill Marie.

Michael STANFIELD

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET AND SUITE SALES

Entering his 11th season with the club, Michael Stanfield is responsible for all of the Saints' consumer marketing efforts - directing the sale of season and group tickets, supervising the lease of the Superdome's luxury suites, overseeing the sale of all team merchandise as well as maintaining the club's high standards of customer service and retention.

Under his direction, the team has surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 - a feat that has reached five-straight seasons. In 2008 and 2009, the club leased every Superdome suite as well. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into the NFL's top seller, and Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise to filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached to both retain existing accounts and cultivate new ones, and those efforts have built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history.

Stanfield has instituted a direct mail and an email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns.

Stanfield has spearheaded another innovative program unique to the sports industry in launching and supervising an advertising sales staff for WVUE-TV, which was purchased by Saints Owner Tom Benson in 2008

A veteran of 23 years in the sports industry, Stanfield was promoted to vice president after serving as director of ticket sales and operation services for the Saints from 2000-05. The accomplishments of the Ticket & Suite Sales Dept. were many under Stanfield's direction in his initial six years with the Saints, as the club posted a 36-straight game sellout streak and reached the former club-record of 53,000 season-ticket holders in 2003.

In 2007, Stanfield completed the Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Saints Hall of Fame, and a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee Executive Committee and National Sports Forum Steering Committee. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events.

In prior work experience, he was Director of Ticket Sales for the Detroit Tigers from 1998-99, with the Major League Baseball club achieving a then-club record for ticket revenue over a two-year span.

Stanfield previously served as the Director of Ticket Sales for the Detroit Vipers in 1997, supervising sales and marketing for the International Hockey League club. That season, the Vipers led the IHL in attendance, averaging over 18,000 per game.

His stint with the Tigers was Stanfield's second in Major League Baseball, as he was a member of the ticket sales staff for the Florida Marlins in 1993, the club's inaugural season.

A graduate of St. Leo University (Fla.), Stanfield and his wife, Stacey, have a daughter, Olivia Grace and live in Kenner.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

For the New Orleans Saints Community Affairs Dept., every day is game day. Kickoffs come each morning, when the club and its players put in the tireless work to make a positive impact on the people of New Orleans and the Gulf South region. This dedication to the less fortunate and to charitable causes has been a defining trait of Tom Benson's tenure as Owner. From top management and moving through the team's coaches, players and staff, the organization makes a concerted effort to be a visible and accessible to members of the community, with a hands-on approach toward charitable outreach. But these efforts are sparked by more than the desire to be seen - the Saints are firmly focused on making a positive, lasting impact.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The Saints organization understands that our children represent the community's hope for the future, and the Community Affairs Department has targeted youth programs and education as primary impact areas in giving back to New Orleans and the Gulf South region. Saints players visit New Orleans area schools each week during the season as part of the club's Rotolo's Literacy Program and Chevron Energy Efficiency Program. The club also partners with youth-oriented charities such as the Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boys and Girls Scouts, the United Way, Early Childhood and Family Learning Foundation, Wetland Watchers, Children's Pressline and the NFL YET Center. The Saints donated $100,000 to renovate the YET Center following the Hurricane.

The Saints reach out to thousands of youngsters each year through programs like the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, Saints Experience and the Tackle Football Program. The club is highly involved with the NFL's Junior Player Development Program in New Orleans Public Schools, and supports all of the league's youth initiatives. Over the summer in 2010, the Saints teamed up with the United Way for Greater New Orleans to provide 15 youth football and life skills clinics, free of charge.

COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

CARE & COMPASSION FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is the club's chief community focus, the Saints haven't limited their resources. The club also works closely with the Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse for Greater New Orleans, the American Red Cross in Southeast Louisiana, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Second Harvest Food Bank, and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are placed back into the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services.

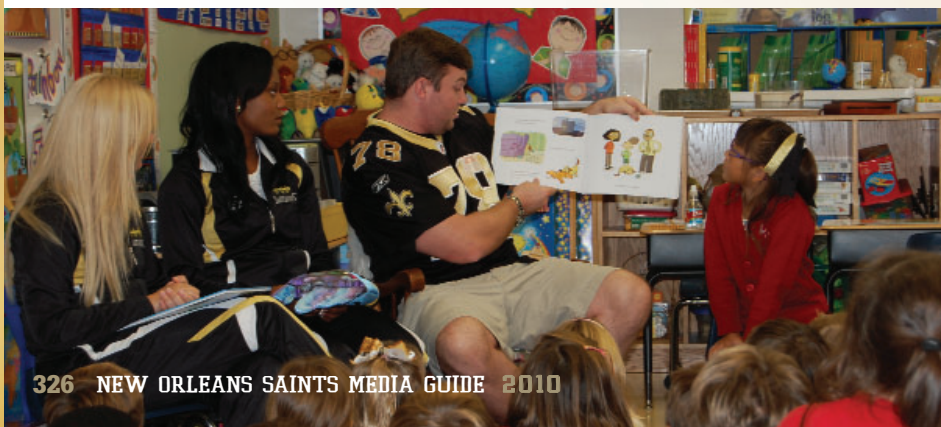

Most recently, the club started a raffle with the prize of a Super Bowl ring in order to raise money for those affected by the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico.

Encouraged by the Community Affairs Department, Saints players also provide hundreds of less fortunate families a holiday dinner with all the trimmings as part of the team's annual Thanksgiving benefit at Dryades YMCA. In addition, several Saints players take underprivileged children on holiday shopping sprees at their own expense.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending an oversized helping hand, the New Orleans Saints and its Community Affairs Department are there for the Greater New Orleans and Gulf South community, where every day is game day.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS YOUTH PROGRAMS

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing NFL excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints' football game in person.

The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Gatorade Junior Training Camp, the Saints Experience, the United Way Community Patrol and the High School Seven on Seven Tournament. The club is also highly involved with the NFL's High School Player Development Program and supports all of the league's youth initiatives such as NFL FLAG, Punt, Pass and Kick and USA Football's Coaching School and State Forum.

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each of the coach's respective football programs.

The Saints Youth Task Force meets monthly and addresses issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

The Youth Programs Department is also influential in the Hurricane Katrina recovery process, helping raise thousands of dollars through the NFL Player Matching Grant program. In conjunction with the NFL Youth Football Fund, the monies were contributed to youth football organizations throughout the region.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS 44, SAINTS 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans opened the scoring when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a 10-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 16, SAINTS 6

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The Bears went up 3-0 on a K Kevin Butler 33-yard FG after an interception. Chicago surged ahead by 10 points when QB Mike Tomczak connected with TE James Thornton on an 18-yard scoring pass. K Morten Andersen got the Saints on the scoreboard with a 47-yard FG with 1:38 remaining in the half. An offsides call on New Orleans nullified a 61-yard return of a blocked Bears FG attempt in the third quarter. Chicago took advantage on the reprieve, driving to set up a 22-yard field goal to give the Bears a 13-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

ATLANTA FALCONS 27, SAINTS 20

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 28, 1991) - Louisiana Superdome (68,794)

Atlanta posted 10 points in the final quarter – including a 61-yard TD grab by WR Michael Haynes – to defeat the Saints, 27-20, in a Wild Card clash between division rivals. A TD pass from QB Bobby Hebert to WR Floyd Turner gave New Orleans a 7-0 advantage and K Morten Andersen increased the lead with a 45-yard FG. The Falcons got on the board when QB Chris Miller found WR Andre Rison for a 24-yard TD pass in the second quarter. K Norm Johnson's 44-yard FG with 0:37 left in the first half tied the score, but the Saints responded with a 35-yard FG by Andersen for a 13-10 advantage at halftime. Atlanta surged ahead with a TD early in the third quarter, but the Saints came back when RB Dalton Hilliard's one-yard TD plunge. A 36-yard FG by Johnson tied it up, and Haynes' long TD with 2:41 left provided the winning margin. Hebert was intercepted with 1:10 left at the Atlanta 35.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 36, SAINTS 20

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1993) - Louisiana Superdome (68,893)

The Philadelphia Eagles rallied from a 20-7 deficit to defeat the Saints, 36-20, in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. The Saints took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Craig Heyward scored on a one-yard run. The Eagles tied the game on a 57-yard TD pass but the Saints got a 17-7 halftime lead on a Bobby Hebert scoring pass and a 35-yard FG by Morten Andersen. Andersen drilled another FG in the third quarter, but Philadelphia pulled to 20-10 on a Roger Ruzek 40-yard FG. The Eagles grabbed a 24-20 lead with TDs on their first two possessions of the fourth quarter and Hebert was sacked for a safety by DE Reggie White. Ruzek booted a 39-yard FG and CB Eric Allen returned a INT for another score in the final minutes.

SAINTS 31, ST. LOUIS RAMS 28

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Dec. 30, 2000) - Louisiana Superdome (64,900)

The Saints earned the first playoff win in franchise history by jumping ahead to a commanding lead early by scoring 31 unanswered points and weathering a late St. Louis rally at the Superdome. After a St. Louis TD in the first quarter, the Saints scored on five of their next nine possessions. QB Aaron Brooks found WR Robert Wilson for a 12-yard TD pass and K Doug Brien hit a 33-yard FG for a 10-7 lead. Brooks then connected with WR Willie Jackson on TD passes of 10, 49 and 16 yards for a 31-7 lead with 11:57 left. The Rams mounted a comeback as QB Kurt Warner threw two TD passes and ran for another TD to pull St. Louis within three points. The Saints were forced to punt with 1:51 remaining, but the return was muffed by WR Az-Zahir Hakim. FB Brian Milne recovered the loose ball to seal the win. Jackson tied an NFL Playoff record with 3 TD catches as part of a six-catch, 142-yard day.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS 34, SAINTS 16

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 6, 2001) - Metrodome (63,881)

The Vikings raced out to a 21-point lead on the way to a 34-16 victory in the NFC Divisional Playoff game at the Metrodome. Minnesota QB Daunte Culpepper found WR Randy Moss for a 53-yard TD pass on the Vikings' opening series. The Saints pulled to 7-3, but Vikings K Gary Anderson hit a 24-yard FG and Culpepper connected with WR Cris Carter for a 17-yard TD to give Minnesota a 17-3 lead at halftime. The Vikings opened the second half with a 68-yard TD pass from Culpepper to Moss. The Saints added a TD pass from QB Aaron Brooks to TE Dave Stachelski to pull to 24-10, but the Vikings' Anderson hit a 44-yard FG and RB Robert Smith scored on a two-yard run for a 34-10 margin. New Orleans scored the game's final points as Brooks found WR Willie Jackson for a 48-yard TD pass with 2:19 left. Saints RB Chad Morton caught a NFL postseason record-tying 13 passes for 106 yards and Jackson added nine grabs for 125 yards.

SAINTS 27, PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards in leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard TD reception. Philadelphia would add a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS 39, SAINTS 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

1967 Expansion Draft

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first NFL team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected by New Orleans. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.

1967 Draft

Held March 14, 1967

The first combined AFL-NFL draft was held in 1967. A player's overall order of selection is designated by a number after his position. In 1967, the expansion New Orleans Saints received the first and last choices in each round and an additional choice at the end of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th rounds.

2010 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Rickey JACKSON 57

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. Jackson was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2010. He is the first Saint to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to receive this honor, the sixth overall. His induction is part of a class that also includes Redskins guard Russ Grimm, Lions cornerback Dick LeBeau, Broncos running back Floyd Little, Vikings defensive tackle John Randle, 49ers wide receiver Jerry Rice and Cowboys running back Emmitt Smith.

Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225, during 15 NFL seasons, 13, which were spent with the Saints. His 195 appearances as a Saint are the second-highest total in franchise history. He missed only two games, out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

The Pahokee, Fla. Native finished his career with 128 sacks (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. With 115 as a Saint, he is the club's all-time leader and he led the club in takedowns six times. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the second-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning season in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson was drafted in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft out of the Pittsburgh. He made an immediate impact in the Black and Gold defense, as he led the team with 125 tackles and eight sacks. In his second season, he recorded 4.5 sacks in a nine-game strike shortened campaign as the saints narrowly missed the postseason.

In 1983, Jackson earned a Pro Bowl trip for the first time as he established himself as one of the NFL's top pass rushers, leading the team with 12 sacks, while defending a career-high 21 passes. This would be the first of four consecutive seasons where he would be selected to the Pro Bowl. In 1984, he led NFC linebackers with 12 sacks, while forcing four fumbles and recovering four, as he was named an Associated Press All-Pro selection for the first time. In the next three seasons, Jackson would post successive sacks totals of 12, 11 and nine as he was named to the Pro Bowl each time. In a contest at Atlanta on December 24, 1986, he set the club record with four sacks.

1987 saw the Saints qualify for the postseason for the first time with a 12-3 record. Jackson played a pivotal role, recording 74 tackles, 9.5 sacks, three forced fumbles and two interceptions. In what was then the biggest comeback in franchise history, in a 41-24 win over Cincinnati on December 20, 1987, Jackson was dominant in the fight back from a 24-3 deficit, recording three sacks and forcing two fumbles.

In 1988, the Saints enjoyed their second straight winning season as Jackson recorded 92 tackles and tied for the club lead with seven sacks, four takedowns coming in one contest to tie his career-high and club record.

In 1989, Jackson suffered a broken cheekbone in an auto accident following the season opener. Expected by doctors to miss a month to six weeks, the two games he missed were the only ones of his career as he still managed to post 7.5 sacks.

In 1990, Jackson shattered the club record with seven fumble recoveries, still tied for the third-highest total in NFL history, to go with four forced fumbles and six sacks.

In 1991, the Saints captured the NFC West for their first division title in franchise history as he turned in 11.5 sacks, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. New Orleans would go to the playoff back to back for the first time the following year and he was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 1986, as he led the Saints with 13.5 sacks and six forced fumbles.

Jackson closed out his Saints playing career in 1993, as he was voted to the Pro Bowl and logged 11.5 sacks, four forced fumbles and three recoveries. He would close out his career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996 and his number 57 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Louisiana Superdome.

Saints Owner Tom Benson is scheduled to be the presenter at Jackson's Hall of Fame induction on August 7, 2010.
